WOMEN MUST HELP WOMEN.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—A world wide campaign with the slogan "Women must protect women," was launched today by the International Congress of Women.

Mme. Ali Kull Khan, the exposition Persian commissioner's wife, said American women have aided in the move to free Persia from the idea that "woman is a pretty ornament to wear."

What Utah is doing to aid women, and how the lot of show girls has been improved were told by Mrs. M. T. Hyde, of Ogden, and Miss Helen Brookman.

WOMAN BADLY BURNED

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—Her hair and clothing completely burned off her body and numerous other burns inflicted when her dress caught fire in a gas plate where she was cooking breakfast at 6 o'clock this morning, Mrs. C. J. Jarig, aged 35, is at the city hospital where doctors have little hope for her recovery.

Mrs. Jarig is alleged to have lived with a man named Johnson in a Western avenue rooming house for the past month as man and wife. The police say the couple quarreled this morning and when the woman was wrapped in flames, the man disappeared. He has not yet been found.

THINK HOW MANY happy travelers are "wedded" to Hotel Nertonia

They are wedded to the HOME-LIKE element that everywhere prevails. They know how perfectly the NORTONIA "kind" satisfies. That it quickens the appetite—imparts Z. A. Z. (ask the clerk). Truly this is a good ideal to be "married" to. Why not espouse it today? Rooms with privilege of bath $1 or more the day. Rooms with private bath $1.50 or more the day. The thing that appeals—moderate prices.

Loomis and Lundy Will Hang Tomorrow

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 4.—Governor Johnson at his office today declined to make a statement in the cases of Earl Loomis and Louis Bundy who are to be hanged tomorrow. This indicates that the governor will allow the law to take its course and that Loomis will drop to his death on the gallows scaffold at 10 o'clock and Bundy at San Quentin the same hour.

Loomis has given up all hope of commutation or reprieve. When Warden Smith called on him in the death cell today Loomis said: "Warden I want to be left alone during the last hours of my life. I don't want to see any one."

The youth was reading a Bible when Smith entered the cell. "I am taking up religion," said Loomis pointing to the book. "I guess it's pretty late to take up religion but I hope it will do me some good. A woman who used to write to me taught me some prayers and gave me this Bible. I want to be left alone so I can read the book and say the prayers."

The condemned youth when asked if he wanted a priest or minister sent to him replied: "I want to be left alone by myself."

Loomis appears perfectly calm according to the warden. All hope of reprieve gone, Louis Bundy, aged 19, covered today in the wooden death cell of San Quentin penitentiary. Tomorrow he will pass through the death door and mount the steps to the state gallows, to pay the penalty for the murder of Harold Ziecher, 15 year old messenger, at Los Angeles.

Everything is ready for the execution. During the day, the youthful prisoner, his once strong nerve turned to fear, saw his spiritual adviser. Hitherto unafraid to die, the lad confessed, life looks good, though he saw no chance that the governor at the eleventh hour would stay his execution.

GOT SEVEN YEARS

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 4.—Webster S. Michael, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who eloped to Sacramento with pretty Mabel Cohen, aged 15, of New York, was today sentenced to seven years in San Quentin prison, by Judge Glenn.

Michael in pleading guilty gave his age as 56. The girl tried to save him from prison saying she had asked him to elope with her.

NO PEACE DISCUSSIONS

Washington, Nov. 4.—The Italian embassy has been instructed to deny most emphatically the reported attempts of the Italian government to discuss peace.

This was in reply to reports that Italian diplomats had gone to Lucerne, Switzerland to meet German peace agents.

ALL YELLING FRAUD!

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 4.—With both sides crying fraud, Kentucky today was more excited over politics than it has been since the famous Goebel-Taylor political feud. Former Congressman Stanley's indicated majority for governor is upwards of 1,700. The republicans, however, still claim that E. P. Morrow was elected.

MISS WILSON ON PROGRAM

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 4.—Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of the president, was expected to address the Wisconsin state teachers' association convention here today concerning the education of children.

The C. W. B. M. of the First Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. John Lockman, 180 South Fourteenth street, Friday afternoon, November 5.

An occupation rather out of the usual is that of the firm of H. C. Stockwell and Son, of Los Angeles. Their business for the past 15 years has been that of inspecting the time locks on the vaults and safes of banks. For the past few days this inspection has been under way in all the banks of the city. The inspection is made annually.

Colonel Charles Erskine Scott Wood will deliver the first lecture of the season of the public library course tomorrow evening in the auditorium of the Salem Public Library.

The Salem Public Library. He is a graduate of West Point and served for ten years in the army, seeing active service in the Nez Perces, Pinte and Bannock Indian campaigns. Besides being a soldier, Col. Wood is a poet and writer, "The Poet and the Desert" is perhaps his best known book. The subject to be discussed by Col. Wood is, "The Underlying Causes of the War."

The Jitney Frolic, given last evening in the Argo hotel building to raise funds to furnish a room for the Y. W. C. A. in the Roth building, was a success not only in the pleasure given to those who attended, but in the amount of money realized. The entertainment of the evening included Indian dances by Mrs. O. B. Gingrich, and a song act by Miss Margery Marvis and Carl Gabrielson. Tom Orndeman as ever, was a favorite of the evening, singing "One Fleeting Hour" and "In the Garden of Sweden." In both of these songs he was ably accompanied by Miss Mary Schultz on the violin. Miss Schultz also accompanied in several other numbers. Miss Priscilla Fleming gave several dances in Turkish costume, accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr. Albert Egan and Willard Hall were both well received and called upon to respond to encores. Following the program, the unsold articles were auctioned off by Harvey Willis and Albert Egan. More than $100 was realized by the entertainment.

Schumann Quintet is worth $1 alone. Season ticket $1.

The car shortage which has existed in this state for a month has been improving during the last few days. Monday 48 cars were received. Tuesday 63, yesterday 50 and today 103 were reported available for loading. The shortage is still severely felt in some parts of the state but if the cars continue to come in as they have this week the situation will soon be well in hand.

Do you know that single admissions to the Salem Lyceum Course will be $1.00 and $1.50. Season tickets will cost only $1.00.

A. Settles, of Ashland, today notified Secretary of State O'Leary, that he had just completed a correspondence course in some Detective school and was now ready for a job. Mr. Settles stated that he had had a thorough course and sought a license to do some work on his own account as a private detective. Mr. O'Leary was obliged to inform him that the state did not license detectives and that they were employed by the cities as they were needed.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will meet with Mrs. E. Hurst, of 1491 S. Commercial street Friday at 2:30 o'clock. All members and friends are cordially invited.

CITY OWNED PLANT GIVES LOW RATES

Tacoma Gets Cheapest Electricity of Any City in United States

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 4.—The cheapest rate for electricity of any city in the United States is to be enjoyed by consumers in Tacoma beginning January 1 next, according to announcement today by Light Commissioner Drake. A total saving of approximately $60,000 a year to patrons of the city-owned plant will be effected. The most important changes are the reduction in current for dwelling houses from 5 1-2 to 5 cents a kilowatt hour, with a rate of one cent where used for heating and cooking; for business houses from 5 1-2 to 4 cents as the maximum, with a sliding scale dropping as low as 1.32 cent a kilowatt.

Mrs. Caldwell Was Victim of the Wreck

Mrs. S. B. J. Caldwell, of Salem Heights, was among those who were drowned when the steamship Santa Clara went aground in Coos Bay Tuesday night. Her body was the last one recovered from the wreck and to be identified. She was on her way to Marshfield and while on board at Astoria had written the family here, stating that she was in the cabin of the Santa Clara and expected to sail within a few hours.

As soon as news was received of the wreck, fears were entertained as to her safety. The steamship company at Portland wired that she was not on the passenger list, although the family here knew she had taken passage on the boat. Lists published of the survivors and drowned failed to give any information, except the fact that the bodies of two women recovered had not been identified. One of these was later identified as Mrs. Caldwell.

The body will be shipped by stage from Marshfield to Roseburg and is expected to arrive in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Caldwell was well known in this city and was an ardent member of the First Baptist church. Her daughters Olive and Ruth are graduates of the Salem High school, and Harold, the oldest son is a student at the High school. Vernon the youngest son, attends the Lincoln Junior High school.

It is thought that the body is in charge of Chester Gibbs, a nephew, and that he will accompany it to this city.

Villa's Big Army Is Just "Petering Out"

Naco, Ariz., Nov. 4.—Bringing word of the killing of four Americans by the Carranza army while they were aiding the Villista wounded at the battle of Agua Prieta, General Francisco Villa, riding a mule, entered Naco, Sonora, today in the midst of his defeated forces.

The dead Americans are Doctors Miller and Thigpen of Sonora and Chauffeurs Nat Wilson and Joe Pylant of Naco.

According to Villa, the four were giving first aid to three wounded Mexicans near the Villa lines when the shell burst among them, killing all instantly. Their bodies are being brought here. Villa also declared that he had not abandoned hope of taking Agua Prieta.

"My forces to take care of Agua Prieta are yet to arrive," he said. Then he shook his head mysteriously, and refused to give details. After a brief halt, Villa rode his mule away in the direction of Nogales, followed by a straggling trail of cavalrymen.

Five hundred wounded Villistas are in the hospital at Naco. Four thousand and Villistas are reported marching into Cananea.

IS SORRY SHE BOUGHT 'EM

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—Rene Davis, striking New York City girl singing at the Orpheum theatre here this week, wishes now that she had stuck to petty crimes when the fashions changed. But, being a stickler for up-to-the-minute stuff in her wardrobe as well as everywhere else, Miss Davis had to have knickerbockers.

She bought a pair at the Frances, Inc. store in New York.

Today a suit was filed against Miss Davis in superior court asking judgment against her for the price of the knickerbockers, also other things. The amount sought is $273.98, reduced from $274.

THAT FAY BOMB PLOT.

New York, Nov. 4.—More than a dozen arrests in connection with the Robert Fay bomb plot and other anti-air activities along the water front have been made in the last 12 hours in the hope of bringing in some who would turn state evidence. Their alleged activities sought in many ways to cripple war supplies for the allies, and it is said that robbery of allied munitionary parts was one of the gang's methods.

FIRE AT LOS ANGELES.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 4.—Five firemen were injured and damage estimated at $250,000 done today when flames swept through the five story Douglas building, destroying clothing and shoe stores on the first floor, and causing offices tenanted by 100 persons. Three alarms brought all downtown apparatus. More than a dozen firemen were overcome by smoke.

PROTEST REACHES LONDON.

Washington, Nov. 4.—The American note protesting against British interference with American commerce arrived in London last night and will be delivered tomorrow. The state department said it expected the note will be made public her Monday.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

District Attorney Ringo was in Hubbard yesterday on business connected with the Justice court in that district. Mr. Ringo recently informed all of the Justices of the Peace in this county that he would be glad to give them legal advice at all times and would visit their district upon notification from them that his services were needed.

A marriage license was issued today at the county clerk's office to Hugh T. Grace, a farmer of Stayton, and Ethel Mack, also of Stayton. Roy E. Abraham, a contractor of Woodburn, and Margaret Stoller, also of Woodburn, secured a marriage license today.

An inventory and appraisement in the matter of the estate of Mary A. Bressler, an incompetent person, was filed today in the probate court. The appraisement shows the estate to consist of two parcels of real property in this county valued at a total of $400.—Robert Wooley, J. H. Long and Mrs. C. L. Babington were the appraisers.

Frank Stoddard, H. J. Perry and Virgil Gidden today filed a certificate of assumed name for the "Jitney Coffee Club" located at 429 Court street and declared their intention to conduct a restaurant business and to sell confectionery and cigars, etc.

Judge Galloway yesterday granted a divorce to the defendant in the case of Mary Bell Dunlap against J. H. Dunlap and by the decree the defendant gets the care and custody of his minor son, Delbert Dunlap. The property rights involved were settled out of court.

The divorce suit brought by Sigmund H. Hershback against Magdalene Hershback was decided yesterday by Judge Galloway. By the decree the defendant was held to be entitled to the sum of $5 per month for the support of their minor child.

The commitments to the Oregon State hospital for the insane were made yesterday by Judge Bushley. Elizabeth Heller, of Mt. Angel, was adjudged to be insane through senility as she was 87 years of age. Mrs. Emma Shaw, of Scotts Mills, was also committed after an examination. William Townsend, well known as "Billy" Townsend, was also adjudged to be insane. He is 86 years of age and has lived in this vicinity for 40 years.

Attended Meeting of Walnut Growers

Charles L. McNary, John H. Scott and Louis Lachmund returned yesterday from Portland where they had been attending the Northwest Walnut Growers' association, which includes all the prominent walnut growers in Washington and Oregon.

These meetings are held for the purpose of encouraging the walnut industry, to show the adaptability of the soil in this valley to the growing of walnuts, and for the general exchange of ideas as to cultivating, grading, packing and marketing.

In the discussions of the session, it developed that many hop growers are planting walnuts in their hop fields and as the trees become larger, are cutting out the hops.

Papers of interest were read by Prof. W. I. Lewis of the O. A. C., Fred Grover, of Hillsboro, the most extensive walnut grower in Oregon, and A. A. Quantenberg, of Vancouver, Wash., a prominent grower of Washington.

Dr. Fitzgerald of San Jose, Cal., spoke enthusiastically of the nut growing industry and predicted that within 15 years, English walnuts would be one of the greatest money producing crops in the valley.
