YOUNG DRUG MERCHANTS.
Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—Frank and Ray Davis, brothers, 34 and 21, respectively, and Orley Campbell, 19, were being held in the city jail today by federal agents, who believed the trio belong to a well defined ring of narcotic drug merchants.
Ray Davis was arrested when he walked into the police station to inquire after his brother. Alleged patron of Davis and Campbell, it is said, paid $1 for two grains of cocaine or seven grains of morphine. Headquarters, according to the authorities were at the Independent Messenger company's office on Jackson street.

THE MARKETS

Market conditions are generally quiet. Wheat and oats are holding at the price of the past week. Hogs are weak, but with no local changes. Eggs are scarce in the Portland market and the same might be said of Salem. Prices are running about the same as for the past week, varying from 36 to 40 cents a dozen.

Baby Home Asks Aid Thanksgiving

Portland, Oregon, November 1, 1915. Mr. Editor and Proprietors:

As you may know, there is an institution in Portland called "The Baby Home," which was incorporated twenty-six years ago and which has done most excellent work, as we believe, in the care of babies under three years of age. This institution is supported in part by the state of Oregon, but the principal support has come from the citizens in and about Portland, although the inmates of the home are brought to us from every county in the state. We receive no pay from the father or mother who places the child in the home, as in doing so we would receive nothing from the state. Sometimes they show their appreciation by making small donations.

The expense of running the home is about $1000 per month. There are sixty babies there, a superintendent, seven or eight day nurses, one night nurse, one handyman and the yardman. Our premises occupy about three acres in the outer portion of the city just south of Sunnyside.

We are not in debt but we have to raise about $450 each month to provide salaries (the officers of the board receive no pay), food, heating, lighting and necessary appliances about the home, costing us last year $18.05 per month for each child. This you may think is a high figure, but we are under state supervision and subject to state inspection, and the state insists on the most modern appliances, experienced nurses, and everything that tends to the latest system in the care of babies. As a result, these little ones, although coming to us poorly nourished and sometimes of poor parentage, soon grow into life and activity and are adopted out into good homes where they become excellent citizens.

In the twenty-six years of our existence as a baby home we have cared for more than 1400 of these little ones. Our death rate is the lowest of any institution of its kind in the United States.

The average number in the home is sixty. The average number received each month is ten, and the average number given out either for adoption or returned to one or both parents is about the same.

Our desire is to give some sort of publicity to these facts that the people throughout the state of Oregon may know there is such a valuable institution in their midst, and that they may feel and co-operate in the work of it. At our last meeting it was thought a letter might be addressed to each of the more influential journals of the state asking that on Thanksgiving Day we might be given a Shower; not a shower of rain, but a Shower of small things necessary for the home, such as clothing, food supplies, including flour, fruits, jellies, etc., or money (and future endowment), as some may prefer to send checks in small amounts, any of which would be very acceptable at this time. The home is non-sectarian.

Thanking you in advance for any aid you may give us, we are,
Very truly yours,
T. S. AKIN, Secretary.

required by it for all American registered ships, goes into effect today. There has been much discussion and several opinions by government officials concerning various phases of the law. An effort to have the law repealed by congress this winter will be opposed by the legislators who drafted the bill.
