SUICIDE AT TROUTDALE

Portland, Ore., Nov. 8.—Despondency due to failure to obtain work, was believed today to have caused William Hess, aged 42, to commit suicide by shooting himself at Troutdale Sunday.

Hess was also known to have been trying to effect a reconciliation with his wife from whom he separated eight years ago in Oklahoma, and failure to do so may have contributed to his despondency.

CHURCH PILFERER CAUGHT

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 8.—Caught taking a purse supposedly left on a pew in St. Leo's church, Ludwika Albino, aged 37, is under arrest here today. Her arrest followed a series of thefts at the church during the last month and the police declare the prisoner is responsible for them all. Two watches and a purse were found concealed in a mattress in the woman's home.

Seven Convicts Are Paroled by Governor

The parole board met on November 1 and considered twenty-six cases of inmates of the penitentiary eligible for parole. Several of these cases had already been considered at previous meetings, and had been continued until this date. All seven paroles of men who had served the minimum sentence and were eligible for same under the provisions of the indeterminate sentence law were recommended to the governor. In each case the man had established a good prison record and before release definite employment will be secured.

John McLain, crime, larceny from person; county, Jackson; sentence, 1 to 5 years; received, November 6, 1914; expired, November 6, 1915.

Barney Murray, crime, receiving stolen property; county, Wasco; sentence, 1 to 3 years; received, November 12, 1914; expires, November 12, 1915.

Edward Parks, crime, larceny in a dwelling; county, Clatsop; sentence, 1 to 7 years; received, October 13, 1914; expires, October 13, 1915.

A. R. Fairfield, crime, larceny of a mare; county, Steamer; sentence, 1 to 10 years; received, February 17, 1914; expires, February 17, 1915.

Tim Downey, crime, larceny from a person; county, Umatilla; sentence, 1 to 5 years; received, September 3, 1914; expires, September 3, 1915.

Walter Quick, crime, larceny in a dwelling; county, Lake; sentence, 1 to 7 years; received, October 26, 1914; expires, October 26, 1915.

M. E. Hutchinson, crime, obtaining money by false pretenses; county, Umatilla; sentence, 1 to 5 years; received, November 7, 1914; expires, November 7, 1915.

OCEAN MAKES HOTEL MOVE

Bar View, Ore., Nov. 8.—Fears were expressed here today that great swells from the Pacific ocean would wash away the Bar View hotel. The water is now within 30 feet of the structure. Plans are on foot to bring a house moving outfit here to transport the hotel to safer ground.

It was believed the building of the new Tillamook jetty changed the course of the tides action, diverting it to soft and unprotected soil here.

TICKETS FOR LYCEUM COURSE GOING FAST

Nine Hundred Sold, Only 300 Left--If You Want One "You'll Have to Hurry"

Nine hundred tickets to the Lyceum are gone. There are only 300 left. This is at 12 o'clock Monday. We sold 75 this morning.

They are going in bunches. People are taking tickets for their entire family. It is nothing at all unusual for people to take from three to five tickets. They realize of course, that they are saving money on this basis. They are also attracted by the unusual opportunity of being able to take their entire family for the entire season at a figure they have been accustomed to pay heretofore for themselves alone.

Business men are also buying tickets for their employees. One of the leading financiers, whose name we are not privileged to mention, bought 20 tickets and distributed them to the men in his institution.

The schools, too, are taking advantage of our exceptional offer. We sold 50 tickets this morning at the Capital Business college.

We are a little disappointed in not selling more than we have to the students of the high school, but we feel that they have been occupied with their big football game with Eugene. Now that they have won the game and have permanent possession of the silver cup, we believe they will take hold of the Lyceum in their characteristic spirit.

I am more pleased than with the excellent result of our canvass. Everything points to a most successful season. With the good will that I have found existing among the patrons of our course and with the high grade of the talent coming I look forward with absolute confidence to a season of unprecedented comfort and pleasure.

Mr. Chapin Illustrated His Lecture With Stereopticon Views

The Aumsville corn show, in session Friday and Saturday, closed with a special session attended by more than 200, addressed by L. J. Chapin, who illustrated his lecture with stereopticon slides.

The show was a success in every respect, not only from the large number of entries and fine quality of the exhibits, but also from the large attendance each session. For the 100 car prize, there was 14 entries, three for the best general display and 20 for the best 10 cars displayed. Many entries were made of sweet corn and popcorn.

Saturday afternoon, a board for the coming year was elected, of which O. B. McElley is president, O. E. Durby, vice-president; F. W. Johnson, secretary; H. C. Van Behren, treasurer, and Clair Donker, trustee. This board is already laying plans for next year.

The following were awarded prizes: Charles E. Colvin, third on single ear yellow dent corn.

J. W. Ray, first on 10 ears yellow dent; first on 10 ears white dent; first on popcorn; second on sweet corn and first on individual display.

A. Ferry, first on sweet corn and third on individual display.

C. Zimmerman, third on 10 ears yellow dent.

S. J. Condit, third on sweet corn and second on individual corn display.

W. F. Harris, second on 10 ears of white dent corn.

Clair Donker, first on single ear yellow dent; second on 10 ears yellow dent; first on 100 ears yellow dent.

C. S. Boyne, second on single ear yellow dent and third on 100 ears yellow dent.

C. I. Crane, second award on popcorn.

Clarence Forrette, first on 100 ears white dent.

O. J. Rable, second on 10 ears of flint corn.

Those having exhibits at the corn show were: T. H. Hunt, William Cox, Hugh Kessel, A. Anhook, W. L. Diel, E. A. Wood, C. W. Bell, B. F. Dougherty, Z. Webb, Corn Galloway, Belle Galloway, P. M. Albas, John Kuser, J. H. Strayer, Mrs. J. E. Lewis and John Albas.

Education Pig May Prove New Idea for the Dog Fanciers of Salem

The city dog catcher was completely at a loss today as to how to deal with a brand new situation in pets when Mr. and Mrs. Van Camp went down the street followed by a small black and white pig furnished with a blue ribbon instead of a sprig of parsley as pigs are generally furnished about this time of year. The pig serves the purpose of a lap dog and as a "lap pig" the dog catcher considered that it should come partly under the provisions of the ordinance which requires that all lap and other dogs shall be kept on a chain on the streets.

Manager Bligh of the Bligh theatre, where the Van Camps will appear tomorrow and Wednesday says that the dog ordinance is not applicable as there is no law against Van Camps Park and Beans and that the beans are not necessary. The Van Camps educated pigs are to be exhibited for the first time tomorrow in a novelty trained animal act.

DALLAS CLUB GETS INTO LINE FOR PRESENT RATES

Dallas, Ore., Nov. 8.—The following resolutions have been adopted by the Commercial club of Dallas:

Whereas, It has been prominently brought to our notice through the press of the Willamette valley and of Portland, that a few lumber manufacturers of Portland are attacking the Southern Pacific company,

Whereas, The said lumber manufacturers have evidently enlisted the services of the Portland Evening Telegram to create public opinion in favor of their contentions, and

Whereas, The Portland Evening Telegram seems to have received its information from unreliable sources and has apparently made many misstatements, and most unfairly attacked the Southern Pacific company and Willamette valley lumber industry, be it Resolved, That the Portland Chamber of Commerce, Oregon Civic society and other civic bodies should prevail upon the Evening Telegram and the Portland lumber manufacturers to desist from further misrepresentations to the public, and to take their grievance to the interstate commerce commission in an ethical and fair manner and without further effort to disrupt the general business relations between the Willamette valley and the city of Portland.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Tuesday night, November 2, about 5:30 Malcolm Ramp, of Brooks, who had been in Gervais on business, started for home in company of George Rithey, when just out side of the corporation on the Brooks and Salem road they collided with an automobile. The auto was traveling at a high rate of speed, struck the buggy throwing George to the ground but he was not seriously hurt. The buggy was practically demolished. Both parties returned to town and a satisfactory settlement was made.—Gervais Star.

"PUNCH JONES" PLEASAS

Punch Jones and his big Black and Tan Rag Time Opera and Minstrels will be the steller attraction at the Bligh Theatre for Sunday and Monday. The show comes with most flattering press notices and has been a box office winner wherever it has played this season, carrying as they do their own concert band and orchestra a rare treat in store for the lovers of the lighter form of amusement.

Russel Massengale the cornet virtuoso of the company has a selected company of musicians around him who dispenses the odd and catchy rag music for the show playing Grand Opera in Rag Time is one of the most difficult tricks of the profession.

They give a street parade and band concert at noon and a concert in front of the theatre before the show.

Jess Huston, the sweet voiced lyric tenor, will be heard in some selected numbers in the minuet; first part. He has a most remarkable range for a boy of his years and sings such ballad songs as Tosti's "Good Bye," John McCormack's "I Hear You Calling Me," the old favorite "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

Fast comedy and dancing will be a big feature to the show and playing at the popular scale of prices it is safe to say that standing room will be at a premium.

A Japanese lantern has a huge contempt for a Halloween pumpkin trying to do a stunt with a candle inside of it.

"You have certainly the best assortment of hats in Salem," said a customer on Saturday.

That's ONE man's opinion -- we'd like YOURS. Two to six dollars, with superior values at $3 and $4. Made by Crofut-Knapp and Stetson.

Every hat here is of the newest style -- an insurance to our customers from "old-timers."

We plead guilty of having the ambition to be YOUR hatter.
