RECEIVED LETTER AS FROM THE DEAD

Mrs. Caldbeck's Letter Written On Santa Clara Received After Tragedy

Writing to her husband and four children from on board the Santa Clara between Portland and Astoria, Mrs. B. J. Caldbeck, who lost her life the following day when the vessel was wrecked, describes this part of her voyage.

When word was first received of the wreck of the Santa Clara Tuesday evening inside Coos bay, there was much difficulty in learning whether Mrs. Caldbeck had taken passage on this vessel, as the purser's list had been lost, and the Portland office wired as such name was on the sailing list. A niece, Miss Eva Phillips, of Sacramento, received a postal card from Mrs. Caldbeck announcing that she had sailed on the Santa Clara, and later the family in Salem received the following letter, mailed from the Santa Clara, just before they left Astoria Monday evening. The letter written to the home folks in Salem, follows:

Monday Evening, Nov. 1, 1915. On Board the Santa Clara in the Columbia River.

Dear Folks: Well, I got started at last. We left the dock in Portland at 9:30 and are now in the river. Very foggy when we started, but the sun is trying to shine. Ate some breakfast just before we left the dock. It is a six hour run to Astoria where we cross the bar to get into the Pacific ocean. I hope we will be able to go on without waiting too long. I don't know where I will get a chance to mail this, but will send it from Astoria if I can.

I have a room all to myself, with three berths in it. It is about six feet square. The berths are about two feet wide, one over the other, fastened to the wall. You have to go to the purser with a check. They tear off your ticket and he assigns you to a seat at a certain table and unless you take it 10 minutes after the call, you forfeit your place.

There is a sign up in each room with the rules of the vessel and one is that in case of delay in crossing the bar, or anything else, they are not responsible for meals, but you have to pay extra if you want any. Will write more later. Later—We are wearing the mouth of the Columbia now and there are scores of fishing boats putting out their nets for the night, and each one has two lights on a pole in the center of the boat. It is so cold that I had to put on my blue jacket and put the top over it to keep warm. I wish I had my muff, my hands are nearly frozen. We will cross the bar at 8 o'clock on high tide, the captain says. Will write more later.

Later, 6:30.—Just got through supper. We are at Astoria and I think they will stop a few minutes, long enough for me to mail this letter. I stood in the bow of the boat for two hours this afternoon, coming up the Columbia. My, but it was fine scenery. Will write when I get to Marshfield about the trip on the ocean.

Goodbye, love to all. MAMMA.

Mrs. Caldbeck was born 45 years ago in Madison, Wis., but spent the greater part of her life in Chicago. With her husband and children they came to this country about 12 years ago, and located in Salem in 1900. Her niece, Mrs. Florence Gibbs, of Marshfield, had been sick, and it was to visit her, that the voyage was undertaken. When the news of the wreck was first known, a niece, Miss Eva Phillips, living in Sacramento, through the assistance of the Western Union, learned of the unidentified bodies of two women, and through a detective wired by her, Mrs. Caldbeck was identified. The son Harold, a student of the Salem high school, left for Marshfield Friday, and arrived with the body last evening, driving from Marshfield to Coaling, along the sea shore. Funeral services were held this afternoon at the Baptist church, with the Rev. Harry E. Marshall officiating. Burial was in the City View cemetery.

HAYESVILLE NEWS

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Hayesville, Ore., Nov. 10.—The annual Chrysanthemum show of Hayesville will be held at the church here Friday, November 12. It will be in charge of the ladies aid society. All those who wish to enter flowers either for display or premiums are requested to bring them early as possible Friday. Chrysanthemum growers indoors will be gladly received but cannot enter for premiums. This show is an event of much interest each year and always brings forth a splendid array of exquisite blossoms of which any community may be justly proud. Visitors are welcome at any time during the day.

The regular Sunday school will be held Sunday morning at 9 o'clock instead of 10, owing to the young people's rally which convenes at 10 o'clock and continues throughout the day. Walter Fuhrer will tell the story of the lesson at the Sunday school and there is expected to be some special music.

The meeting for the purpose of organizing a literary society was held, as pre-arranged last Friday night at the school house, and the following officers were elected: L. T. Reynolds, president; Miss Alta Patterson, vice-president; Miss Ruby Rotzien, secretary; Miss Mable Starr, treasurer; John Deany, sergeant-at-arms. G. E. McAfee, Joe Fitts and Miss Hilda Greenfelder were appointed as program committees. It was decided to hold the meetings the first and third Friday nights of each month.

PARTY AT TURNER.

Turner, Ore., Nov. 10.—Miss Albee Baker was hostess for a delightful "Japanese" Sunday school class party at which about twenty-two young people and eight of the older folks were present.

The hostess was in full Japanese costume, even to the "do up" of her jet black hair. Japanese lanterns, furnished a soft pretty light for the room, ferns and chrysanthemums, completed the decorations. A short Japanese program of music and reading was followed by games, after which partners for refreshments were obtained by means of two large cobwebs. At each end of the string, one found a character Japanese doll, which corresponded with another doll in the room.

The refreshments consisting of noodles, eaten with chop sticks, tea and wafers.

In bidding the hostess goodnight, each guest bowed to the floor three times, causing the party to break up in a very laughable manner.

A Message To Women

Those of Middle Age Especially.

When you have found no remedy for the horrors that oppress you during change of life, when through the long hours of the day it seems as though your back would break, when your head aches constantly, you are nervous, depressed and suffer from those dreadful bearing down pains, don't forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the safest and surest remedy, and has carried hundreds of women safely through this critical period.

Read what these three women say:

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I am writing to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and summer and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered from a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no appetite and at times was very weak."

"I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained eight pounds, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day. Everybody is asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may publish this letter if you wish and I hope others who have the same complaint will see it and get health from your medicine as I did."—Mrs. A. HORNUNG, 91 Stanton St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Made Me Well and Strong.

MACEDON, N. Y.—"I was all run down and very thin in flesh, nervous, no appetite, could not sleep and was weak, and felt badly all the time. The doctors said I had poor blood and what I had was turning to water. I took different medicines which did not help me, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and strong, and I am recommending it to my friends."—Mrs. FRED CHACE, R. No. 2, Macedon, N. Y.

The Change of Life.

BELTSVILLE, Md.—"By the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I have successfully passed through a most trying time, the Change of Life. I suffered with a weakness, and had to stay in bed three days at a time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health, and I am praising it for the benefit of other women who suffer as I did."—Mrs. W. S. DUVALL, Route No. 1, Beltsville, Md.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

DOWNWARD COURSE

Fast Being Realized by Salem People. A little backache at first. Daily increasing 'till the back is lame and weak. Urinary disorders may quickly follow; Dropsy and often Bright's disease. This frequently is the downward course of kidney ills.

Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a Salem citizen. W. H. Bradley, farmer, 614 S. 21st St., Salem, says: "About two years ago kidney trouble came on me. First, my back began to ache, then pain seemed to spread all over my body, like rheumatism. The kidney secretions were unnatural and I knew that my kidneys were disordered. I read an endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills given by one of my neighbors, and I got some. Before I started the second box of this medicine I was almost entirely free from pain and my kidneys acted regularly. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills since with good results."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bradley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SILVERTON NEWS

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Silvertown, Ore., Nov. 10.—The Hal- lowe'en social at the M. E. church last Friday night, given by the Women's Missionary society, was very successfully carried out and the various other things that would give a fellow a shiver's feeling should give a chance to meet them when alone on a dark night. A fine program was given, and a delicious supper of brown bread, baked beans, cake and coffee served by spoons was much enjoyed by all. The money taken in will be used toward educating a young boy at the Portland Industrial Home.

A number of friends of the Chas. King family gathered at their pleasant home in the Waldo Hills last Sunday. Mrs. King is leaving soon for Portland, and this was a kind of farewell party. A social day was passed. The guests were the Lou and Will Haberly families, Mrs. Oscar Cavender and daughter, Miss Nellie Cavender, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stalker, Mr. and Mrs. Herrick and Mr. and Mrs. Upson and daughter.

Hallowe'en was the inspiration for several parties and frolics in this vicinity the past week. A delightful time was had at the home of Palmer Taylor, Evans Valley, and one at the home of Dr. Pettit to celebrate the birthday of their daughter, Irene, who was enjoyed by the little girl friends, and a birthday surprise on Grandma Tabert was another of the week's events, and a very happy gathering of her neighbors and friends.

Mrs. P. A. Lorr, who has been making an extended stay in the middle west, in Ohio, Kentucky and Virginia, returned home this week. She also visited different points in California en route.

William Brown has a very sore mouth caused by a kick from a vicious horse. The upper lip was cut badly enough to require several stitches. A reception was given at the United Lutheran church last Sunday, in honor of Rev. J. C. Reinson, a former pastor, who was here to attend the dedication of the new church, and who now is located at Virginia, Minn. A nice program was rendered and a bounteous dinner was served. Rev. Reinson was presented a beautiful clock and a purse of money by the congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sayer and baby, who are moving to Hepper, Ore., from Portland, were visiting the past week at the M. M. Sayer home.

The E. W. Hall family have moved to Mill City and will rent their Silvertown property.

Mrs. Alice Bronkey and baby spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Smith, at Mt. Angel.

Mrs. Arthur Chamness left for Wasco the last of the week for a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. James Moore, Mrs. Will Moore and Mrs. C. M. Wray spent Thursday at Woodburn, guests at the home of Mrs. J. A. Hicks.

Mrs. L. McKee is recovering nicely from her recent serious illness.

Will Nutting is down from the Silver Falls logging camp to spend a few days with his mother, Mrs. L. B. Nutting.

Jack Iverson is spending a couple of weeks with Portland relatives.

Miss Marie Edson was a guest of Salem friends the first of the week.

Mrs. Earl Wood and Francis were at Woodburn the last of the week, visiting relatives.

Miss Georgia Webb, of Mt. Angel, spent the week-end at the Charles Webb home, on Mill street.

Mrs. Ezra Royce, who has spent the past few months with her sister, Mrs. A. A. Grande and other relatives, returned to her home in Portland the first of the week.

Rollo Setson, of Woodburn, was an over Sunday guest of his friend, Johnny Circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Olson are nicely settled in their new home on East Hill. Roscoe Langley is among the many Frisco fair visitors this week.

"The glory that was Greece" remains in the past tense.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept Her Locks Youthful, Dark, Glossy and Thick With Common Garden Sage and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Famous Liberty Bell Starts For Home Today

San Francisco, Nov. 10.—San Francisco today reluctantly bade farewell to the Liberty bell. All the reverence and dignity which marked the bell's triumphant entry into San Francisco early last July was accorded the historic relic when San Francisco took leave. The bell departs tomorrow on its journey home.

Decorated with flowers and surrounded by 48 children representing the states of the union, the bell was taken from its resting place in the Pennsylvania building to a point in front of the Tower of Jewels with United States marines, the Philadelphia joint committee, exposition and city officials forming a guard of honor.

After the formal farewell was made by Governor Johnson, Mayor Rolph and others, the bell was taken under the Tower of Jewels, where it will remain under a military guard until tomorrow morning.

It is estimated that nearly 8,000,000 persons have seen the Liberty bell while it has been at the exposition.

PHOTOGRAPHER HURT.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 9.—While taking pictures, C. V. McMonagle, photographer for the Morning Oregonian, was seriously injured by a fall of 30 feet from a fire escape on the Central hotel building this afternoon. His skull was fractured.

White House Restaurant Kitchen Singed by Fire

The smoke jacket of the range of the Whitehouse restaurant kitchen burned out last night at 11 o'clock and the flames spread rapidly to all parts of the kitchen. The heat broke several skylights and the heat and water smashed many dishes while the chemicals seasoned a large amount of provisions. George Bros., the proprietors of the restaurant, estimate the loss at about $500 to the building and to the contents of the kitchen. The building belonged to Joseph Adolph.

The fire burned through the partition into the Cross Meat Market where the smoke damaged the contents of the back room to the extent of about $200 according to Curtis Cross today. The losses in both establishments were covered by insurance.
