

FULL LEASED WIRE DISPATCHES

The Daily Capital Journal

CIRCULATION IS OVER 4000 DAILY

THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR

SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1915

PRICE TWO CENTS ON TRAINS AND NEWS STANDS—FIVE CENTS

PARLIAMENT DISSOLVED BY KING CONSTANTINE

New Elections Called For December 19 When Conflicting Policies Will Be Passed Upon By Electors -- Former Premier Venizelos May Force Revolution If He Persists In His Opposition To the King, Who Has Taken Step Opponents Assert He Had No Legal Right To Do

London, Nov. 12.—King Constantine has dissolved the Greek parliament, thereby finally throwing down the gauntlet to the war party. This action evidently followed former Premier Venizelos' refusal to tolerate the Skouliotis ministry with its "benevolently neutral" leader and its Zaimis members.

PRESIDENT CONFERS WITH CABINET TODAY

It Was Stated, However, That No Crisis Was Under Discussion

Washington, Nov. 12.—Though President Wilson conferred today with his cabinet an hour—the first time in months—it was positively stated that the session was not due to any crisis over the sinking of the liner Ancona by a submarine.

GERMANS SPREAD CLUTCHES AGAINST FLEEING SERBIANS

French Report Deadlock In Fighting On Western Front

RUMANIA WOULD NOT SHARE FATE OF SERBIA

Members of Greek War Party Switch To Neutral Side

Berlin, by wireless to Sayville, Nov. 12.—Spreading their clutches against the fleeing Serbs, the Teuton armies have captured 1,700 more prisoners making a total of 5,700 reported in two days.

STATE DEPARTMENT MAY MAKE INQUIRY INTO ANCONA AFFAIR

By Bond P. Geddes. (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Nov. 12.—If reports concerning the torpedoing of the Italian liner Ancona off the Tunis coast continue to conflict, an inquiry probably will be directed by the state department today Austria and Germany asking the official versions of their admiralties.

DR. JORDAN ASKS PRESIDENT WHAT POLICY WOULD BE

Will This Nation Co-operate In Neutral Peace Move?

CLIFORNIA EDUCATOR ACTIVELY AT WORK

Has Peace Plan But Details Not Yet Decided Upon

Washington, Nov. 12.—Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Leland Stanford Jr. university, asked President Wilson today if the United States would initiate a peace commission to end the European war on the basis of international justice.

ARTILLERY OF FRENCH SCATTER BULGARIANS; ITALY PROMISES AID

Italy Will Help. London, Nov. 12.—Italy has definitely agreed to aid the allies in their Balkan campaign sufficiently to insure the complete success of the project, according to Rome dispatches today.

CONSCRIPTION LOOMS UP IF RECRUITS LAG

Lord Derby Gives Warning That Question Will Be Settled This Month

London, Nov. 12.—England was confronted today by a serious threat of conscription. Her young men must come forward voluntarily before November 30 in answer to the summons "your king and country need you," else Lord Derby, director of the voluntary enlistment system, will take steps to enforce his threats of using "other means" than requests for filling the army ranks.

West Is Deadlocked.

Paris, Nov. 12.—Deadlocked fighting in the western front has turned slightly to the French advantage, today's official statement claimed.

GRAND DUKE WINS IN PERSIAN CAMPAIGN

Reports From Far East Indicate That Turks Have Been Defeated

By J. W. T. Mason. (Written for the United Press.) New York, Nov. 12.—Grand Duke Nicholas, czar leader of the main Russian armies, has again come into prominence by directing the campaign in northern Persia and retrieving the only Turkish success. Petrograd announced that the Russians, under the grand duke are within 45 miles of Teheran and that the enemies of Russia are preparing to flee.

PROHIBITION URGED BY LABOR LEADER

Majority of Federation Delegates, However, Favor Liquor Traffic

San Francisco, Nov. 12.—Prohibition as an economic proposition—as a way to saving the nickels and dimes that now go from working men's pockets over the bar—will be considered in a labor mass meeting here Sunday conducted by the Rev. Charles Steble of New York, an A. F. of L. delegate.

By William G. Shepherd. (United Press staff correspondent.)

Monsieur, Serbia, Nov. 11.—(Delayed.)—The allies are firmly established in southern Serbia. Mounstir, Prilep and the surrounding region were in imminent danger for a time from the Bulgars but the French saved these points when they recaptured Veles.

Moreover, men seeking to shield themselves, as in the "married men's class" by weddings since the registration day, August 15, will still be regarded as single men.

Rumania Is Discreet. London, Nov. 12.—Because of reported secret information that the Rumanian government is determined not to expose itself to the fate of Belgium, officials seriously doubted today the report that Russia had been permitted to land forces on the Danube in Rumanian territory.

Bulgars Forced to Flee. Bucharest, Nov. 12.—Pushing their way obstinately to the aid of Serbia, the allies advancing from the coast have met strong resistance from the Bulgars along a 90 mile front, from Veles to southeast of Strumitza.

Italyans Take Trenches. Paris, Nov. 12.—Extirpating the defenders, Italian troops captured several lines of important trenches from the Austrians on the Carso plateau front, according to a Rome dispatch today.

War on Submarines. Rome, Nov. 12.—Determined to put an end to the recent serious enemy submarine raids in the Mediterranean the admiralty today ordered a hunt for Greek smugglers supplying Austro-German undersea boats.

Cannot Be Starved By Her Enemies Is Chancellor's Belief

Berlin, by wireless to Sayville, L. I., Nov. 12.—Germany's enemies cannot starve her, Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg declared today answering a socialist petition regarding food price regulation.

Mad Dog's Bite Causes Claim For Compensation

Whether or not a mad dog is a dangerous machine that should have proper safeguards will be decided by the State Industrial Accident commission when they pass upon the claim of Edward Young of Lakeview, who was bitten by a rabid dog while in the employ of the Cottonwood Lumber company.

War Members Switch. Berlin, via wireless to Sayville, Nov. 12.—Twenty-seven members of the Greek parliament have deserted the pro-war party of former Premier Venizelos.

Loganberry Boost Song May Not Be Suitable

Portland, Or., Nov. 12.—The Ad club was inquiring today into the complaint that the song, written to boost loganberry juice as the national beverage, and for which the organization awarded a $150 prize, was not suitable to be sung by school children.

Pursuing Serbians. Sofia, Nov. 12.—Bulgarian soldiers are hastily pursuing Serbians trying to escape their net by slipping out westward from the Morava valley.

Premier's Daughter To Wed. London, Nov. 12.—Violet Asquith, the premier's daughter, will wed Maurice Bonham Carter November 20.

SIX WERE KILLED IN KANSAS CYCLONE

Three Were Dangerously Hurt and Much Property Destroyed

Great Bend, Kan., Nov. 12.—Six dead stood today as the revised total from the terrific twister which ploughed through here Wednesday night. In addition three dangerously hurt persons were in hospitals.

A CRUEL JOKE

Philadelphia, Nov. 12.—Friends thought it would be a joke to pump John Wazak full of compressed air. Wazak is expected to die.

Former Secretary Bryan May Want Nomination

Moridian, Miss., Nov. 12.—That former Secretary of State Bryan is after the presidential nomination was suggested here this afternoon in guarded statements from J. M. McBeath, chairman of the state democratic committee and Judge R. P. Cochran, prominent democrat.

Even if it shortened the war by a day, he said, "it would pay for itself a thousand times."

Overtures Will Be Made. Washington, Nov. 12.—Definite overtures toward peace from a group of leading neutral nations will be made by Christians, Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor of Leland Stanford Jr. university predicted today.

On December 14, peace delegates from the leading neutrals will meet in Bern, Switzerland.

He expressed the personal belief, that regardless of America's action toward the proposal, the other countries would not anyway.

RAILROAD COMPANY WILL SPEND MONEY

Oregon-Washington Company Plans Improvements In Northwest

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 12.—Nearly two million dollars will be spent in the Pacific northwest for improvements by the Oregon-Washington Railroad company, according to announcement by J. P. O'Brien, vice-president of the company here today.

THE WEATHER

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday unsettled, probably occasional rain west and occasional rain or snow flurries east portion; variable winds.

At the Little Gem restaurant today a stranger asked for a cup of coffee like his father used to drink. Another kind of neutral is the fellow who lets others fight his battles.

