His Lordship Becomes Proficient As Machinist

By Wilbur S. Forrest.
(United Press staff correspondent.)
London, Oct. 11.—(By mail.)—Lord Charlemont, aged 38, eighth viscount of that noble Irish family, is in a fair way to become a member of the Tinsmiths' union. He not only admits but welcomes the possibility.

Lord Charlemont has been working for months in a munition factory at Coalbrookdale, Southern England. He started at $6 a week and piecework. To date he has made no less than $7 a week and sometimes $17. He has acquired some knowledge of metal turning and having a knack for machinery admits he has "handed on his feet." He has worked on shells with trade unionists and there was no kick. That is where he first got his idea of joining the tinsmiths.

Alongside Lord Charlemont are gentlemen and laborers, tradesmen, chauffeurs, grooms and gardeners—all making munitions. He declares they are all making good. Average intelligence, he insists, backed by a desire to do one's best, has beaten skilled labor at its own game.

"The first day," says Lord Charlemont, "I did thirty ten-pounder shells and thought it jolly good. The second day I did fifty, and now I do from 130 to 150 quite easily. I have been on sixty-pounders also; nasty things these to tackle—weigh about 40 pounds apiece and are two feet and a half long. I can do about fifty or sixty of them a day and each one pays me five cents. The miserable ten-pounders are only three farthings."

(By United Press staff correspondent.)
London, Oct. 11.—(By mail.)—How a weary, dust-covered British "Tommy" had the surprise of his life when given "a lift" in a military automobile on a country road in Northern France has just been told in London.

Two officers were in the car. They talked to the "Tommy" and he was soon telling his troubles. Soon he produced a picture of his best girl from one of his innermost pockets. The officers congratulated him on the good looks of his girl and he finally ventured:

"I suppose you, sir, carry a photograph of someone?" The younger of the two officers replied:
"Well, I've got my father's photo about me and I'll give you one if you like." He produced a golden sovereign and slipped it into the "Tommy's" hand. On the sovereign was the head of King George. "Tommy's" companions were the Prince of Wales and a brother officer.

FRUITLAND NOTES

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Fruitland, Or., Nov. 12.—Monday, W. A. Liston, a leading Salem dealer in realty, made this locality a visit. He reported business in his line rather dull. Our real estate men are among the most honorable and progressive citizens. Some of them could talk a rail off the fence and a new comer off his guard. Yet they never put the small potatoes in the bottom of the sack—not if any body's looking.

A Mr. Miller, of Yakima county is visiting this week with John Hostetler and mother on the Pratum road. School is progressing nicely under the care of Miss Naomi Bruner. The first month is now gone and the pupils I have talked with like her as a teacher.

Mrs. Ransom and Mrs. Mellman have such a very fine lot of celery which shows Fruitland can raise other things besides nice girls.

M. M. Ransom has taken up his loggery patch. Thinks it a waste of ground of time and labor with no financial profit.

We note the exchange of opinion relating to our worthy county agriculturist, Mr. L. J. Chapin. In the last few days in the Capital Journal, Mr. Peterson, Mr. Hamilton, of the commercial club, and Judge Bushey express their views. It is a sort of a storm center culminating about poor Mr. Chapin. So far as I know he is taking it all quietly and maybe enjoys it. If the lightning strikes him he doesn't probab- care. The Judge's bolts seem to have hit Mr. Peterson in two or more places. My opinion, as far as the judge's communication goes is that he (the judge) has cooked his goose to a finish. Mr. Peterson may object to being carved as well as cooked and served up before the public in this way. Maybe he will try to even up through the "Open Forum" of this newspaper. I am going to watch. As to Mr. Chapin, if he is worth $100 a month or $200 to the farmers of Marion county will depend upon first whether he can teach them to grow a better quality of crops and so command a better price; or second, if he can teach the farmer to grow better crops at less expense and so realize more out of the present prices he gets for his labor and produce. Can he do it? I hope so, if he is retained, chiefly if he can help in any proper way to get a more remunerative market it may pay to retain him.

The "devil's lane" and sign board just west of the church are no more. Thus the old landmarks are disappearing one by one. The board was stolen some time ago and thus a small case of petty larceny was committed. Mr. Thompson, the owner, will not prosecute, though he knows who the parties are. Being as honest a Scotchman as ever ate a bunnock, he just laughs about it and lets it go. The old misunderstanding between him and the church people is happily a closed incident. The dove of peace hovers near the disputed ground. Satan can now—that his lane and sign board are both gone—spread his sooty wings and keep away. Amen.

O. N. G. REJECTS PLAN

Washington, Nov. 12.—The National Guard convention's disapproval at San Francisco of the administration plan for a continental army of "trained citizenry," Secretary of War Garrison today indicated, may change the government plans to enlist the militia in the continental army. Officials believe that unfamiliarity with the administration plans caused the convention to reject them.

HOBSON WILL SPEAK FOR PROHIBITIONISTS

Hero of Spanish-American Billed For Next Thursday Night

Two of the most famous as well as eloquent leaders of the anti-saloon forces in this country will appear next Thursday at the armory, Richmond P. Hobson, and Dr. Edwin I. Stearns.

Richmond P. Hobson is a former congressman from Alabama, and it is his bill with Senator Sheppard, of Texas, that was voted on last December in the house of representatives, receiving a vote of 197 in its favor, to 189 against. This bill, known as the Sheppard-Hobson amendment, provided that the sale, manufacture for sale, transportation for sale, importation for sale, and exportation for sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes be forever prohibited in the United States and all territory subject to its jurisdiction. Although receiving a majority vote, the amendment was lost, as an amendment to the constitution requires a two-thirds vote of both houses of congress and ratification by 36 states.

Dr. Edwin I. Stearns is a national lecturer of the Anti-Saloon League and has lectured for years in all parts of the country.

The local committee in charge of arrangements, appointed by the Ministerial Union, consists of the Rev. James Elvin, chairman; Rev. H. E. Hornschock and Rev. H. E. Pemberton. Governor Withycombe will preside at the lecture and music will be furnished by an orchestra and the Christian church male quartette.

The address of both Mr. Hobson and Mr. Stearns will be on the Sheppard-Hobson amendment. The lecture is free and of course everybody is invited. The program for the evening will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

DANGERS OF A COLD

Salem People Will Do Well to Heed Them.

Many bad cases of kidney trouble result from a cold or chill. Congested kidneys fall behind in filtering the poison-laden blood and backache, headache, dizziness and disordered kidney action follow. Don't neglect a cold. Use Doan's Kidney Pills at the first sign of kidney trouble. Follow this Salem resident's example:

J. H. Penton, 1415 Lee St., Salem, says: "A cold settled on my kidneys, causing pain through my back. I knew that my kidneys were to blame, and, hearing several local citizens endorse Doan's Kidneys Pills highly, I began using them. They were just what I needed to relieve the pains and other kidney troubles. Whenever I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills since, a few doses have brought me relief."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Penton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

United Grocers Ready To Fight Jobbers

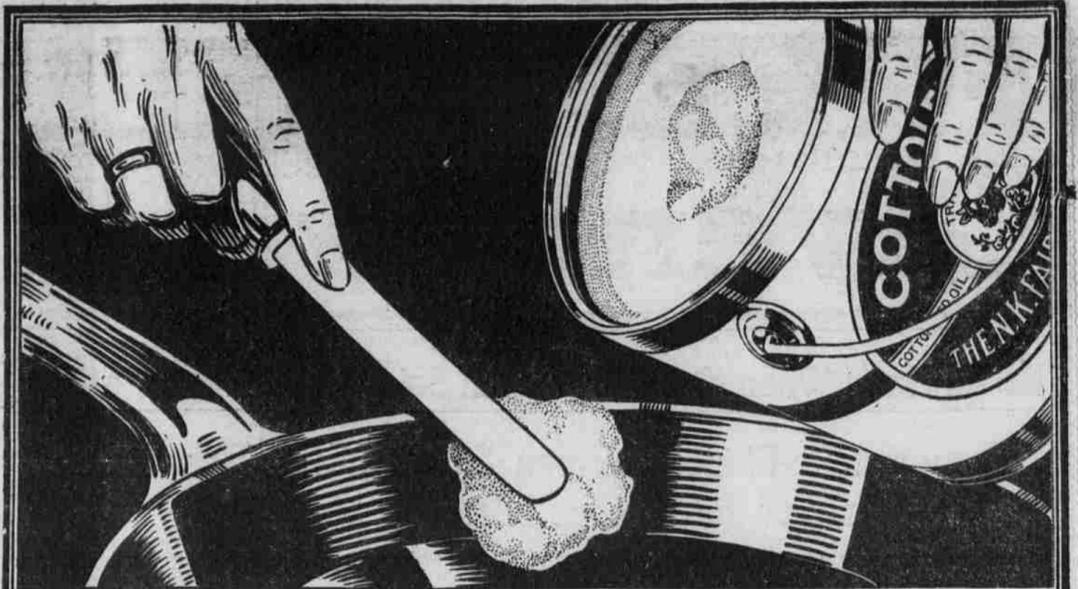

Portland, Ore., Nov. 12.—Organized for the purpose of combating the so-called jobbers trust in Portland, the United Grocers of Oregon were ready for business today.

The jobbers are alleged to favor preferred buyers in the matter of prices. Unless the United Grocers are dealt with on the same basis, it is said, they will pool their purchases and deal with firms whose bids for recognition are acceptable.

Always fry with Cottolene

Whatever you fry with Cottolene is delicious and digestible. The true flavor of chicken, fish, potatoes, or any other fried foods is enhanced.

Cottolene has done much to do away with the old prejudice against fried foods. As it does not soak into the food, it performs fully the real function of a frying agent—it cooks the food and adds not only to its flavor but to its wholesomeness.

Cottolene

For more than a quarter of a century Cottolene has held its own place, in a class by itself. There is no substitute for it. Always remember to use one-third less Cottolene than you would of butter or lard.

Since Cottolene does not absorb tastes or odors, it may be used over and over again for frying. Heat it slowly. Cottolene is packed in pails of various sizes for your convenience. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply.

Write our General Offices, Chicago, for a free copy of our real cook book, "HOME HELPS."

DEFENSE WILL CLAIM DYNAMITE NOT USED

Contention That Explosion of Gas Main Wrecked Los Angeles Times

Los Angeles, Nov. 12.—Considerable stress was laid by the defense in the M. A. Schmidt dynamite and murder trial today on the testimony Wilbur Wilbur, stereotyper employed in the Times building when it was blown up. Wilbur said he heard two explosions, the second sounding like the bursting of a gasoline tank. There was gasoline stored in the building, he said. It is the intention of the defense to prove if possible that explosions of gasoline and ink, not of dynamite, destroyed the newspaper building.

"In Service of State" and Has No Need For Compensation Now

A claim for a slight injury was sent into the state industrial accident commission from eastern Oregon not long ago. The report of the doctor showed that the injury was but slight and incapacitated the injured man for but a few hours. However, he was sent a card by the commission telling him the claim had been received and in the future when writing to the commission to refer to the claim by the above number.

WOMAN APPOINTED MINISTER

Vernon, N. J., Nov. 12.—Because she served so ably as their pastor when her husband was ill, Mrs. Abbie Cudworth, widow of the Rev. Elliott Cudworth, has been appointed temporary minister of the Methodist church here.

Remember, success of the Consumers' league early Christmas shopping campaign depends upon consumers themselves.

OLDEST LADY AT FAIR.

Mrs. Charles Terry, Aged 93, Makes Long Trip Successfully. The west side has the distinction of being the home of the oldest lady who traveled from a great distance to the state of California to see the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. The name of the lady is Mrs. Charles Terry, on the west side she is remarkably active for her age and manages to do a great deal of her own housework. The Terry family will return to the west side on September 20.

years of age. In company with her son she left here last month and made the long journey of almost three thousand miles without discomfort. Her wonderful vitality has excited the admiration of the fair authorities and she holds the record to date for being the oldest lady in attendance at the fair from a foreign state. In her home life she is a devoted mother and wife. Panama wants to borrow $1,250,000 from the United States. Why should we have to bother with such trifles?

The above is from a Lafayette, Indiana, newspaper. Mrs. Terry is an aunt of Mrs. Mary Stover, of 370 Lincoln street who says, no matter what goes on anywhere in the day of making records, Oregon and Salem are sure to be connected with it in some way.

You're "All In" When Your Stomach Goes Back on You

If you are blessed with strong digestion, take care of it. If you are troubled with a weak one, set it right. You are no stronger than your stomach.

When your stomach goes back on you, your head, nerves and appetite go wrong, too. You feel dull and stupid, and your work suffers. You can't do your best when your stomach is out of order. Get it in shape, or you will soon be "all in." If your food does not agree with you, or you are suffering with indigestion, nausea, biliousness, sick headache or sleeplessness—then be warned—it is time for you to take
