WEDNESDAY SURPRISE NO. 769--NOVEMBER 17th

A Great Sale of Latest Embroidered Kimonos

Imported From Japan

Here's a sale that should attract all women who admire Dainty Kimonos of a different sort. Splendidly embroidered in colors to match each garment; large flowing sleeves; fringed girdle band to match. At this price they will sell rapidly, so we urge an early attendance. May be had in Pink, Light Blue, Delft Blue, Light Green, Coral and Raspberry. Nothing would make a more acceptable holiday gift for sister, mother or girl friend. EXTRA SPECIAL FOR NEXT WEDNESDAY

SPECIAL NOTICE—Through an error in the advertising department, these Kimonos were advertised to sell at $2.89 in the previous issue of this paper. The selling price is $1.89 instead of $2.89.

BE SURE TO SEE THE WINDOW DISPLAY

Meyers prices will be found lower by a comparison of values.

Let Me See Your

If an hour's reading makes your eyes ache, If printed matter occasionally "goes misty," If you are obliged to stop work periodically to rest your eyes for a few moments, If you find it easier to read nearer than the normal 12 inches, or further away than this, If you can not recognize people across the street, If you can not read street names easily or can not distinguish the time by public clocks, If you have to make an effort to see clearly—knitting the brows for example, If vivid light gives you pain in the eyes, or if you require more light than hitherto, My experience of nearly 33 years in correctly fitting glasses to relieve eye strain will be at your service. If glasses are not needed, I positively decline to supply them. I guarantee satisfaction in every respect. I change your glasses for one year if necessary, free of charge. No extra charges for examinations. No drugs or drops used, as they are dangerous. All broken glasses replaced while you wait, at very reasonable prices.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner has been reappointed by the board of control as superintendent of the Oregon State hospital for the insane. Dr. Steiner's present appointment does not expire until December 31 of this year, but the reappointment was made at this time in recognition of the efficiency he has shown in managing the affairs of that institution.

When Dr. Steiner begins his new term of office he will be the only man in the history of the institution who has served more than eight years as superintendent of the asylum.

Show at Woodburn Was Great Success

The First Annual corn and Farm Products' Show, of Woodburn, will be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week in the Woodburn, under the auspices of the Woodburn Commercial and Agricultural association, and L. J. Chapin.

The awards for prizes are given by the merchants of Woodburn, and are mostly in cash prizes. The best individual display of farm products will be awarded a $75.00 cash prize, while the best 100 ears display of any dent variety of corn will receive a $75.00 library table. The cash prizes for single ears and ten ear exhibits include prizes of $1.50.

Besides awards on corn, prizes are offered on farm produce. The best twelve potatoes calls for a cash prize of $4.00 and the best Hubbard squash is good for a $1.50 due bill. The owner of the best 12 onions will carry off $4.00 home with him, as well as the party who has the finest quart of onion sets. Other $4 cash prizes are for the best box of apples, any variety, and the best sample of hops raised within a radius of ten miles of Woodburn.

For the ladies a domestic science course will be held Thursday afternoon and all day Friday, under the direction of Miss Evelyn Conkin of the Woodburn High school.

WILLAMETTE NOTES

Mr. Borden, general secretary for the intercollegiate prohibition association, spoke at the college Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon. He is addressing the college in the oratorical contest which is held by associations, and for which a substantial prize is offered for the best oration. He also addressed the student body this morning at chapel.

Willamette students were well pleased with last Saturday's game at Forest Grove, when W. U. pulverized Pacific U. 13-7. Had it not been for the number of players who were injured on Willamette's team the score would have been much larger. During the game Coach Matthews was forced to use five quarter-backs, that position seemed to receive particular attention from the Pacific team. Alvin Irvine, regular quarter back, a sprained shoulder and a broken toe, were in his upper arm. "Pat" Archibald had his ankle broken and will probably not be out for football again this fall.

Aside from numerous bumps and bruises the team sustained no serious injuries. Just what team will play here Turkey Day has not been decided as yet.

VAUDEVILLE AT BLIGH.

That S. & C. vaudeville is a hit at the Bligh was proved beyond a doubt by the capacity houses that greeted the classy bill at each performance. Perhaps the act that created the most comment was Gray and Old Rose, a dancing and singing team, that have just completed a tour of the Orpheum Circuit. The special drop for this number are the most beautiful ever seen locally, being made of pure silk, heavily draped and corded. The Apache dance of this duo simply "brought down the house."

"The Four Wanderers," two women and two men, spring one of the big surprises of the program. You will have to see these clever singers before you can appreciate their novel act. The big comedy hits are Marion Bicknell and Ed Gibney, who put over some laughs that are brand new to Salem in their sketch, "A Small Town Johnnie."

Manager Bligh is to be complimented on securing such good vaudeville, and on presenting it at popular prices. Every Sunday and Monday promise to be big days at the Bligh from now on.

American railroads spent $10,000,000 for newspaper advertising during the last fiscal year, and like all consistent advertisers, they are now getting their money back, and much more besides.

James Carlson died yesterday at the Oregon State Tuberculosis hospital. Arrangements for funeral services will be made as soon as word is received from a sister living in Portland.

Great preparations are under way for the excursion to Eugene next Saturday to witness the O. A. C. Oregon university football game. The Marion county Alumni association, recently organized at the Marion hotel, endorses this excursion, as it is for all O. A. C. members as well as U. of O. It is expected that the train will leave here about 9:45 in the morning, arriving at Eugene at noon. The special will return immediately after the game.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Knight will sail tomorrow afternoon on the steamer Great Northern for San Francisco for a visit in the south and east that will extend into next February. From San Francisco their travels will take them to Los Angeles, New Orleans, Greenwood, Miss., and other Mississippi points. From there, the trip will include a visit in Kentucky at Mrs. Knight's former home. In Chicago, Mr. Knight will attend the National Automobile show, January 22-29, and in Detroit, the exhibit of Ford and Studebaker cars, including the new Ford tractor. For their travels, they are provided with two tickets, each five feet and 11 inches long.

The street committee of the city council at the session this evening, will recommend that the public market be established on Cheneketa street, next to the Barnes store. The committee specify that it shall be constructed of dressed lumber and painted, and to remain under their supervision and jurisdiction. After the passage of this ordinance, it is up to the Commercial club to leave the public market in its present location, Liberty and Ferry streets, or to remove it to the proposed location on Cheneketa street.
