NO EXTRA BEER FOR

EXTRA LARGE FAMILY

Do Not Constitute Separate Families

A family consists of all of the per-sons living in one household under one head, according to Attorney General Brown, and even though some of the children may be of legal age and sup-porting themselves they do not consti-tute a tenantic failure and supporting themselves they do not consti-tute a separate family as long as they reside under the paternal roof. This ruling was made in response to an in-quiry from a citizen of the state as to the shipment of liquor next year. Un-der the law each family is allowed two quarts of whiskey and two dozen bot-tles of beer each month and the inquir-er stated that one of his daughters was over 30 years of age and two sons over 30 years of age and two sons were over 25 and he wanted to know if they could not secure additional shipments on their part. The attorney general, however, considers a family, a family whether it consists of two peo-ple or a dozen ple or a dozen. Mr. Brown's definition of a family

Mr. Brown's definition of a family follows: "In its ordinary and primary sense The term signifies the collective body of persons living in one house, or un-der one head or manager, or one do mestic government, the relations be-tween such persons necessarily being of a permanent or domestic character, not that of nersons abiding termore-rily of a permanent of domestic character, not that of persons abiding temporarily together as strangers; a household; those who live under the same roof with the pater families, who form his fireside."

however, Coach Mathews will take charge of the work and will begin a series of eliminations of candidates for the first squad; there is considerable material this year in school, practically all of last year's team are back and a number of inter-scholastic stars will try Tearfully, the mother agreed that this method was best. Her husband concurred. So Anna Bollinger's babe has no chance. It's life ebbed during the day, and there seemed no chance in desirable lengths, full measure-ment guaranteed. Phone 79F11.
