Just 29 more shopping days until Christmas. From now on the cry will be to shop early and the postoffice authorities in Washington are adding to the shop early propaganda by urging those who intend to send Christmas presents, to mail early.

Every member of every church in Salem is invited to attend the Harvest Home at the Methodist church Monday November 22.

Ministers in all the churches tomorrow will take up the matter with their congregations, of entertaining the young men from all parts of the state who will attend the Older Boys Conference. It is expected that fully 500 young men will come for the three days session, closing Sunday evening, November 28.

Millinery. Tomorrow is the last day of the sale on trimmed hats. Will move temporarily to 328 Hubbard Bldg. Mrs. H. P. Smith. Nov 20

The Collegian, published by the students of Willamette University, is meeting with special favor in Portland, according to W. R. Jeffrey. For last week's issue, 1800 copies were printed, and it is the intention of the boys to issue 2300 copies next week, all to be sent to the addresses of parties who are interested in the welfare of Willamette University.

The Fuller Printing Concern is now located at the corner of Liberty and Ferry streets in this city. The Fuller boys are anxious to see all of their old customers and many new ones. Phone 2179 or call in person when you want a fair price on good printing. Nov 20

The high school student body were entertainers last evening at the high school for the football squad, and their entertaining took the practical form of something to eat, besides intellectual food handed them in the after-dinner talks. Principal J. C. Nelson presided, and spoke of the value of football training from both the physical and mental viewpoint. Ben Milton, president of the student body, and Daryl Proctor, captain of the team, responded.

The De Gogorza concert seems to be the popular concert of the Musical Artists Course. Many subscriptions have been taken for that concert. These desiring to attend should give their subscriptions at once. The tickets to any one concert are $2.00. On sale at the music stores.

The ladies aid society of the First Presbyterian church will serve a chicken supper after church Tuesday, December 7th, from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m. There will also be articles on sale.

The armory will probably be used for the last night's meeting of the Older Boys Conference, to convene in the city next Friday morning. The committee in charge of the Sunday night session feel that with such a general interest in the city in this conference, that it was advisable to secure the armory for the Sunday night session. The father and son banquet to be held Saturday evening at the Y. M. C. A. will be attended by over 400 as the entertainment committee has already contracted for the serving of this number.

Get that Lyceum ticket in time for the season reservations, November 26. Tickets on sale at music stores. Deliveries will be made next week.

The attrition mill for the farmers' warehouse is expected to reach this city within the next week. The mill was shipped from Passaic, New Jersey, October 29, coming overland on account of the closing of the Panama canal. Paul Traglia says that when this mill is placed in operation, he can grind anything from wheat to corn, cob and all. With the exception of one attrition mill in Portland, this will be the only one in the state.

If you need a good range or cook stove, we have on hand a few used ones that are real bargains, priced from $12.50 to $25.00. Buren & Hamilton.

The farmers in this vicinity are not in an especially big hurry to sell their wheat, said a prominent grain dealer today. When the market opened last summer at 90 cents a bushel, very few sold. With the downward slide as low as 70 cents, very little was offered. About three weeks ago when the price climbed to 85 cents several farmers brought in their wheat, but since the last decline began, with today's market at 80, scarcely any wheat has been offered to local buyers.

Season reservation to the Lyceum course, Friday, November 26, 9:00 a. m. at the armory. One person will be allowed to reserve not more than ten seats.

The Salem fire department was called out at 9:40 p. m. yesterday to attend a chimney fire at the residence of W. J. Pruitt at 1005 North Summer street. No damage was done. Today at 12:30 the engine made a run to Kimball college where the flue burned out with considerable smoke, a few sparks and no danger. The wet roofs that prevail throughout the city at the present time render chimney fires an exciting but harmless sport.

$35.00, $45.00, $50.00 and $60.00 used ranges, now priced from $12.50 to $25.00. They are all in good condition. Buren & Hamilton.

The Cherrian dance, to be given next Wednesday evening, promises to be an event of unusual interest, as the entertainment committee is preparing several special acts to add to the pleasure of the evening. One of these is a candy dance, in which the winner will receive a fine box of candy, and the other is what is known as the wheel dance, so popular in the south this winter. Other features are also in preparation.

Ranges and cook stoves slightly used, at the right prices, to close them out. Buren & Hamilton.
