THANKSGIVING IN CHURCHES OF SALEM

Arrangements Have Been Made For Holding Appropriate Union Services

Thanksgiving day will be observed in the city tomorrow by services held in four churches, and by the general closing down of all business activity. Besides the closing of the postoffice and all the banks, very few of the stores will remain open even for a short time, and the indications are that the day will be observed to a greater extent than former years. The public schools after this afternoon will not open again until Monday morning.

In the city, Thanksgiving services will be held in the morning, 10:30 o'clock at the following churches: First Methodist church, sermon by the Rev. Carl H. Elliott. South Salem Friends church, sermon by Rev. J. C. Spencer. Liberty street Evangelical church, sermon in German by Rev. A. J. Weigle.

In each church, a special program of music has been prepared. The South Salem Friends church, Jason Lee Memorial and the Methodist church will hold union Thanksgiving services at the Friends church in North Salem Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Josephine Hockett, pastor of the church.

The program for the union Thanksgiving services at the First Methodist church is as follows: Hymn 702, announced by Rev. R. N. Avison, of the First M. E. church. Invocation, Rev. H. J. Talbot, of Kimball college.

Reading of the president's proclamation, Rev. James Elvin, of the First Congregational church. Scriptural reading, with responses, Rev. R. N. Avison. Hymn 11, announced by Rev. G. W. Plummer, of the Evangelical association. Prayer, Rev. Carl Gregg Doney. Anthem, by the choir. Sermon, by Rev. Carl H. Elliott, of the First Presbyterian church. Offering, A. A. Winter, of the United Evangelical church. Offertory and Devotion, by the choir. Benediction, by Rev. H. B. Derks, of the United Brethren church.

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Made Up a Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to Bring Back Color, Gloss, Thickness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, thin and faded hair beautiful dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wright's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wright's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

JUDGE REFUSES TO SET DATE TO HEAR FORECLOSURE SUIT

Believes That Receiver May Be Able To Save Part of Hubbard Estate

In order that some of the property of Mrs. Fannie Hubbard might be saved for her in her declining years and since the management of the estate by Morse Harris, the receiver, is entirely satisfactory to the court, Judge William Galloway, of the equity department of the circuit court, today refused to set a date for the hearing of the evidence in a suit to foreclose a mortgage against the Hubbard property aggregating nearly $80,000 but the estate includes, the Hubbard building where the Oregon Electric depot is located, a valuable house and lot in this city and a farm of 202 acres near Salem.

Judge Galloway declined to set a date for the hearing because if he hears the evidence he will be obliged to pass upon it within 60 days and if a decree of foreclosure were handed down at this particular time there is no question but that all of the holdings of Mrs. Hubbard would be swept away.

The reports of the receiver to the court show that the estate is now upon a paying basis, the taxes, insurance and interest upon the mortgages are being paid from the rentals collected from the Hubbard building and Judge Galloway expressed the belief that as long as no one is losing money the estate may be maintained upon its present basis. The judge informed the attorney for the creditors today that his clients might secure a writ of mandamus from the supreme court requiring the judge to set a date to hear the evidence in the case but if the matter were left to the judge it would continue as at present for at least another year, or as long as the rentals continued to leave a surplus over and above the expenses and the interest.

Another new collar this week. It's called the "Luxury," and has buttons showing through, same as used on the soft collars. It's a novelty and yet very practical as the tie is closely held in place. If it's new it's here! Don't forget the fact that we show the largest variety of collar styles in good old Salem.

Get some measures through the state Grange that the most of the farmers do not advocate. We will have to be more careful about who we take in in the future. A Salem Grange finds it does not have enough time to discuss the different subjects that come before them. They voted to meet the first and third Saturday in the month. The Grange has been meeting only once a month, but election is coming on and they want to be more familiar with the measures that will come before them to be voted on. Bro. Voorhes, of Woodburn Grange, was milk us and gave some good advice.

Success of a New Remedy for Backache, Rheumatism, Kidneys

Folks in Salem and adjoining counties are delighted with the results they have obtained by using "AN-URIC," the newest discovery of Dr. Pierce who is head of the INVALIDS' HOTEL and SURGICAL INSTITUTE, in Buffalo, N. Y. Those who started the day with a backache stiff legs, arms and muscles, and an aching head (worn out before the day began because they were in and out of bed half a dozen times at night) are appreciating the perfect rest, comfort and new strength they obtained from Doctor Pierce's An-uric Tablets. To prove that this is a certain uric acid solvent and conquers headache, kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism, if you've never used the "An-uric," cut this out and send 10 cents to Doctor Pierce for a large sample package. This will prove to you that "An-uric" is thirty-seven times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid—and the most perfect kidney and bladder corrector. If you are suffering, go to your best druggist and ask for a 50-cent box of "An-uric." You run no risk for Dr. Pierce's good name stands behind this wonderful new discovery as it has for the past century for his "Favorite Prescription" for weak women and "Pleasant Pellets" for liver ills.—Adv.

SILVERTON NEWS

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Silverton, Or., Nov. 24.—The seventh annual fair and corn show held in Silverton the past week was a great success in the way of fine exhibits of all kinds of valley products. It was said the display was the best ever shown at any farmer fair here. There was a large crowd in town each day, despite the unfavorable weather. Honoring her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. Norton, of Portland, Mrs. R. S. Trumbull delightfully entertained at a whist party at her pleasant home on South Water street on Wednesday afternoon. The decorations were the Japanese effect. The hostess served a dainty lunch and a very enjoyable afternoon was passed. Mrs. O. E. Thompson, who is in the city from her home in Seattle, has been the guest of honor at a number of social functions the past week, a card party at the Service home on Tuesday afternoon was among these pleasant affairs. Mrs. Ethel Down, accompanied by her sister, Miss Bernice Smith, spent Saturday in Portland. A baby girl is reported at the Tom Hansen home on Friday, November 12. W. H. Jones has the contract for building a house in Cowing addition for J. L. Haggerty. Mrs. H. E. Hartman, who underwent an operation at the city hospital, the first of last week, came home Saturday. Mrs. Wm. Moores and family are enjoying a visit from her brother, George Hicks with his wife and little daughter, of Spokane, Washington. George Bureh is assisting at the C. M. Wray hardware store during the time Bob Wray is taking in the sights at the Price fair. Mrs. J. F. Fishwood was a guest of Salem friends on Tuesday. Mrs. L. Brower entertained her friend, Mrs. J. D. Simmons, of Monitor, the past week. Grandma Nutting has been quite sick with a severe cold, but much better at the present writing. W. F. Bushman came from Vancouver, B. C. Saturday for an over Sunday visit at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sprague, near two weeks ago and they will all leave for Por and the first of the week where they will spend a couple of weeks with relatives before returning.

Desultory Movement On Stock Exchange

New York, Nov. 24.—In continuance of the desultory stock movement today, natural influences in the aftermath of a speculative boom played the largest part. The street after its habit discussed the effect of the impending holiday. There was too an increased discussion of the bearing reconvening of congress will have on the market situation. This, even Wall street can only guess. No great effect, even on war shares, resulted from cables hinted that the allies, insured of an adequate supply of munitions at home, may cut or abandon American purchases. The market in fact was incredulous. Movements in London exchange again suggested that the efforts of the banking committee are to hold the sight rate around $4.70. Whether or not the ultimate purpose is to establish a higher rate, this cautious deliberate policy is reassuring.
