strength of the teams snows real football knowledge of the writer:

'The memory of the great game at Eugene Saturday will last in the minds of those who saw it as long as football is played. The way in which Oregon came from behind as a betting favorite and det atted the strong O. A. C. squad by the score or 9 to 0 will furnish topic for conversation the rest of the winter. O. A. C. was simply out coached, out fought, out foxed and out played. They were defeated after the first five minutes of play and only once in the game did they have a chance to score. This came as a result of Monteith's failure to drop on two punts which came to him at the close of the game, and was the only play in which O. A. C. outwitted Oregon.

"U. of O had been playing the safety first game from the start, and in no case did they try to catch a punt un-less there was certainty that it could be done. With the ball near their own goal line, O. A. C. punted but the offi-cials claim that an Oregon man touca-ed it and when O. A. C. fell on it they were awarded the ball. Monteith had world's of time to recover it had he ed it and when O. A. C. fell on it they were awarded the ball. Monteith had world's o't time to recover it had he known it had been blocked. Immediately afterwards an onside kick was called, and as the ball rolled down to wards the Oregon goal and stopped Monteith stood by it waiting for the rest of the team to come down and line up. But two forms were rushing down the field and Scauster hit Monty while Abraham fell on the ball on Oregon's 10 yard line. A forward pass gave O. A. C. four vards, a penalty on Oregon put the ball a yard from the line, but on the next play O. A. C. was off side and as the ball was being brought back time was called, ending their only chance to score during the game.

New York, Nov. 24.— Brand Whitlock, American representative in Belgium, refused today to comment on stories naming him as a possible vice presidential candidate, or to discuss the Germans executing.

He disposed of rumors that he would not return to Belgium because of German displeasure at his part in the affair, saying that he had arranged to sail back December 28th.

Whitlock will probably spend Thanksgiving at his hotel here and then go to Washington to see President Wilson.
