Fire Sweeps Town Over Mexican Border

El Centro, Cal., Nov. 23.—Fire is sweeping Mexicali, just across the line from Calexico. Twenty buildings have been destroyed. The blaze originated in a saloon. Most of the structures burned were small wooden affairs. Five wooden stores were consumed. The damage to the principal buildings is estimated at $10,000. While the Calexico fire department crossed the line and fought the flames scores of women fled from the dance halls and resorts menaced by the blaze. Numbers of them are homeless. Mexicali has the reputation of being one of the wildest towns on the continent. Its gambling houses and resorts are nationally notorious.

Coach Gilmour Dobie Expected to Resign

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 23.—Belief prevails in Seattle today that Gilmour Dobie will resign as coach of the Washington football team following Thursday's game with the University of Colorado here. Dobie is reticent upon the matter but has intimated that he is considering quitting football for good. Further than the statement that he would act as he saw fit when the time comes for a decision, Dobie will not speak for publication. Private sources, however, give foundation to the report. Dobie has coached for 11 years and says that he is tired of it. Hap Miller, star fullback, will not play again, an injury to him laying him up for several weeks. Miller, Shield Ed and Elmer Leader and Hunt will be led to the team by graduation in June next.

Mr. Woods is improving rapidly and will soon be able to be about the streets again. The tramp social held by the young people of the Christian church Friday evening proved to be one of the most pleasant affairs of the season and was enjoyed by a large number of people. John Foster, a prominent Salt Creek rancher was a Dallas business visitor the latter part of the week.

Organized Band of Opium Smugglers
Olympia, Wash., Nov. 23.—On top of yesterday's disclosures concerning the looting of the state industrial insurance funds of more than $15,000, it developed today that the organized band which it is believed carried on this wholesale robbery, also engaged in a huge opium smuggling trade, carried on with a fleet of fish boats, operating between Blaine, at the Canadian border, and Boston harbor, near Olympia.

The opium story was offered today by former Police Chief Hall, deposed recently, and now in jail on a graft charge connected with another case. Hall says several weeks ago he introduced members of the industrial insurance commission that employes in the office of the commission were engaged in the smuggling trade. Hall declares that the opium is loaded aboard fishing boats ostensibly engaged in salt fishing, and is transported to oBaton harbor and thence to Olympia.
