

Margaret Mason Writes of Gotham Fads and Fashions

By Margaret Mason.
(Written for the United Press.)

Minnie had a mist of money, so she shopping went. Bought a lovely brocade bag to carry every cent; When she paid up for the purchase All her coin was spent; Still, although her purse is empty, She is quite content.

New York, Nov. 26.—A bag in the hand these days is worth what you pay for it and that's saying a great deal indeed. They come high and they must be held high in order to show off the wonders of their hand made gariture. Velvet for bags is the material de luxe of the moment; and combined with metallic embroidery, banding and bead work, the result is a bag full of tricks.

One exquisite black velvet bag has a band of gold embroidery bisecting it; lengthwise, with a narrow outline of skunk bordering that. It is finished on the bottom with bobbin balls of gold beads and drawn up on cords beaded solidly in gold.

Plain but by no means poor is a lovely voluminous bag of velvet shirred onto Chinese bracelets of jade in lieu of other handles. These round bracelet handles are very practical and smart and are also shown in flat tortoise shell effects.

Indeed, tortoise shell vies with old silver to form the clasps and mounts of some of the smartest bags. It is particularly stunning combined with velvet in brown or golden tones.

Gay linings fill the new velvet bags with a splash of color and of course mirrors and change purses are an inevitable part of their interior make-up, as well as divers and sandy other articles of makeup. Rhinestone, enamel and pat clasps are features of the velvet bags, mounted on velvet covered tops; and these also usually swing on arm straps of the velvet.

The ball fringe of beads is a popular finish for many of the bags and an exquisite model showing this novelty is made of alternate bands of old blue velvet and inch-wide bands of cut steel beads. The ball fringe is of cut steel and the bracelet handles are of silver.

Truly, with such a bag of tricks at her finger tips, mibdy ought to be able to bag big game this open season—no man a loving hart or somebody's deer boy.

The Pythian Sisters spent an enjoyable afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. B. Gibson Friday. Those present were Mrs. Winchell, Mrs. Bechtel, Mrs. Shinn, Mrs. Olin, Mrs. Sumner, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Pritch, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Barber, Mrs. Shipp, Mrs. Davies. Mrs. Shipp assisted Mrs. Gibson in serving the refreshments.

Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Avison entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Allen and daughter Betty, of Portland, at a Thanksgiving dinner. The guests returned to Portland Thursday evening.

The Epworth League of the First M. E. church held their Thanksgiving jolly up last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cummings at 14th and State street. A large crowd of Salem high, business college, and Willamette university students were present. Miss Ruth Spoor had charge of the entertainment, which consisted of dividing the crowd into three groups; the Ruberts, Murphy and Spoolgrass families. Each family staged a stunt; one a football game, another the Pilgrim Fathers' first Thanksgiving dinner with the Red men; and the last group the romance of John Alcen and Priscilla. Afterwards a spelling match and a musical programme were given after which light refreshments were served.

A handsomely appointed luncheon was presided over by Mrs. Charles Gray at the Oregon building in San Francisco last week, in honor of Mrs. W. P. Lord, Miss Elizabeth Lord and Miss Elsa Daniel. Lovely floral decorations centered the board which was arranged for thirty.

An Attractive Bride of the Week Whose Wedding Took Place Thursday Evening.

Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist (Miss Marie Bollinger).

THE Cherrian dance on Wednesday evening was a gala affair and the event which society has so eagerly anticipated has passed into a reality—reality into dreamland, and the dance has slipped into memory. There have been but few dances this season so perhaps this explains the enthusiasm and spontaneity which characterized the affair. The spacious interior of the armory was turned into a veritable fairyland of light and brilliancy from the many beautifully colored gowns, which formed an attractive foil for the Cherrians in their emaculate white dress. That the affair was the gayest of the season was due to the personnel of the committee in charge. The patronesses were: Mrs. Theo. Kay, Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mrs. Geo. Rodgers, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Constance Bishop, Mrs. Wm. Connel Dyer, Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. John D. Caughell, Mrs. Chas. L. Dick, Mrs. D. W. Eyre, Mrs. Chas. H. Fisher, Mrs. J. H. Lauterman, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. Wm. McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Chas. L. McNary, Mrs. Ben W. Oloott, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. E. C. Patton, Mrs. H. D. Patton, Mrs. C. C. Graham, Mrs. Z. J. Riggs, Mrs. Ted Ludlam, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. A. R. Wilson, Mrs. Geo. E. Waters. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chaucey Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Thielsen, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Connel Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Clay, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. William Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dick, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Pomeroy, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Graham, Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Zadoek Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wendforth, Mr. and Mrs. John Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dr., and Mrs. Lloyd Mott, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Patton, Mrs. Bloomquist of Seattle, Miss Rita Steiner, Miss Ellen Thielsen, Miss Esther Carson, Miss Ida Simmons, Miss Lucille Belle, Miss Margaret Rodgers, Miss Eugene Belle, Miss Hargrove, Miss Carrie Hurst, Miss Percilla Fleming, Fritz Slade, Miss Peores, Carl Gabrielson, William Walton, Dr. Prince Byrd, Erel Kay, Harry Morton, Clarence Byrd, James Young, Eugene Houston, Harry Mills, Dr. Slater.

The many friends of Miss Winifred Byrd will be interested to know that she appeared at a chamber of music last Saturday in New York City.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Clay and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton entertained with a charming dinner preceding the Cherrian dance on Wednesday evening at the Clay's in celebration of their wedding anniversaries. Lovely golden brown chrysanthemums and greens decked the artistically appointed table which was arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Thielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Terry, of Portland, and the hosts.

A dainty pink and green wedding was selected by Miss Marie Bollinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Bollinger, and Gordon McGilchrist, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, which was solemnized in the parlors of the First Christian church, Thursday evening. The Rev. P. T. Porter officiated. The parlors were a luxuriance of lovely fluffy pink chrysanthemums, carnations and palms. The bride couple entered the church at eight o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march played by Miss Laura Grant, who also played Carrie Jacob Bond's "I Love You Truly," during the ceremony. Little Miss Rosalind VanWinkle as ring bearer proceeded the bridal couple to an arch covered with graceful smilax centered by a bell covered with the same effective decorations. They were maitained. The bride, who is a charming and sweet girl, was a veritable picture in her gown of white crepe de chine and lace, made on the newest lines, simple and lovely. Her veil was wreathed with a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maidenhair fern. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors, and while congratulations were being showered upon the bride and groom, Miss Grant played, "Oh, Perfect Love," by Joseph Barnby. Assisting were Miss Regina Long, Miss Laura Grant, the Misses McGilchrist, Miss Zoe Olmstead, Miss Alice Johnson, of Portland, Harry Daust, Clyde Rauch, Frank Churchill and Harry Bollinger. The bride received an array of beautiful gifts. Since the announcement of the young peoples' engagement they have been extensively feted.

Mr. and Mrs. McGilchrist will be at home to their friends after December first. Among the out of town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Huff and son Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore, Mrs. M. E. Johnson, and daughter Alice, all of Portland.

Mr. Melvin Plimpton will return from Portland today where she has was presided over on Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Thielsen, their guests being: Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Clay.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers were hosts Monday evening for the "500" club. Jazz and bowls filled with fragrant pink roses and greens formed an attractive foil for the five tables. High score honors were captured by Mrs. Edward Baker and Dr. L. F. Griffith. Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner and Mrs. George Rose assisted Mrs. Rodgers in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., returned Thursday evening from Oregon City where they spent the Thanksgiving holiday with Mrs. Burghardt's mother, Mrs. M. M. Draper.

Mrs. B. O. Schueking presided over an attractive informal dinner on Monday evening as a farewell attention to Mrs. G. W. DeBeek, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Livestey for several weeks. Mrs. DeBeek returned to Vancouver Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre were hosts for a jolly little supper party after the Cherrian dance Wednesday evening. The table which was a harmony of red and white was centered with brilliant red carnations and greens. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. William Connel Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spears, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mr. and Mrs. George Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ludlam, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyer, and Mr. and Mrs. Eyre.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spencer were gracious hosts on Wednesday evening for the members of the Merry-Ground club. A profusion of lovely feathery yellow and white chrysanthemums formed the decorations, which were sent to Mrs. Spencer by her sister, Miss Florence Ake, of Roseburg. "500" was played at seven tables with high score honors falling to Mrs. Rollin Page. Thomas Kay and John Sutherland having the same score out for the honor which was awarded to Mr. Kay. As a consolation the hosts presented Mr. Sutherland with a handsome bouquet of chrysanthemums.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Slade and small son, William, of Silverton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joan J. Roberts over the holiday.

A delightful affair of Friday evening was the "500" party for which Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding and Mrs. Edgar Hartley were the hostesses at the attractive Spaulding residence on Court street. Nine tables of "500" in rooms adorned with beautiful yellow chrysanthemums formed the decorations. High score honors were awarded to Mrs. Frank Meyers and Thomas Kay. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Mrs. Roy Mills.

A charming Thanksgiving dinner was presided over Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Oloott, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Deuton, Mrs. Meyers' mother, Mrs. Alice Johnson, of Portland, Harry Daust, Clyde Rauch, Frank Churchill and Harry Bollinger. The bride received an array of beautiful gifts.

Miss Margaret Rodgers will return to Portland Sunday from a week end visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers.

Miss D'Arcy and Peter D'Arcy left Thursday evening for a visit to the exposition in San Francisco. They will also visit other points of interest in the south, and will be away for about three weeks.

Mr. Melvin Plimpton will return from Portland today where she has been visiting for several days with friends.

Honoring their week end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Williamson, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Goulet were charming hosts for a dinner on Sunday evening. Seated around the table which was decked with vivid red carnations and greens were: Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Goulet and the hosts.

Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding opened her attractive home on Wednesday afternoon to the members of the Happy Hour club. Four tables were arranged for the members and the following additional guests, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. J. L. Stockton, Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Miss Grace Bean. Card favors were awarded to Mrs. Edgar Hartley and Miss Grace Bean. The hostess was assisted in the serving by Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Mrs. Edgar Hartley.

Compimenting her house guest, Mrs. Thomas Wilson, of Portland, formerly of Salem, Mrs. E. Cooke Patton entertained this afternoon with five tables of Bridge Miss Luella Patton assisted her mother in serving.

An attractive dinner Thursday was that given by Mrs. Lenta Westacott. Centered the table which was decked with delicate lavender chrysanthemums and greenery were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, and daughters Josephine and Lenta, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Thielsen, and son Henry Wesley, and daughter Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Westacott, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Stoltz, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. Ada Strong, Miss Molly Perrine and Jonathan Bourne.

Miss Ida Simmons left Thursday morning for a brief visit to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, spent Thanksgiving in Portland.

An affair which will claim the attention of the society folk on Monday is the musical for the Y. W. C. A. which will be held by Mrs. William Eldridge at the Wenzor Broymann residence on State street under the auspices of the Thursday Afternoon club.

Mrs. Harvey Wells spent Thanksgiving in Portland visiting with friends.

Mrs. Ben O. Schueking was the charming hostess for the Kensington club Friday afternoon.

The members of the Sweet Briar club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Clyde Beckett, on Wednesday afternoon. The guests spent an enjoyable afternoon with a needlework, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dibble and daughter Carol, left today for Palo Alto, California where they will spend several months. They also will visit the fair in San Francisco and other points of interest.

A pretty wedding of the week took place at the bride's home, 3775 Fir street, Salem, Oregon, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Cora Miller, eldest daughter of E. C. Miller, became the bride of Arthur Franklin Beardsley, of Kaiser Bottom. The bridal party entered to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Clarence Poole, sister of the groom. Little Florence Spencer, carrying the ring on a white satin cushion, preceded the bride and groom who were maitained to a bower of twining ivy and yellow chrysanthemums, under which they were joined by Rev. J. C. Spencer. The bride was wearing a gown of cream with an elaborated with lace and cream velvet. She wore a gold necklace set with opals, the bride's birthstone, which was a gift of the groom. The bride carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums and asparagus fern tied with wide white ribbon. While congratulations were being offered, Miss Adelaide Scriber in a very pleasing manner favored the guests with a number of favorite selections, both vocal and instrumental. The color scheme throughout the rooms was yellow and green, which was carried out by the use of ivy and yellow chrysanthemums. A wedding collection was served to the guests who numbered about fifty. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Geo. Schultz, Mrs. H. O. Mendor, Mrs. C. E. Tyler, Miss Lena Meyers, an dthe Misses Florence and Clara Miller. Mrs. Beardsley is a charming and accomplished young lady of Salem, having taught in the Salem public schools for a number of years, and is well and favorably known in educational and church circles. Mr. Beardsley is an industrious and prosperous fruit grower of Kaiser Bottom, and is a member of a well known family. The bride's going-away costume was a dark blue serge, fur trimmed, with turbans to match. Guests from out of town were: Mrs. L. Hitchcock Smith of Vancouver, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tyler, of Woodburn, Oregon; Mrs. Sylvia Porter, of Portland, Oregon; Mr. E. C. Miller, of Heppner, Oregon; and Mr. Harvey Miller, of Corvallis, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Beardsley will be at home to their friends at North Howell after December 15th.

Mrs. Lenta Westacott left yesterday for a visit to the exposition in San Francisco and was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stoltz. Mrs. Westacott will also visit other points of interest around the Bay City.

A pleasant afternoon was spent by the members of the Samed club on last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. Gholson. The roll call was cleverly answered by quotations suggestive of Thanksgiving. During the afternoon Mrs. B. B. Stevens gave an interesting paper on the domestic, literary and public life of Joaquin Miller an account of his childhood was given by Mrs. S. A. Butherford. Miss Helen Saaver, who has been studying elocution under Mrs. Gholson, gave a short reading, "A Leap Year Episode" after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. Enli Horning, Mrs. Cananney, Mrs. Bell, Miss Pearl Allen, Miss Oris Brown, Miss Guileina George, of Silver Springs, Arkansas, and Miss Helen Shaver.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Cooke Patton have as their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson, of Portland.

A delightful musical during the week was that given by the pupils of Frank Churchill at his studio in the I. O. O.

What Do You Look for When You Buy Underwear?

Now that real Winter is upon us our comfort depends, to a great extent, upon GOOD Underwear. Mark you, we say GOOD Underwear, a class to which Orchid and North Star brands belong.

When you buy Underwear do you take care to examine what is offered you? Did you ever notice how rough the seams are, how poorly finished, how short the sleeves, how undersized so many garments are even though the quality may be fairly good? Little things that subtract several degrees from a full measure of comfort and wear.

Look for Orchid and North Star labels and you are assured of Underwear that gives the satisfaction you may expect.
