PERSONALS

Co. "M" of Salem Beats Co. "K" of Corvallis In 3rd Regiment Shoot

Company M, O. N. G., of this city scored 377 at the rifle range at Finzer yesterday while Company K at Corvallis was chalking up 296 points. In order that the scores might count as official the department details an officer of another company to supervise the shooting and Captain Max Gehlbar went to Corvallis to check up the Company K gunners, while Lieutenant Ruffison, of Company K, watched over the rifle team at the Company M range.

The riflemen shot over the 200 and 300 yard range at rapid fire and 600 on slow fire. On the 200 and 300 yard ranges there was at each distance a possible 50 points and on the 600 yard range a possible 10. Sergeant Mitchell scored for the Company M team with 104 out of a possible 110.

The individual scores follow:

Sergeant Banta	44	42	7	93
Sergeant Mitchell	48	47	9	104
Sergeant Wygant	38	38	6	82
Corporal Kenna	44	47	7	98
Team				377

Churchill Publishes New Directory For Teachers

By far the most complete official directory yet compiled by the State Department of Education has just been published by Superintendent of Public Instruction J. A. Churchill. In the directory are listed all of the schools of the state in which more than one teacher is employed. The districts are arranged alphabetically by counties. The names and addresses of the school clerks and teachers are given, together with much valuable information regarding the enrollment of pupils, salaries of teachers, tax levies, etc.

A new and distinct feature of the directory is a department showing the standard high schools of the state and the enrollment in each by grades. The amount of apparatus used in the various science courses and the number of standard library books in each are also given. The different vocational courses, such as manual training, domestic science, etc., which are offered by the standard high schools, are also shown.

Marion County Cities Notices of 1916 Taxes

The cities and towns of Marion county have begun to send in notices of their special taxes for the coming year to the county clerk. The city of Salem is the highest with 14 mills, Jefferson has 8 mills, Silverton 8.5 mills and Sulphur 3 mills.

The Salem tax is divided into 8 mills for general purposes, roads and streets 1.5 mills and special sewer tax .5 mills or a total of 10 mills. Jefferson has 8 mills for general purposes, Silverton has 1.8 mills for intersections and interest, rock crusher 3 mills, interest on $14,000 bonds .9 mills, warrants outstanding 2.5 mills and for the general fund 3 mills.

WILLAMETTE NOTES

Gale Seaman, general traveling secretary of the college Y. M. C. A. of the northwest, is here to see what the local organization is accomplishing. He spoke at chapel this morning on the subject of when does a college man realize his opportunities and responsibilities. Mr. Seaman is an active worker and was instrumental in securing the grounds at Seabeck, Washington for the annual summer conferences which the Y. M. C. A. holds.

Nono Bennett, ex-'16, was a campus visitor during the week end. He was home for the Thanksgiving vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bennett. He is now studying dentistry at the dental college in Portland where he expects to graduate from next year.

A number of students returned last night and this morning from Thanksgiving vacation visits at home; many of the classes had several missing members. Great anxiety is held by a number of the professors as it is feared that the "Turks" have gotten the best of them. Hope still remains as they will perhaps come Russian back to resume their studies in a day or so.

Dean Chase, of the college of music, will give an organ recital at the First Presbyterian church on the evening of December 6th. This will be the third number of the faculty lecture course and is to be free to the public.

Cheerful Philosophy A Requisite of Artists

"Cheerful philosophy," whatever that is, is the hobby of Madam Klendaffler, who will appear this evening with her company at the armory, as the opening number of the Lyceum course.

Having travelled five days and five nights, filling engagements from Canon City, Colorado, she feels that a cheerful philosophy is one of the requisites of an artist, especially of a soloist.

Madam Klendaffler has appeared in concert with the New York Symphony orchestra, the Russian orchestra and the famous Pittsburgh orchestra. She has also appeared in the Messiah in the Washington Oratorio.

Songs from Charles Wakefield Cadman will be included in her program this evening, the latest compositions of this gifted composer.

When only 18 months old, Madam Klendaffler was singing Home Sweet Home and it was then that her mother decided that her career was in the musical world.

From here, the company will go to Spokane, Boise, and Helena, Montana.

Portland Surgeon a Leader

Portland, Ore., Nov. 29.—Dr. Earl V. Morrow, Portland surgeon, has been made chief surgeon and director of all the Red Cross hospital units in Belgium according to a letter here today. When the European war broke out Dr. Morrow went to the front with the Red Cross.

SEE WORE SOME ORCHIDS.

New York, Nov. 29.—Figuring orchids as worth $2 a piece, Mrs. Galt, the president's fiancée, wore fully $100 worth during her two days appearance with the president here. All of them came, however, from the White House hot houses. She wore fresh bouquets on five different appearances.
