THE MARKETS

 Although the English government has taken over 20,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat, the impression among buyers in the city is that it will have no effect on the market.
 In the vegetable market, California tomatoes are advanced 25 cents, and the onion market is stronger.
 Answering an inquiry as to the difference in price between turkeys live and dressed, a prominent dealer today stated that two cents a pound was about the right difference, and that the market as quoted is correct.
 Eggs are firm, with a few houses paying 40 cents a dozen in trade.

WEST SALEM

 Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hoff have returned from their sight-seeing trip to the exposition.
 Mrs. Geo. Nicols is at home again after a five weeks' visit at her son's, Andrew, in Dayton, Ohio.
 Mr. Harry Fennell, of Marion, was a Thanksgiving guest at the home of his brother, Joseph. He will remain for a week-end visit.
 "Grandma" Williamson had a real old Thanksgiving day as her children and grandchildren all gathered for a reunion at her home in West Salem.
 Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Douglas and three daughters spent Thanksgiving day with relatives in Portland.
 Rev. and Mrs. T. D. Yarnes and children were guests at the Community Thanksgiving dinner given at the Grice home at Summit. They returned home Friday evening.
 Mr. W. S. Pitts and daughter, Miss Jane, are taking in the exposition at San Francisco.
 The Parent-Teachers' association held a very successful meeting Wednesday evening in the old school building. There were about one hundred and thirty present. Quite an entertaining program was presented. The dramatization of a Thanksgiving poem by pupils from the intermediate department under the care of Miss Florence Cory showed thorough training. It was well presented and well received. Supt. H. C. Seymour was the last speaker on the program and as usual gave an instructive and entertaining address. In the course of his speech he took occasion to say that West Salem school was standard and presented the principal, Mr. Burkhead, for the school, with the 1916 pennant. The next meeting of the association will be in four weeks when a basket social will be given, the proceeds to go towards a piano for the school.
 The tax payers of the neighborhood had a meeting at the close of the Parent-Teachers' association to discuss taxes and money matters.

WILLAMETTE NOTES
 Clinton Titus, a student in the Pacific dental college at Portland, visiting friends at Willamette during Thanksgiving vacation. There are six boys from Emmett, Idaho, at Willamette, and Mr. Titus is from the same place, so decided to spend the week end with them.
 The freshman football team is out every afternoon, rounding into shape for the big inter-class game December 4, when they meet the sophomores team. The winning of this game means much to the freshmen, for if they win their uniforms will be allowed to stay on the grandstand; if they lose they can not put them up until May 1, 1916.
 Thursday evening in the gymnasium a big "jolly-up" party was held for those who were unable to go home for the holidays, about a hundred were present and a good time was enjoyed by all. Games were played and later a Thanksgiving feast was brought on for the hungry homesick ones, and before they left everyone was feeling as happy as though he or she had been home for the annual turkey-coming.
 Mr. "Peter" Pfaff, '14, is spending the week end in Salem with Willis Bartlett. He is teaching in the Woodburn high school and also coaching the football team at that place.
 Friday, about all the Willamette students in town could have been seen lined up at the box office window at the armory awaiting their turn with the equally large crowd of townspeople to reserve their tickets for the lyceum course. About 300 Willamette students will attend the numbers to be given at the armory this winter.
