ALINE THOMPSON

THE next dance to be given by the Monday Night Dancing club will be Monday evening in the Moose hall at eight thirty o'clock.

This affair which will be the second of a delightful series to be given by the Monday night club, is eagerly anticipated.

Miss Marjorie Kay and Miss Bernice Craig, who have been the guests of Miss Janet Davidson in Albany, returned Monday.

Mrs. Bomeo Goulet is spending a few days in town as the guest of Mrs. Ben O. Schucking.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rau, of Hutchinson, Kansas, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Galloway. The Raes, who are en route from the fair and California, have been touring in the south for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knowland had as their over Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Perry, of Stayton.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard will spend the week end in Dallas visiting with Mrs. Millard's sister, Mrs. A. J. Wilson. Mr. Millard is the Salem delegate for the Odd Fellows lodge and will attend the convention which is being held in that city.

The members of the commercial club will give a reception and smoker tonight at eight o'clock in the club rooms for their new manager, Mr. Ottman H. Luck.

Mrs. Charles Faulkner entertained the mothers' class of the First Methodist church at an enjoyable afternoon, Tuesday. Mrs. Faulkner's guests numbered thirty-five members and the following additional guests: Mrs. W. J. Swafford, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. Halverson and Mrs. O'Neal. Mrs. Lenbold and Mrs. O'Neal assisted the hostess in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Young and daughter, Vida, of Stayton, were the over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Young were former residents of Salem, having lived on the Garden road.

The Grant junior high students of the eighth grade held a meeting Wednesday evening at the school building, to elect their class officers and to select the class colors. Old rose and silver were the colors decided upon. The following officers were elected: Ellen Owen, president; Lloyd Root, secretary; Bessie Edwards, treasurer; Byron Kenworthy, sergeant at arms; Ruth Aspinwall, chairman of the social committee. The members of the social committee are Grace Davis, June McMillan, Helen Star, Guy Elison, Fred Cline and Harry Wilson.

The mothers party which was to have been given by the Loyal Daughters tonight in the First Christian church, has been indefinitely postponed.

The Oxford company which appears this evening in the Salem armory as the second attraction of the local Lyceum course offer as part of their program practically the whole of Gilbert and Sullivan's opera, the "Mikado." This in itself will be a feature which ought to assure a crowded house.

The company is as carefully chosen as is a Grand Opera cast and Loier efforts are as effective as a Grand Opera ensemble. All of the choruses and solos of some eight or nine characters are sung, this being possible by the transposition to voices other than those for which they have been written.

The cast is as follows: Yum Yum (Ward of Ko Ko and engaged to marry him, but in love with Nanki Poo) Stella Sebastian Ogden Pitti Sing (Also a ward of Ko Ko) Vernie Ross Coburn Katisha (An elderly lady of the Mi-kid's Court in love with Nanki Poo) Vernie Ross Coburn Nanki Poo (Son of Mikado disguised as a wandering minstrel) Claude Hart Ogden Ko Ko (Lord High Executioner, in love with Yum Yum) Harry Allen Leiter

All of the five artists composing this famous company are professional singers and entertainers, tried and good. The fact that the members rehearsed a year before appearing under the great Lyceum banner shows that their program is a carefully planned battle to win their audience.

Both Mrs. Stella Sebastian Ogden, the soprano soloist, and Miss Vernie Ross Coburn, the "Schuman Helak" of Lyceum have voices of recognized worth throughout the United States. Mr. Ogden, the tenor, and Mr. Leiter, the basso cantante, are endowed with splendid voices. The accompanist, Mr. Burch has already won renown and a place among young American pianists. Such distinguished artists will undoubtedly be a revelation, for the quartets, scenes from grand and light opera, solos, readings, sketches and oration talks are in keeping with the highest aims of Lyceum.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

Johanna Knapp has brought suit against Clarence F. Seeley in the circuit court of this state to collect the sum of $12.25 alleged due for three and one-half tons of oats and for $75 which it is stated was loaned to the defendant by Amanda Knapp. Lot 11 in block 12, Boise's second add to Salem was attached in connection with the controversy. Herminia Knapp Seeley secured a divorce from Clarence E. Seeley in Judge Galloway's court last week and the suit today is brought as an outgrowth of the contest.

R. J. Hendricks has brought suit against J. H. Albert, and the Salem Building and Loan association to quiet title to the north half of lot six and part of lot five in the high school addition to Salem. The plaintiff alleges that the claims of the defendants against the property in question are invalid and asks a decree of the court setting them aside and giving a fee simple title to the property to the plaintiff. McNary & McNary are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Judge Kelly, of department No. 1, of the circuit court, today issued an order discharging the attachment in the case of John Springsteen against F. D. O'Conner. The order was issued upon the stipulation of Grant Corby and E. P. Moreton, the attorneys for the litigants, that a sufficient bond had been deposited by the defendant to satisfy any judgment that might be rendered in the case.

A suit was filed in the circuit court today by William Mickelham against Henry H. Gralapp and Amelia Gralapp to collect $1,575 alleged due on a promissory note given to Ferdinand M. Mickelham by the plaintiffs. The note

ONE WEEK MORE WILL END THE MEMBERSHIP CONTEST AT Y.M.C.A.

"Grizzly Bears" Show Burst of Speed—Inter-City Handball Planned

The membership contest now on at the Y. M. C. A. still continues with unabated interest and but one more week remains in which to make the final effort.

Captain Ernest Blue of the "Grizzly Bears" yesterday added about three thousand points to his team's score in the annual membership contest. Six new men were signed up at this time. Captain Baker of the "Go Get 'Em" also lined up several men so that the contest is still a nip and tuck affair. The final spurt is now on as the race comes to an end next week.

Talk of an inter-city handball tournament is occupying a large place in the conversation of Y. M. C. A. men these days. Tentative proposals for a triangular contest between Salem, Albany and Eugene have already been made and definite arrangements will be made soon. The contest, if arranged, will consist of a series of games, singles and doubles, an equal number to be played in each city. Last winter Salem overwhelmed the Albany team in the first inter-city series held for a number of years.

A largely increased attendance and the necessity for greater selection in the work of the business men's class has made it necessary to divide this class into two sections. Beginning Monday night the first section will meet in the gymnasium at five o'clock. The older men will comprise this section. Recreation will be the order of the day and work of a not too strenuous type will be indulged in. The younger men will assemble at half past five and, in addition to the usual exercises will play volleyball and billiard.

Finishing touches are being put on the preliminaries for the annual Y. M. C. A. show to be held in the opera house in a little over two weeks. Rehearsals will be started immediately and a number of artists are now planning their repertoires. The 1915 show will be specialized, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, sketches and acrobatic stunts.

An order confirming the sale of real property under a mortgage was issued today by Judge William Galloway in the case of Katie Seifer against Anton Seifer and J. B. Orner.

Judge Galloway today issued an order confirming the sale of property by Sheriff Eech in the case of Robert A. Witzel against J. L. Ahlers and others.

A suit to foreclose a tax lien was filed in the circuit court today by Charles C. Logue against Frank Fisher and Vernon Fisher, his wife. The property involved in lot No. 12 block 25 Scotts Mills. The amount in arrears is $77.8.
