A NEW CONFERENCE FOR PACIFIC COAST

No Agreement Reached Over Freshman Dispute—Hence New Arrangement

Portland, Ore., Dec. 3.—With the formation of a new Pacific Coast intercollegiate conference, to include the Universities of Washington, Oregon and California and the Oregon Agricultural college, it was believed that a rupture in the Pacific northwest conference had been averted when it met today, provided that representatives from Washington State college, University of Idaho and Whitman college consent to the plan of allowing Washington, Oregon and O. A. C. to remain members of two conferences. Because of the refusal of the representatives of Washington State, Idaho and Whitman, to adopt a rule prohibiting freshmen from participating in intercollegiate athletics, delegates from the Universities of Washington, Oregon and O. A. C. invited the representatives from California and Stanford to attend a new conference meeting late last night. Stanford was soon eliminated when its representatives announced that Stanford had no intention of adopting American football and that the student body was opposed to the freshman rule. The Pacific coast conference, with Washington, Oregon, O. A. C. and California as members was then formed.

According to the plans of the representatives of the coast schools, the new conference will in no way affect the former Northwest conference. Both conferences will remain intact, they contend. However, it is believed probable that Washington State, Idaho and Whitman will withdraw from the northwest conference and will ask the University of Montana and Gonzaga university to join a new conference also to be known as the Northwest conference.

The following football games in the Pacific Coast conference were scheduled:

October 21—Oregon at Berkeley.
November 4—Washington at Eugene.
November 18—Washington at Berkeley.

November 30 (Thanksgiving)—California at Seattle.

Dr. E. J. Stewart of the Oregon Agricultural college, will complete his football schedule today. He has already arranged to meet Syracuse university in Buffalo and Portland, Michigan Agricultural college in Lansing and also Portland.

Basketball, track and baseball schedules are being arranged today.

Syracuse Team Arrives.

Salem, Ore., Dec. 3.—The Syracuse university football squad arrived here today from Portland and will leave tonight for Los Angeles where Occidental college will be played tomorrow.

Willard to Get $32,500.

New Orleans, La., Dec. 3.—Jesse Willard will get $32,500 for meeting Fred Fulton, of Rochester, Minn., here next March, according to announcement today by the promoters of the battle. The fight will take place March 4.

To Honor Schaeffer.

Berkeley, Cal., Dec. 3.—Jimmy Schaeffer, who recently retired as coach of the University of California football squad will be paid high honor this afternoon when the entire student body will gather upon the campus to say farewell to him. Schaeffer will be one of the principal speakers.

Gruman May Meet Cross.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 3.—Ralph Gruman, Portland lightweight, expects to meet Leach Cross or Johnny Dundee in a 10 round bout in New York during the next few months. He made this announcement today following his arrival en route east where he will confer with his manager, Billy Roche.

Big Golf Tournament.

Del Monte, Cal., Dec. 3.—A big New Year's golf tournament for men and women was announced today by the Del Monte Golf and Country club. The qualifying round in all events will be held December 31 and match play will continue until January 2.

Kilbane Beats Brannigan.

Seranton, Pa., Dec. 3.—Jimmy Dunn looked around today for some more easy money for his protegee, Johnny Kilbane, following the featherweight champion's easy victory over Patsy Brannigan in a 10 round bout here last night. Kilbane staggered Brannigan with four hard punches to the jaw in the fourth and Patsy never had a show thereafter.

Downward Course.

Fast Being Realized by Salem People. A little backache at first. Daily increasing 'till the back is lame and weak. Urinary disorders may quickly follow. Dropsy and often Bright's disease. This frequently is the downward course of kidney ills. Don't take this course. Follow the advice of a Salem citizen. W. H. Bradley, farmer, 614 S. 21st St., Salem, says: "About two years ago kidney trouble came on me. First, my back began to ache, then pain seemed to spread all over my body, like rheumatism. The kidney secretions were unnatural and I knew that my kidneys were disordered. I read an endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills given by one of my neighbors, and I got some. Before I started the second box of this medicine I was almost entirely free from pain and my kidneys acted regularly. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills since with good results." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bradley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Crowley's Trail Leads To German Officials

Does not involve "higher ups."
Officials here were reticent on the subject of whether further arrests are slated.
Witnesses from Detroit, Seattle, Tacoma and the east, not including New York, are slated to come here before next week to strengthen the government's case.
Smith Leaves Trail.
Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 3.—According to one of the federal officers working on the case, Louis J. Smith was brought here from San Francisco within the next two weeks to retrace his movements at the time of the Seattle barge explosion last May. This hint was dropped after Special Agent Tom Howick and Assistant District Attorney Moodie had sweated Raleigh Faulkner, or Falconer, in the county jail here yesterday. That other arrests were impending in the northwest was declared to be almost a certainty. It is understood these arrests are waiting on the plan to bring Smith to Tacoma and then take him out to Seattle to straighten out some of the tangles left in the unraveling of the plot of which it is alleged C. C. Crowley, of San Francisco was a directing force. Faulkner has named a former consular officer as one of those who worked with Crowley and Smith, and although this man is no longer in this vicinity, the officers want to check what Faulkner has told with what Smith can show.

There is also a possibility that Faulkner may be taken to San Francisco to go before the grand jury there.
Brought Lot of Fuse.
Smith's activities in Tacoma began last May. He first attracted attention by endeavoring to secure passage to Vladivostok on the Japanese steamer Kaituki Maru, loading munitions here for the Russian port. When questioned Smith said his mission to Russia was of business nature, the details of which he declined to divulge. He was accompanied by a woman, said to have been his wife. He declared he had traveled recently in Mexico, where he was representative of a large commercial concern.

After being here some time, Smith, then using the name of Walter Brown, made two purchases of fuse from a representative of the Dupont Powder company, a—rating 600 feet. He also bought one box of dynamite. The quantity of fuse demanded, together with the small amount of dynamite was so out of the ordinary that Smith was asked to explain what he intended to do with it. He replied he had just purchased a ranch and wanted the fuse and explosive to blast stumps. He explained he needed plenty of fuse because he wished to experiment, his partner having wasted powder in previous blasting operations. Smith gave an address in Tacoma, which was found to be fictitious. He left the city that day and the same night the powder barge explosion occurred at Seattle. Smith was arrested here two days afterward on complaint of British Vice Consul C. Lucian Aggasiz, charged with having more than a legal quantity of fuse in his possession. When his room was searched, however, only a small portion of his original purchase remained. Smith secured attorneys and declared he would fight the charge against him. He showed a receipt for a small first payment on the land he claimed to have bought. The investigation was then dropped and Smith disappeared. A short time afterward Pinkerton detectives came here in search of him.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Lon't Look Old! Try Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded, Lifeless Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and straggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.
Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.
Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at Once When Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers—Meat Forms Uric Acid

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

LUMBER BOOM BEGINS.

Raymond, Wash., Dec. 3.—From 1000 to 1500 workmen will be required on Willapa harbor, in addition to those already employed, if present indications of lumber revival are borne out early in the new year. All men now on the harbor are employed. There is a log shortage for the first time in years.

Aberdeen, Wash., Dec. 3.—More than 400 men will be employed in the camps of the Chehalis County Logging and Timber company which will open soon near Montesano after a shut down of more than three years.

Centralia, Wash., Dec. 3.—Of the huge tie order placed recently with mills of the northwest by the Union Pacific, Gray Harbor mills were awarded contracts for 540,000 ties. Orders for a total of 1,000,000 ties were placed in the northwest.

Teal To Represent Coast Lumbermen

Portland, Ore., Dec. 3.—J. N. Teal, who will represent the lumber producers of the Pacific coast at the federal trade committee's hearing December 15, left for Washington today. The committee will review conditions affecting the lumber trade in the United States. The hearing will be a continuation of those held in Portland and Tacoma a few months ago.

FORD AWAKENS CURIOSITY

Washington, Dec. 3.—Europe is at least curious as to the Ford peace ship and congress plans. This was shown today by continued inquiries at the state department as to whether the expedition has, in any way, the sanction of the United States government. To all such queries, the department has given a negative answer. The passport bureau is busy grinding out papers for the ship party. These permit transportation only to neutral countries. Some have been rejected because of faulty application.

Company Blameless For the Explosion

Ravensdale, Wash., Dec. 3.—The Northwestern Improvement company stands freed from blame today for the explosion in its mine here which killed 31 miners November 16. A coroner's jury which for two days has been hearing evidence as to the cause of the disaster and with a view to fixing the blame decided yesterday that the company was not guilty of failure to enforce existing regulations for safety but the verdict urged new laws which will insure greater safety. The jury found that the exact cause of the explosion was probably coal dust and fire damp.
