PRATUM NOTES

HERE'S NEW VIGOR FOR OVERWORKED STOMACHS

Lemon was referred to the sewer committee. The committee reported that it had already investigated and reported that it had already investigated and reported that it be allowed. The report was adopted.

Two Union street residents petitioned to be allowed to postpone, on the plan adopted by Mi-o-m, the great descount of weather conditions, construction of cement sidewalks on Union between Capitol and Twelfts streets until April or May. It was referred to the street committee.

R. A. Bowen made application for application ferred to the street committee.

R. A. Bowen made application for appointment as plumbing inspector.

An ordinance was introduced requiring operators of moving vans to keep a weekly record of removals of household goods and to file the report with the chief of police. The reports should be filed every Monilay and not be open to public inspection. It was open to public inspection. It was of stomach agonies by using this redefinitely postponed.
