

SIMPLICITY MARKS WEDDING OF PRESIDENT AND MRS. NORMAN GALT

Bride, One of Washington's Most Beautiful Women, Has Never Looked More Lovely and Attractive.

She Is a Woman of Simple Tastes, Fond of Books and Traveling and an Excellent Housekeeper.

THE wedding of the president of the United States and Mrs. Edith Bolling Galt at the bride's Washington home on the evening of Saturday, Dec. 18, electrifies an entire nation, peculiarly susceptible to the heart appeal to a country witnessing the marriage of its first citizen.

functions more brilliant than those which will be held in the White House after the return of the president and his bride from their honeymoon. She is a gracious and brilliant entertainer, although she has taken little part in social activities during the past eight years.

Photo copyright, 1915, by American Press Association.

THE PRESIDENT AND HIS BRIDE.

the trace of a very eventful year was written unmistakably into his face and physique. Especially did he show the stress and travail which he has undergone during the last five years. Today, apparently without a care in the world, he looks less than fifty. His air of austere reserve has melted away, and he is all graciousness. Nobody can doubt that under the influence of the simple, gracious, companionable woman he has won, "the year's at the spring" for him.

The "Something Blue."

The same turquoise bracelet worn by other brides of this administration—Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre and Mrs. William Gibbs McAdoo—adorns the arm of the president's bride. It is the property of Miss Margaret Wilson and supplies the "something borrowed and something blue" necessary to carry out the old bridal superstition.

The "something old" is a piece of rare old rose point from a famous Bolling collection. The wedding gown, of course, provides the "something new." The Galt home in Twentieth street was put in splendor and order for the ceremony and the festivities incident thereto. The floral scheme is on an elaborate order, having been worked out by experts of the White House conservatories.

cash to buy trousseaux and hid for a family of girls remarkable for their beauty and popularity was not always available, wherefore Miss Edith Bolling began to utilize her gift for line and form and for color and design. Twenty-five years ago in Wytheville, Va., the new first lady as a girl in her teens developed a great reputation in the large family connection for her ability to buy, to cut out, to fit and to make up divers frocks for divers occasions. So, too, with hats, she has great skill in the building of a hat. She can "poise a wing" or twist a ribbon into a bow with the skill of a trained hand.

Not Fond of Jewelry.

"She has less jewelry than any member of the family," said one of the connection the other day. "I should say she had no favorite gem. The opal is her lithestone and is seen in the handsome bodice jewels, brooches or rings she possesses. She never cared for jewels, even as a young girl."

The bride is fond of flowers. No matter what the blossom, its color, its fragrance, its shape, its size, she is fond of flowers. The president's earliest remembrance took the form of exquisite clusters of orchids, sometimes white, sometimes yellow, sometimes mauve. Huge clusters of rich red roses sometimes replaced the orchids, and again bunches of lilies of the valley beautified the smart toilets in which she appeared either in public or in the drawing rooms of her friends.

A Simple Woman.

"You may take it from me, Edith never does anything for effect or because it is considered 'the thing to do.' She is in love with the man Woodrow Wilson. The glamour of the White House did not attract her or influence her judgment in a matter so intimate and vital," was one comment. This side light is further emphasized in her manner of traveling. She selects her route and her companion, makes her arrangements and sets out sanely. According to another of her friends, she is one "of the most alive and vivid women" imaginable. An alive and vivid woman she appears in her travels. Two years ago, with Miss Alice Gertrude Gordon, she made a tour of Spain—not the Spain of the cities, but the bypaths of the unfrequented Spain. Between Miss Gordon and the bride the warmest friendship exists. Called to General Gordon's deathbed, her promise to "look after Gertrude" has resulted in a devoted friendship cemented by long periods of travel in far-off lands. Sentimental only is the tie of "guardianship" which many in Washington, even the closest of friends, consider exists between Miss Gordon and the president's helpmate. However, so devoted is she to her young companion "Altrude" (as play on the given names of Alice Gertrude) that even her business affairs have many times received the steady influence of her oversight.

Fine "Poor Man's Wife."

To turn to the purely domestic side, she is an excellent housekeeper, and she has a reputation for retaining not only the good will but the co-operation of her domestics. She herself can work out a menu admirably, and if the necessity arose she could personally "get up" a palatable dinner. She is clever at the Sunday evening supper table (a distinctive feature of southern households), and her handling of the chaffing

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

She Made Up a Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to Bring Back Color, Gloss, Thickness

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss. While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

MT. PLEASANT ITEMS

Mrs. B. Frost is visiting at the Floyd Shelton home. Elmer Ray and Letha Sanders were callers at the D. C. Ray home Sunday. Mrs. Frank Habberman and Beatrice Ryan called at the Mrs. H. Shank home Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Shank called at the John Huber home Sunday. Mrs. P. Lambert visited with her daughter in Stayton Thursday. Mrs. H. Shank called at Ed Smith's Wednesday. Mrs. Floyd Shelton and baby returned home Friday after a visit with relatives in Seio. Mrs. Harold Townes and son, of Portland, and Miss Mable Townes spent the week-end in Albany. Mrs. H. Shank and G. H. Ray were visitors at H. R. Shank's Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Senz were Sunday visitors at the Joe Senz home. Lewis Ray made a trip to Mill City Saturday returning Sunday with the remainder of his sheep. Will and Marguerite Ryan and Bessie Shank spent the week-end with home folks. Mrs. Floyd Shelton and baby returned home Friday after a visit with relatives in Seio. Lewis Ray made a trip to Mill City Saturday returning Sunday with the remainder of his sheep. Mrs. Harold Townes and son of Portland and Miss Mabel Townes spent the week-end in Albany. Mrs. B. Frost is visiting at the Floyd Shelton home. Mrs. H. Shank called at the Ed Smith home Wednesday. Harry Downing called at Lee Downing's Sunday. Mrs. Frank Habberman and Beatrice Ryan were callers at the Mrs. H. Shank home Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Senz were Sunday visitors at the Joe Senz home. H. R. Shank and wife were Sunday callers at John Huber's. G. H. Ray and Mrs. H. Shank spent Thursday at the H. R. Shank home. Elmer Ray and Letha Sanders called at the D. C. Ray home Sunday. Roy Brenner called at P. H. Lambert's Tuesday. Will and Marguerite Ryan and Bessie Shank spent the week-end with home folks. Mrs. P. H. Lambert spent Thursday at the W. R. Brenner home in Stayton. All are cordially invited to attend the anti-saloon league meeting at the Mt. Pleasant church Sunday, December 12 at 11 a. m.—Stayton Standard.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

David Mangle et ux to C. P. Niebert, Peter Nell claim 8 and 9-9-1W. M. E. Pendleton to Exile Burkitt, lots 12 and 13, Pendleton acres. Margaret Stauffer to Warner and Stauffer, James L. Kester claim 32-4-1W. Wm. Vandemacker claim 63-4-1W. W. W. Ray et ux to School District No. 137, part J. B. Dagnire claim 37-4-2W. H. M. Branson et ux to Mabel and C. T. White, lot 1, block 2, Riverside addition, Salem. Effie L. Libby to Louis Looz, lots 1, 2 and 4, block 8, addition "C" to Woodburn. M. Barnap et ux to Elbert and Grace Thompson, lot 8, block 29, Salem. McGiechrist and Savage to Franklin E. Turner, part block 29, Nob Hill Annex, Salem. Wm. Schwader et ux to Herman Abram, W. H. Parker claim 14-4-1W. E. G. Lantz to Ella Lantz, part lot 18, Ewald, P. F. E. M. Croisan et ux to John J. Coleman, lot 13-14-15, Croisans Riverside acres. Sadie E. Russell et vir to W. C. Winslow, lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 7 and 7, block 26, Depot addition to Salem. M. Barnap et ux to Anna Simmons, part Peter Wilson claim, 31, 5, 1 E; J. McPherson claim, 31, 5, 1 E; Muekey W. Smith claim, 1, 6, 1 W. Effie L. Libby to Louis Looz, lots 1, 2, 3 and 4, block 8, Add. C to Woodburn. M. Barnap et ux to Elbert and Grace Thompson, lot 8, block 29, Salem. McGiechrist and Savage to Franklin E. Turner, part block 29, Nob Hill Annex, Salem. Vaelay Svancara to Jacob Frank 1-2 D L C Barnett and Louisa Lipscomb; 8-1E. Barbara Bowley et vir to L. G. Ferschweiler pt B. Deborne et 5-5W. J. Baumgartner et ux to A. J. and L. C. Mathis tract 5, Marion Gardens. Henrietta M. Hazelton et vir to Jennie M. E. Benson, part blk 9 Roberts add Salem; also lot 4 blk 2 Central add Salem.

HOW THE STATE IS MADE THE GOAT IN LAND GRANT CASE

Interested Parties and Self Seeking Politicians Stirring Up the Trouble

(From the Pacific Coast Manufacturer.) As a result of numerous conferences over the O. & C. land grant of 2,300,000 acres, the state bids fair to lose its $2,000,000 delinquent taxes and get no settlers on the land. The lawyers prefer litigation to settlement, and new suits have been started, and the politicians prefer to let it be known that they are ferocious corporations in preference to justice. In place of unraveling the tangle and getting revenues for the state and settlers on the land that can be settled, demagogues keep howling for sales at $2.50 per acre. In the meantime, suits have been started to collect delinquent taxes in Douglas county where the same lands have been assessed at $14 per acre. Some office-seekers care nothing for the essential dishonesty of a proposition, when the state and the counties have been taking these lands at $10 to $15 an acre to demand sale at $2.50 an acre. They know that will buy them votes among the unthinking class of voters who have no scruples at robbing the corporation or the state itself if they can do it by sharp practices. The O. & C. company very handsily refuses to pay its taxes at $14 an acre in Douglas county when the state and the federal courts say they have only a $2.50 interest in the property. Those suits will be carried to the highest courts and then new suits will be started and the poor old state of Oregon will get neither settlers nor taxes. The lawyers are after big fees and the politicians have promised their friends lands at $2.50 an acre to buy their support in the primaries and elections. In the meantime, state and county taxes mount higher and actual settlers are kept off the lands in the interest of a speculative class already lined up for the timber syndicates. In addition the state of Oregon runs two other dangers—that the railroad company defaults in payment of taxes and bids in the land grant, thus getting a final title. No one else would have the two million dollars to put up for the delinquent taxes, which with costs would amount to half a million dollars additional. Finally the state stands to lose the property for taxable purposes by action of congress turning it into the forest reserves as urged by the forestry officials.

RAILROAD WORK AWARDED.

Guthrie-McDonnell & Co., Pittock Bldg., were awarded the contract for relining the O. W. R. & N. tunnel, first announcement of the contemplated project being published in The Record of November 27. The contract will include the lining of the tunnel which extends for a distance of 5,435 feet from Mook's bottom under Columbia Park and terminating at the Columbia slough road. The cost has been placed at $400,000. The company also is preparing to start the work of the re-laying of tracks for a distance of 106 miles, details of which were also previously published. It is said that no contracts will be let for this work.—Portland Building Record.

Advertisement for Beecham's Pills. Title: For Women Who Are Ailing. Text: The best advice is—don't neglect matters. Take prompt and proper care at the start of a bilious attack, a sick headache, indigestion, a feeling of lassitude or depression, if you want to keep well, strong and happy. None of these complaints is serious in itself, but may be, in what it brings about. Neglect breeds disease. The wise thing to do—the best thing to do—the safe thing to do—is to take BEECHAM'S PILLS. Are the Help Unfailing. At All Druggists, 10c., 25c. Directions of special value to women with every box. "The Largest Sale of Any Medicine in the World"

Advertisement for H. Steinbock Junk Co. Title: Always Watch This Ad—Changes Often. Text: FOR THE WOODSMAN. We have all kinds of Axes, Sledges, Wedges, Saws and Equipments for the woods. All kinds of Corrugated Iron for both Roofs and Buildings. A good $800.00 Laundry Mangel, slightly used for one-fourth original cost. $15 AND $30 NEW OVERCOATS AT $5.00. I pay 1-2 cents per pound for old rags. I pay highest price for hides and fur. H. Steinbock Junk Co. The House of Half a Million Bargains. 302 North Commercial Street. Phone 808.

Advertisement for Pacific Coast Biscuit Co. Title: SNOWFLAKE SODAS. Text: are baked right here in the Northwest. They come to you fresh and crisp. Ask your dealer. Take no other. PACIFIC COAST BISCUIT CO. PORTLAND, OREGON. Image of a Snowflake Soda box with a swastika logo.

Advertisement for Western Farmer. Title: MANY DOLLARS WORTH OF FARM KNOWLEDGE FOR YOU IN EVERY ISSUE OF WESTERN FARMER THE FARMER'S FRIEND. Text: For the past sixteen years the WESTERN FARMER has been fighting the battles of the Pacific Northwest Farmer—from its very inception its advice and counsel has proven the short cut to profits for its readers and the extension of its influence is shown by the fact that WESTERN FARMER IS READ IN MORE THAN 60,000 OF THE BEST FARM HOMES. This 60,000 circulation is more than double that of any other farm paper in the Pacific Northwest. Join the ranks of the progressive farmers in this territory. Become a subscriber to Western Farmer now and read the 1916 articles by Western Farmer's special staff of writers pertaining to every branch of farming. You can get Western Farmer for a whole year, two issues each month, by taking advantage of our special clubbing offer with the DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL—Call at the office of the Daily Capital Journal and learn how to secure both of these splendid papers—The Daily Capital Journal which is Salem and Marion County's foremost newspaper and the WESTERN FARMER the best edited and most practical farm paper of the Pacific Northwest, at a special clubbing price, or write direct to WESTERN FARMER PORTLAND OR SPOKANE