Private Bartaby, Aged 14, Peeved When Yanked Out of Trench in France

By Wilbur S. Forrest. London, Nov. 23.—(By mail)—Private James Bartaby, 7th East Surrey Regiment, is peeved at the British War Office today. Private Bartaby has just celebrated his fourteenth birthday in a London hospital recovering from wounds received in Northern France. The war office has discovered him through a complaint made by his mother and won't let him go back. That's why he's peeved. This juvenile veteran explains that he "put it over" a recruiting sergeant at Bgham, his home, and was sent to France with his regiment May 29th. "The East Surreys did some heavy fighting over there," said James. "The Germans tried to take our trench and we followed them back to their line. I was just going to jump in after a big German with my bayonet when, zip, a bullet hit me in the leg. When I woke up I was back behind our line and what I think of my bally luck! I'd been discovered. The Colonel came around and asked me my age. I told him I was nineteen. He said he knew better and that I'd have to go home. 'It seems that my mother had been worrying a lot and when she heard that I was in France she told the war office all about it. Rotten luck, wasn't it!'

STAYTON TEACHER MARRIED

At a pretty home wedding at 7 o'clock Friday eve at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hout, Miss Ellen Violet Hinz became the bride of Durrell C. Stayton, instructor in the commercial department of the Stayton high school. Dr. J. R. N. Bell performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few relatives and friends, the ring ceremony being used. The house was simply decorated with potted ferns and chrysanthemums. Miss Frankie Hout played Lohengrin's bridal chorus, which heralded the immediate appearance of the bride party. The bride was adorned in a gown of white wool crepe elaborated with lace, and the bridal bouquet was an artistic shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Lillian Hinz, maid of honor, wore white challis. Cecil Blakely, attended the groom. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served. Potted ferns adorned the table, and the place cards were dainty Japanese girls under blue and yellow parasols, the favors coming from Honolulu.—Mail.

NOTICE OF VACATION.

In the County Court of the State of Oregon for the County Court of Marion. In the matter of the Application of Seid Back for the vacation of Frank's Fruit Tracts. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, Seid Back, the owner of all the real property hereinafter described, has filed a petition with the County Clerk of Marion County, State of Oregon, to the County Court of the State of Oregon for said county to vacate all of the sub-divisions or addition and all the lots, blocks and tracts thereof, the same being lots or tracts numbered from one to twelve inclusive in that certain sub-division or addition known as Frank's Fruit Tracts in Marion County, State of Oregon, the plat and dedication of which is now of record at page 175 of Volume 10 of the book of plats of record in the office of the recorder of said Marion County, and all the roads, streets, avenues and alleys of such sub-division or addition. That said petition is now on file and pending and all persons opposing said vacation are hereby notified and required to present their objections to such petition to the said County Court on or before Friday the 7th day of January, 1916, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m. Dated at Salem, Oregon, this 23rd day of November, 1915. SEID BACK, Petitioner.

STATE NEWS

Bandon World. The log drive of Lawborne and Anson Brothers down Middle creek, a tributary of the North Fork of the Coquille, is said to have been the biggest drive ever sent down the North Fork. Between 14,000 and 20,000 logs were caught at the Cedar Point boom just below Coquille for the Smith mill.

Medford Mail: Not much orchard planting was done this year, but much less preparation is being made for next year's increase in orchard acreage than for several years past. A considerable acreage of peach orchard was pulled up last year; much less this year, and no report has been received of intention to eliminate the peach trees next year. Some regret is expressed by a few orchardists for taking up their peach trees last year.

Coquille Sentinel: The finest celery we have ever seen in Oregon is now being sent up here by a Bandon gardener and sold by our grocers. It is said that it took three or four years to get this industry started, but soil appears to have been found that is perfectly adapted to the plant.

Pendleton's municipal Christmas tree, which on Christmas eve will contain a sack of candy for every boy and girl of Pendleton, will be set in place at the intersection of Main and Court streets and will serve as a part of the holiday street decorations.

F. M. Kelsay, a weather prophet quoted by the Hillsboro Argus, says the heavy foliage sign is put out of business by the frog sign. He says when the frogs keep up a run of conversation through November he notices they are generally in session for all winter and he does not look for any extreme cold.

From a nucleus of a few dozen volumes donated by members of the Civic club and their friends, the public library of Estacada has in 21 months grown to 460, with a circulation list of 59 to 75 volumes.

The Farmers union of Lacombe, with a membership of 80, has just completed a fine new hall, which will be dedicated December 17. The hall is 30 by 60 feet, two stories, and is equipped with kitchen and dining room.

"Forest Grove," says the News-Times, "will close the year 1915 with many fine improvements to its credit. Among these are the numerous cement sidewalks built during the summer and late fall."

An association to dispense charity is in process of organization at Newberg. The Civic Improvement club, W. C. T. U., Women's Relief Corps and other organizations have been invited to enter the association.

WILL FIGHT PHONE RATES

The step taken by the city council instructing the city attorney to begin action to restrain the Western Telephone Company from raising its rates, meets with general approval in this city. The council felt it a duty to not only act in behalf of the citizens of Woodburn, but to see that an agreement entered into between the city and company is carried out to the letter. It is a matter in which every municipality in the state should take the keenest interest.

In 1910 this city granted the Western Telephone Company a 25-year franchise in which the maximum monthly rates were specifically stated to be $1.00 for over two-party line, $1.25 for two-party line and $1.50 for single party line. Since then the Favorite Telephone Company was merged with the Western Telephone Company, which took control of the former's property.

Application was then made to the Public Service Commission for permission to raise rates and this was granted by the commission in defiance of the terms of the franchise. The rates permitted are higher than the maximum rates stipulated in the franchise. Notice was given the patrons of the Western Telephone Company on the first of this month that the raise in rates had gone into effect. A number of 'phones have gone out—Woodburn Independent.

WAR NEWS OF ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

Germany admitted an allies' advance in Flanders and France. Italian Premier Salandra declared that the war would bring "an enlarged Italy" in 1915. British losses of officers and men up to December 1, were 86,000 the same number Kitchener first sent to France.

SUFFERING IN AUSTRIA

Chehalis (Wash.) Advocate.—Bringing the realization that but little is really known in this country of the genuine suffering that is going on in the war-ridden European countries, not alone in the trenches and in the ranks but in the homes that have been left fatherless and unprotected, comes a letter to a young woman in this city from her mother in the town of Chulask, Austria, a place of 5,000 inhabitants, situated about 25 miles from Vienna.

The letter brings a plea to the daughter for clothing, not alone for the mother, who is 60 years of age and whose husband is past 60 and is suffering from wounds received in battle, but for the other residents of the town as well. The personal nature of the letter precludes its publication but anyone desiring to read the letter with the intent of aiding in relieving the distressed conditions of which it tells may do so if they will call at this office.

The letter shows that it was opened by the censors but for some reason unknown it was permitted to carry out its tale of misery and suffering such as few if any other letters have carried. The state industrial commission, provided, its male population drawn away by the war, is left with but one minister and one grave digger as its total male population above the age of 12 years. Men over 60 years of age and crippled with age were called to the front and forced to go. Girls of 10 years and over are compelled to make shirts for the soldiers while they themselves freeze at their tasks for lack of clothing.

The letter states that there are a few trees near the town which could be cut and used for fuel, there are no persons capable of doing the cutting. Money is so scarce to the people of the town for they can buy nothing with it. What they beg for is shirts of wool or heavy cotton to keep them warm.

The letter from beginning to end is a heart-breaking epistle that tells of nothing but suffering and misery. The young lady who received it asks that her name be withheld but the letter itself can be produced when called for.

BURKERT-ELLIOTSON.

Wedding bells were loudly rung at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Seely, Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 8, when a large number of friends and relatives gathered to witness the wedding ceremony which united in wedlock Mr. Wilhelm H. Burkert and Miss Rosa M. Elliotson. The Seely home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, Oregon grape, mistletoe and white roses adorned the parlor, and in the arch was suspended a beautiful wedding bell.

The bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Elliotson, of Wilsonville, and is well known and highly respected among her many friends. She wore a dress of cream mesaline silk and cream lace, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Burkert of Elliott Prairie. He is a prosperous young farmer and is held in high esteem by all who know him. They will make their future home on the farm at Elliott Prairie. After the beautiful ring ceremony, which was conducted by Rev. F. C. Butler of Hubbard, the happy young couple received the hearty congratulations of their many friends. Many beautiful wedding presents were received. Miss Minnie Burkert, sister of the groom, assisted the bride, while Mr. Calvin attended the groom. A beautiful wedding luncheon was served, covers being laid for forty-five guests. The best wishes of all their friends go with the happy young couple to their new home, where they will be at home to their friends January first, 1916.—Woodburn Independent.
