Blossoms, and Ripe and Green Berries On One Branch at Xmas

Ripe red raspberries, green berries and blossoms all on one short branca are exhibited in this city today by E. J. Mangus, of the firm of Mangus Bros., who pruned the stalk from his red raspberry bushes in his back yard at his home east of this city on the asylum road. In pite of the cold weather the ripe berries have an excellent flavor and even the blossoms have an odor of June while the trees are being dor of June while the trees are being ecorated with holly for tomorrow ight's Christmas festivities. The reason that the blossoms are still coming at this time of the year is

That was the question uppermost in the minds of baseball fans here today. It was generally conceded that while the coast league may not derive an actual cash benefit, elimination of some of the spirit of commercialism and feeling of unrest will react for the

One fan declared today the value of the San Francisco club will be increased $50,000 ultimately. It would seem the other clubs will prosper accordingly.

There is much speculation as to the status of Jimmy Johnston of Oakland and Joe Gedeon, of Salt Lake, both of whom signed Federal contracts for sext year.
Some fans expressed the fear that clayers who jumped from the Coast eague will not revert to it, because of the provision in the peace part by which the Federals retain control of their players. It was thought the defunct independents will be able to dis-
