ALINE THOMPSON

WHAT a joyous Christmas it was especially for the little tots who awoke to find their stockings crammed full of all the gifts they have yearned for during the year, and what an unhappy day to the little hearts who were awakened to another Christmas of sorrow and longing.

Philanthropic workers however, made a merry day for many little souls, and lessened considerably the city's number of sad hearts.

Last week society gave itself up almost entirely to the members of the family and the glittering Christmas trees.

The calendar for this week promises to be rather full of gay little affairs and a number of dances. Dancing seems to completely envelop the next few days. Tonight is the premier subscription dance in the Moose hall. Tuesday evening Miss Rita Steiner and Dr. Prince Boyd will entertain their dancing club, and on Wednesday night the Orange club will give their brilliant party in the armory.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton have had as their house guest, Dr. T. L. Perkins, of Portland.

Philip Patterson, who has been visiting since Friday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, returned to Portland Sunday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Hally, of Portland, is a guest at the Henry B. Thielens residence. Before returning home, Miss Hally will also visit Miss Margaret Rodgers.

The Chick Ching Campfire Girls spent a jolly evening with their guardian, Mrs. O. M. Gingrich, Thursday.

A glittering Christmas tree formed much merriment during the evening, followed by a dainty collation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stapleton, of Roseburg, who, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, returned Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Yantis and daughter, Constance, of Portland, were the week end guests of Mr. Yantis' mother, Mrs. S. E. Yantis.

James Crawford of Portland was the Christmas holiday guest of friends.

Mrs. S. L. Hayden and son Miller, left Saturday for Portland where they are the house guests of Mrs. Hayden's sister, Mrs. James W. Cook.

Mr. J. W. Woodruff was hostess on Thursday for a charming one o'clock luncheon honoring Mrs. S. Pierce, of Livingston, Montana.

The rooms were beautifully adorned in gay pinettes, while the board was centered with a miniature Christmas tree.

Five hundred was enjoyed after luncheon.

Mrs. Woodruff's guests included the members of the country club, and several additional guests.

A group of friends gathered Friday evening for a jolly little surprise party given in honor of Ralph Mercer, who has recently joined the navy, and is home spending the holidays with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Mercer.

Those enjoying the evening were: Allan Carson, Whitney Gill, Victor Reid, Kenneth Randall, Charles Love, Daryl Proctor, Allan Byron, Richard Avison, Ralph Mercer and Donald Randall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roth, of The Dalles, have been visiting in Salem for several days with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Goff, who were the Christmas guests of the T. C. Smiths, Jr., returned to Portland Sunday evening.

Mrs. Claude P. Slade and small son William, of Silverton, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, left last evening for Grants Pass, where they will visit Mrs. Slade's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gillet.

The University of Oregon students have been issued an invitation to attend the Orange club dance in the armory Wednesday evening.

The invitation has been sent to Dr. Carlton Smith, who is president of the Oregon Alumni association in Salem.

The Artisans Drill team are keenly anticipating their second dance, which is to be given in the Moose Hall Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer had as their Christmas guest, Mrs. Hofer's father, Mr. E. W. Dent, of Portland.

A complete surprise to their many friends was the announcement of the marriage of Miss Marie Thomason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomason, of this city, and John Gary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gary, of Idaho.

The wedding which was very simple, with only a few friends and relatives present, took place Christmas evening at the home of Rev. J. C. Spencer, who officiated.

The young couple attended Willamette university and were very popular in college circles.

They are at home to their host of friends at 605 Commercial street.

Miss Edna Ficks, of Seattle, is visiting in Salem with Mrs. A. D. Palmer and daughter, Miss Emily. Miss Ficks taught German in the Salem high school for a number of years, and has a large number of friends who will be glad to have her with them again.

A delightful family Christmas dinner was that given at the home of Mrs. W. H. Ringo on Broadway street.

The rooms were prettily decorated in holly and evergreen.

Circling the table which was aglow with bright Christmas candles were: Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Ringo, of Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ringo, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Graber, Mrs. C. Bushnell, Miss Gertrude Savage, Miss Ermine Bushnell and Malcolm Graber.

At the conclusion of dinner the guest were made happy by the receipts of their Christmas gifts.

Later the little party was enjoyably entertained at the Grand theatre.

Some Lives Lost With French Steamer

Paris, Dec. 27.—Some persons are believed to have perished when the French steamer Ville De La Clotat was sunk by a submarine in the Mediterranean Friday. No details of the disaster, which became known today, were received, except that the vessel was torpedoed without warning, and a majority of her complement were rescued.

She was a 7,000-ton vessel, engaged in trading in the Orient.

Eighty Perished.

London, Dec. 27.—Eighty persons perished in the sinking by a submarine of the French liner Ville De La Clotat, it was reported here today. She sank within a few minutes after the torpedo was fired at her without warning.

Next to the Ancona and Yasaka Maru she was the largest liner sunk in the Mediterranean.

Those who died are believed to have been chiefly crew members.

The Clotat was the fifth vessel today reported sunk. The others were the British steamers Hadley, Yeddo, Cottingham and the Belgian, Minister Beermer.

No man is ever nominated for president in the town he lives in; so Big Bill Thompson's last hope must be gone.

If you lose it, advertise in the New Today column of the Capital Journal. The high school girl who lost her purse advertised in the New Today column and now she is happy as the purse was found by R. P. Bradford, of Route 7, who returned it to this office.

Dr. T. A. Nelson, the well known chiropractor of Portland, has decided to locate in Salem and make this city his home. He has secured rooms 27 and 28 in the Beysman building and is now ready for business. Dr. Nelson has had ten years experience in Portland and intends to build up a business here by doing first class work.

The Rebekahs will hold their Christ-mas tree exercises this evening, in which there will be a real Christmas tree and presents given to the children. The program of the evening will be given by the children, to be followed by games and other entertaining features. The entertainment tonight is only for the members of the Rebekah lodge and their children.

O. H. Luck, manager of the commercial club is in receipt of a telegram from G. B. Lantham, who will be in the city Tuesday evening in the interests of Coyne Bros., of Chicago, who are large buyers of onions. Growers having onions to sell should communicate with the commercial club, as this commission firm is in the valley to buy 50 car loads.

Salem folks to the number of 4066 received Christmas greetings in the way of postal cards the two days before Christmas, according to the records of the postoffice. From Monday to Friday evening of last week, 21,490 Christmas cards were received at the postoffice, and this number does not include those mailed for Salem. For Salem and vicinity 7,880 cards were received last Thursday.

The inmates of the Oregon state pen-itentiary will give their Christmas show, "Terrible Tower," next Thursday evening to which the public is invited. The auditorium will be turned over to the public and no inmates of the pen will attend the show except those participating. The admittance fee of 25 cents which will be charged, is for the benefit of the entertainment fund.

A. McDonald, salesman for the Spaulding Logging company, reports business good for the Indiana side in the Yasima valley of Washington, where he has been working for the past few weeks. Already one car load of these silos have been sold for early spring shipment, and Mr. McDonald writes the prospects are good for the shipping of several cars into the Yakima valley within the next few months. The Spaulding Logging company has the exclusive sale and manufacture of the Indiana silo for the Pacific coast.

Something of interest to young people will be found in the advertisement of the Capital Business College elsewhere in this issue.

The Salem fire department was called out at 6 o'clock last night in response to an alarm turned in for a chimney fire at the John Albert flat at 252 North Cottage street.

Holiday dancing party given by the Moose Tuesday evening, December 23. Peerless orchestra. Refreshments. All Moose and their friends invited.

Chief Deputy State Engineer E. I. Cantine, left this city today for Jackson county where he has been called for a conference by the county court relative to some paving matters.

Holiday dancing party given by the Moose Tuesday evening, December 23. Peerless orchestra. Refreshments. All Moose and their friends invited.

There is no law against giving the mail man a slight token of remembrance about this season of the year for the care he has taken in delivering one's mail. And at the same time, there are no rules to prevent one from remembering the boy who delivers the daily paper, and who takes care to see that the paper is properly placed. This also applies to messenger boys for the telegraph companies. A slight remembrance to those who do their best to please is often a good investment, not so much on account of the value of the present, as the fact that it is nice to be remembered and appreciated.

Here is a chance to make easy money. Write two letters, one to a friend back east and one to a business firm, telling of the wonderful state of Oregon and Portland in particular. Send them to the commercial club by next Friday evening. These will be forwarded to the Portland Chamber of Commerce, which is offering $50 in prizes for the best letters. If one is pretty handy in saying nice things about Oregon, and the letter impresses the judges of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, there is a chance of getting part of the $50 offered.

In his farewell sermon yesterday, the Rev. Harry E. Marshall complimented the members of his church for the friendly feeling they had displayed towards him during the three years he has been pastor of the church and stated that he left the church only because he felt his work was in other fields. Since he announced some time ago his intention of going into evangelistic work, Mr. Marshall has received calls from all parts of Oregon and Washington, and already has his time engaged for the greater part of the coming year. His evangelistic work will begin next Friday in Portland at the East Side Baptist church. The officers and members of the church will tender a reception to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wednesday evening, in the parlors of the First Baptist church. The Rev. W. H. Eaton, pastor of the Baptist church at Roseburg, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday, morning and evening.

Work on the South Salem over-flow sewer started this morning on Owens street, between Fairmount and Plymouth streets. This work is being done under the supervision of the sewer committee of the city council.

The public market will be held on Friday in place of Saturday, and if the weather should be bad it will be in the corner building, corner Ferry and Liberty.

And you will see just why you see more well dressed men now than for months. This Xmas everybody was looking for practical presents and when we showed them how, by adding a few dollars to what they intended to spend, they buy a new winter suit or overcoat, the idea pleased them, and there you are. Then as we said once before "men will talk."

Did you ever stop to think of the power of suggestion? Fully half of our Clothing Sales have been made in this manner. It's easy if you have the goods and the prices to please, and in this instance we have both. This talk on the scarcity of money has become chronic with only a few. There's plenty of money if it can only be put into circulation. Of course one must offer some inducement to cash buyers and this we are doing. Here are a few of them:

Men's 50c heavy derby ribbed cotton Underwear and 75c Swiss ribbed athletic neck, are each 35c, $1.50 Cooper's Australian wool shirts and drawers at 98c, $3.00 Cooper's spring needly wool at $1.13 the garment, $5.00 fancy ribbed wool athletic neck for $1.63 each, and our regular 66.00 French ribbed silk and wool is a bargain at $1.78 the garment.

Men's Hats at $1.12 for the $2.00, and $1.98 for the $3.00 kind. We also have men's cloth hats for rough weather—autoing, etc., the regular $1.50 and $2 are now 98c.

Then there's Oxford bags in 15, 16 and 17-in. at $2.48, $2.98 and $3.48, that were $4.50, $5.00 and $5.50 and $2.50 sweaters for $1.48, $2.00 and $2.25 V-neck Jersey knit sweaters at 98c, 50c wool socks at 38c, and 25c wool sock for 18c.

Men's Trousers—$2.50 kind at $1.98, $3.50 kind at $2.68, $4.00 kind at $2.98, $4.50 kind at $3.38, $5.00 kind at $3.73, $6.00 kind at $4.48.

Men's Suits—$10 ones at $6.48, $12.50 ones at $8.68, $15 ones at $9.88, $16.50 ones at $10.48, $18 ones at $11.98, $20.00 ones at $13.48, $22.50 ones at $14.98, $25 ones at $16.78.

Men's Shoes in black or tan, lace or button, the PACKARD make, all lasts, including the popular English, at $2.48 and $3.98.

ODD COATS AND VESTS

One lot, small sizes only, are going at $1.48 though worth three times as much.
