

EVERYBODY NEEDS PURE, RICH BLOOD

Pure blood enabled the stomach, liver and other digestive organs to do their work properly. Without it they are sluggish, there is loss of appetite, and of the intestines, and, in general, all the symptoms of dyspepsia.

Pure blood is required by every organ of the body for the proper performance of its functions. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood, and this is why it is so successful in the treatment of so many diseases and ailments. It acts directly on the blood, ridding it of scurfous and other humors. It is a peculiar combination of blood-purifying, nerve-toning, strength-giving substances. Get it today.

Salem Music Lovers Eagerly Await Baritone's Coming

The announcement of the 1915-16 Pacific coast tour to be made by that golden-voiced baritone, Emilio de Gogorza, has caused a sensation in local musical circles. This favorite of the concert stage will appear in this city under the management of Minnetta Magers on Monday evening, February 7th.

The singer, who on each succeeding visit to the coast has deepened the interest and affection of his audiences, is of Spanish lineage, having been born of noble parents, the family name being Navarrete. His birthplace was in Brooklyn, N. Y., and this in part accounts for his excellent English, although his early education was obtained in England and France. His first vocal study was with Mme. Guilfa Sanchiello, a pupil of Rossini and a celebrated contralto. Later he studied with Agramonte and Moderati, of New York, and then spent months of hard work with M. Emile Bourgeois, the singing master of the Opera Comique at Paris. His first extended American tour was with the Mme. Emma Eames Concert company eight years ago. Since then his rise has been rapid, based, however, not upon fitful public appreciation, but upon superior merit. The wonderful breadth of his musical knowledge, his gift for interpretation, dramatic intensity, combined with his rare voice which for warmth, sympathy, richness and power is unique on the concert stage, make him a figure upon which Americans may look with a certain element of patriotic pride. His English is the English of the native born American or Englishman and his versatility extends into four other tongues: French, German, Italian and Spanish, into which his programmes are generally divided. Each of these he sings equally well, not as many singers do, with an American accent, but with the finished accent of the polyglot, an accent born of long familiarity and frequent use.

The sale of seats for his concert will open at the Armory on Saturday, January 23, at 9 o'clock.

Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Y. M. C. A. building. The order of the day is a paper by Rev. James Elvin, "Hosea the Prophet of Mercy."

Castle Chapel, United Brethren. Corner Seventeenth street and Nebraska avenue, H. B. Doris, minister; G. G. Tooker, Sunday school superintendent. Bible school 10 a. m. Morning worship 11 a. m., "Careless Friendship." Christian Endeavor at 6:30 p. m. Evangelistic service 7:30 p. m. Hear the chorus choir at this hour. Your presence is appreciated here.

First Presbyterian. There is probably no church in America which has ever received a thousand and new members upon confession of their faith in a single year. One thousand and seventy-five new members were received however year before last in Elst, Africa. Rev. Fred Neal, a former Salem boy, was for several years identified with that mission station in Africa and is home now to re-organize his health and he will speak Sunday both morning and evening in the Presbyterian church. In the evening he will show stereoscopic pictures of the work of that noteworthy work. All are welcome.

First Congregational. James Elvin, pastor. Sunday school meets at ten o'clock. Prof. W. I. Staley superintendent, morning service at 11 o'clock. Subject, "The Pattern in the Mount." Music by chorus choir morning and evening, Wm. McGilchrist, Sr., director. Christian Endeavor at 6:30. All young people of the church and Sunday school invited to attend. Evening service at 7:30. The pastor will deliver an address illustrated by several colored slides on the subject "Among the Warlike Zulus." Everybody invited and everybody welcome. The annual meeting of the members and friends of the First Congregational church will be held on Tuesday evening in the social rooms of the church at half past six o'clock. Ladies of the church are requested to bring basket lunch. Coffee will be furnished and served by Woman's union. After dinner reports for the year 1915 will be read and important business will be transacted. The mortgage on the church building will be burned at this meeting, a matter of great rejoicing to all the friends of the church. Every member and friend is cordially invited to be present at this meeting. Thursday evening meeting at 7:30. "Studies in the Book of Acts." Among the Warlike Zulus. "Memories of the great African explorer David Livingstone will be revived on Sunday evening at the First Congregational church by the illustrated address on the Zulus to be given by the pastor. The scientific world honors Livingstone because of his great explorations. The philanthropic world exalts him because he was the liberator of the slave. The Christian world while recognizing these other great achievements, honors this man because he was a great Christian. Pictures of the Suez canal, Zanzibar, Rufan African Kraals, Zulu Young Women, Wedding Dance, A Smeller-out Woman, and many others will be thrown on the screen. The Zulus are undoubtedly the finest of the African races and their life and customs, their way of living will be fully described on Sunday evening.

Chemeketa Street Evangelical. Corner Seventeenth and Chemeketa streets, Rev. G. W. Plimmer, pastor. Rev. H. Shuknecht will preach and hold quarterly conference on Saturday evening. He will also preach at 11 a. m. Sunday morning and have charge of the "Lord's Supper." 10 a. m. Sunday school, Walter Curtis, superintendent. Young People's Alliance, 6:30, led by Miss Miles. At 7:30 the pastor will preach. Everybody invited. Rev. G. W. Plimmer, of this city, general missionary of the Evangelical association for Oregon, Washington and Idaho, will make a missionary trip to Pler, Idaho, next Monday. He will be gone for about two weeks.

W. C. T. U. John Woodfin will deliver the gospel temperance address Sunday at 4 p. m. You are requested to be present.

LETTER WRITING WEEK OFFICIALLY PROCLAIMED

Governor Issues Proclamation Setting Apart Week of Jan. 17-22

Mayor Harley O. White is in receipt of a letter from the Portland Chamber of Commerce, enclosing a copy of the proclamation of Governor Withycombe, setting aside the week of January 17 to 22 as letter writing week. The letter suggests that it might be a good idea for the mayor to bring this matter of letter writing week before the merchants and ask that letters be written to business acquaintances in the east. The suggestion is further made that in writing business men, attention be called to the scenery of Oregon, as well as the climate and business opportunities, and especially opportunities for the manufacturer.

The Letter Writing Plan. Boost for Oregon by writing a few letters to your friends back east. Tell them that you like Oregon and would not go back east to live for the best 160 acre farm. In a friendly way, say a lot of nice things about the scenery especially, for it can be truthfully said, that when it comes to scenery, Oregon has an assortment that cannot be surpassed by any state in the whole United States.

At the same time, tell your friends of the attractions and scenery of your own locality. Get them interested and possibly next summer when the traveling season is on, many of them will come this way, stop off at Portland and probably run down to Salem for a few days just to talk over the days of long ago.

This letter writing idea originated with the Portland Chamber of Commerce, and through this organization, letter writing week has been set aside by the governor, naming the dates between January 17 and 22.

If the whole state begins to write about what is going on out here, the Chamber of Commerce of Portland feels assured that thousands of tourists will come out this way, and incidentally on their travels, distribute a goodly amount of American dollars.

The proclamation of the governor is as follows:

Whereas: It appears that much beneficial publicity will result for Oregon and all its communities by the writing of letters descriptive of our state to our acquaintances, friends and relatives who have not the good fortune to dwell in Oregon; and

Whereas, it is pointed out that the best results in such a letter writing campaign can best be obtained by organizing and setting aside for it a definite period; and

Whereas, many organizations have already interested themselves in individual efforts along this line;

Now, therefore, I do hereby proclaim the week of January 17th to 22d, 1916, as Oregon Letter Writing Week, and during that week it is desired that the people and the organizations and the communities of our state bend their energies to dispatching as many messages as possible to people in other states and countries descriptive of the opportunities, resources and attractions of Oregon; and I further suggest that our newspapers, officials and school teachers, and community organizations will do well to give the purposes and plans of Oregon Letter Writing Week recognition and their hearty co-operation, so that organized effort for intelligent and far reaching publicity for Oregon may be achieved. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Oregon to be hereunto affixed this eighth day of January, 1916. JAMES WITHYCOMBE, Governor.

SUBLIMITY NEWS

Mrs. Jacob Kloetsch, who has been ill for some time is able to be around again.

While trying to back a team out of the shed Sunday night, W. B. Heister, of Union Hill, met with what might have been a serious accident when his team backed up and started out on a gallop towards home. They were stopped within thirty yards of the starting place, however, and the only damage was that the buggy tongue was broken, and the harness torn all off one of the horses.

Mrs. Anton, an Handel made a business trip to Salem Monday.

Mrs. E. P. Schott and son Harold are on the sick list suffering from influenza.

Mr. Taylor, of the Stayton electric light plant has just completed digging holes for electric light poles which will be set up in the near future.

The regular business of Sublimity White Line Telephone Co. was ground out at its regular meeting Tuesday evening, January 4.—Stayton Standard.

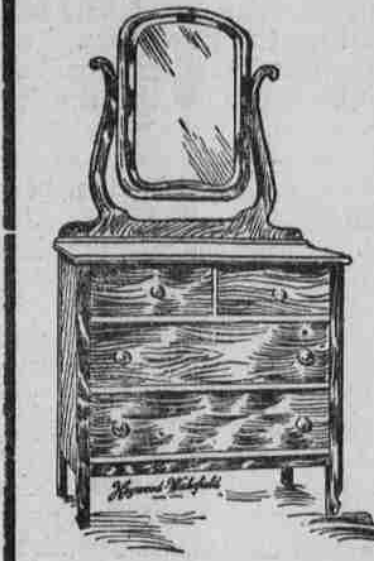

HOME COMING CELEBRATED

About fifty people gathered at the Mrs. Lizzie Glauser home Monday, January 3, to celebrate the homecoming of August Weirich, of Alberta, Canada. The time was pleasantly spent in playing games and dancing and about midnight a delicious lunch was served after which the guests departed.

Those present were: Jacob Spaniol and family, Tony Reiger and family, Ben Gebben and family, Geo. Weirich and wife, Albert Neitling and family, Bill, Jake and Minnie Kerber, Cap, Chris and Mary Cramer, Geo. Albert, Mary, Julia and Agnes Boedigher, Chas. HOUSEHOLD HINTS

The Sunday Dinner. Oysters on the Half-Shell, Horseshell Sauce.

Roast Beef, Browned Potatoes, Escaloped Tomatoes, Buttered Beets, Lettuce Hearts, French Dressing, Lemon Meringue Pie, Coffee.

The Table.

Pressed Pigs' Feet—Cook 12 pigs' feet very tender. Take bones out carefully while the meat is warm. Put meat through sausage grinder. Roll 1-2 pounds crackers very fine. Salt and pepper to taste (not too much salt as crackers are salty). Put meat in small dish pan, add cracker crumbs, mix with the hands, pack in small crocks or flat dish. Slice. Nice for lunch.

Baked Stuffed Onions.—Select large onions of uniform size. Peel, cover with boiling salted water and simmer 10 minutes. Drain, scoop out center of each onion and fill cavity with cold minced meat of any kind moistened with beaten egg and a little melted butter, and seasoned highly with salt and pepper. Place closely together in baking dish and bake in moderate oven half an hour.

Fried Noodles.—Blend one egg in a cup, fill with water, add pinch of salt, mix stiff with flour, (when dry enough) roll up and cut finer; boil in salted water 10 minutes; drain. Brown one cup fine bread crumbs in butter, add noodles, toss together and serve.

Browned Flour for Gravies.—Spread flour in a skillet or tin dish, place it on stove or in very hot oven. After it begins to color, stir until browned all through. Cool and place in glass can for convenient use.

Potato-Nut Friedcakes.—Five medium potatoes mashed hot. Add one tablespoonful butter, one teaspoon salt, two cups sugar, three eggs, one cup walnut meats. Sift five teaspoonful baking powder into enough flour to roll out. This makes about 60 friedcakes.

Cherry Cream Pie.—One cup milk boiling hot; add a little soda, one cup canned sour cherries, one cup sugar, yolks of two eggs, two tablespoonfuls flour. Make into a custard. Have a nice crust baked. Fill with custard. Beat whites of the two eggs, add to top and brown. If a pinch of baking powder is added while beating eggs, the frosting will be very light; add it after beating very stiff, then beat again.

Things Worth Knowing.

If soup is required the day it is cooked, the grease can be easily and entirely removed in this way: When soup is nearly cooked, set kettle in dish pan of cold water and throw a cup of cold water into soup. The grease will at once rise to the top and can be skimmed off with a large spoon. A piece of paper (the kind you get

Vegetable Time Table.

After preparing vegetables, place in cold water some time before using. Always let water boil before putting them to cook and continue to boil until done. Turnips should be peeled and boiled from 40 minutes to one hour. Beets take from one to two hours to boil. Spinach takes 20 minutes. Parsnips from 20 to 40 minutes. String beans require about one and one-half hours. Green peas take 20 minutes, with very little water. Asparagus, same as peas; serve on toast with cream gravy. Cabbage takes from one to two hours, and plenty of water; salt while boiling. Shell beans take an hour to boil. Green corn, 20 to 30 minutes. Onions are best boiled in two or three waters, adding milk the last time. Winter squash should be cut into small pieces and boiled 20 to 40 minutes in small quantity of water.

Keep Our Bodies Warm.

Pure, rich, red blood is a necessity in the production of animal heat. It keeps our bodies warm. We all know very well that when the arteries that carry it to a limb are bound or tied, the temperature of the limb is immediately lowered. There is a suggestion in this that, at this time of year especially, we should take Hood's Sarsaparilla, if our blood is impure, impoverished or pale. Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood good in quality and quantity. It has an unequalled record for radically and permanently removing blood diseases, scrofula, rheumatism and catarrh, and giving strength and tone to the whole system. It is a scientific combination of roots, barks, herbs and other medicinal substances that have long been used by successful physicians. Get it today.
