ALINE THOMPSON

Of special importance on society's list of engagements for tonight is the concert to be given by the Metropolitan Grand Opera company, at the Grand theatre.

This concert to which one may look with legitimate hope of enjoyment, will include a number of brilliant artists besides Axel Svahn, the great Danish violinist, whose playing is a veritable revelation.

Others in the company who will appear on the programme are: Miss Florence Hawkins, soprano; Miss Clara Feulner, mezzo-soprano, who was with the Chicago Grand Opera company last season; Francis Cowles, baritone; Miss Molly Beverly Wilson, contralto, who is from the Royal Opera in Vienna, and Miss Alice McClung, pianist.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer will be hosts for an attractive dinner and bridge on Friday evening.

Their dinner guests will include about fifteen of the younger matrons, and maids, the men being asked for cards later in the evening.

Miss Helen Deckebach has returned from Eugene where she attended the formal dance given by the Kappa Sigma "Frat" men on Saturday night.

At White Temple last night Miss Grace Ruth Lindburg pledged her troth to Dean Truman Goodman, Rev. W. O. Shank officiating, using the ring ceremony. It was a simple affair, the church with its throng of guests being simply adorned with a profusion of palms. The bride stood beneath a bower made of the tall palms, and as a processional Mrs. Eugene Wetzel, who presided at the organ during the wedding march, and at the conclusion Mendelssohn's march. During the ceremony she played selections from Weizsäcker, and Miss Helen O'Heron sang "Oh, Promise Me." Ushering the guests were Harold Broughton, Harold J. Warner and Lloyd Harding, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Miss Mable Frances Sheagreen attended the bride as maid of honor and her sister, Miss Edna May Lindburg, was bridesmaid. Little Marjorie McGinn made a charming little flower girl. Carl Gabrielson, of Salem, acted as best man.

The bride was attired in a handsome gown of ivory-toned satin, made with full court train and trimmed with pearls, the bodice having a large pearl motif at the corsage. A mob cap of orange blossoms fastened over long tulle veil, which completely enveloped the gown and train. Her bouquet was of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Sheagreen's gown was a creation of pastel blue pussy willow taffeta and pink tulle, worn with a large pink chiffon hat. She carried a showy bouquet of pink Killarney roses. Miss Lindburg was attired in a pink taffeta, combined with tulle, and a poke bonnet of gold lace. Her bouquet was an old-fashioned nosegay.

Little Miss McGinn wore an embroidered lingerie frock and carried a basket of Cecil Bruner roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the private clubhouse of F. P. Sheagreen, 135 Nebraska street. A buffet supper was served, and the reception was attended only by relatives and a few intimate friends.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lindburg; her sister, Mrs. H. C. Witter, and the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Goodman, received the bride party.

Assisting in serving were Miss Aline Sheagreen, Miss Harriet Sheagreen, Miss Bertie Waidt, Katherine Sherod, Mrs. Albert Molin and Mrs. Dean Adams.

The bride's going-away suit was of dark blue broadcloth, trimmed with ermine fur, and worn with a wisteria velvet hat, and a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodman will be at home after February 1 in The Dalles, Wash., where she will visit indefinitely with Mr. Rauch, who is cashier for the American Express company in that city.

En route Mrs. Rauch will stop in Portland for several days.

The social evening to be given by the Salem University of Oregon Alumni has been arranged by Dr. Carlton Smith, president of the association, to take place on Saturday evening at the A. N. Moore's residence on Chemeketa street.

Old fashioned games and college songs will be included in the evening's diversions.

The committee in charge of the affair is composed of Ralph Moores, chairman; Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. L. T. Harris, Mrs. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Catharine Carson, Dr. Prince Byrd, Walter Winslow and Ben Williams. All University of Oregon alumni and students are cordially invited.

Friday evening under the direction of their chaperone, Miss Mae Hopkins, the members of the "Sailor" dramatic club will give a play in the high school auditorium.

Friends and the public will be admitted for the meager sum of ten cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Glover were hosts last evening for a delightfully informal five hundred party, in celebration of their eleventh wedding anniversary.

Guests were bidden, to make up five tables of the given.

A simple wedding today noon at the Christian church parsonage was that of Miss Gladys Evers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evers, and Reynold F. Schuett, of Polk county.

Rev. F. T. Porter officiated.

The young couple were unattended and chose the double ring ceremony. Only the family and relatives of the couple were present.

HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCHE JEFFERSON, 703 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Metropolitan Singers Arrive in Good Shape on Shasta Limited

Vladimir Neveloff, manager of the New York Metropolitan company says: "We have done everything possible to lighten the troubles usually encountered in travel and have seen to it that the company's sleep and rest is not disturbed. We have planned this tour so that the singers would have no night travel, or any getting up in the middle of the nights to make trains. We therefore have booked this entire tour on the main lines, or where plenty of trains and good connections are available. Another reason why we selected the bookings to be made on the main lines was to insure the company reaching its destination in ample time for its engagement. We have refused to take chances on transferring the company from one line to another, as it has been my observation and experience that in case of delays the trains belonging to one road will not wait for the trains of another road."

Crown Prince May Be Regent of Germany

Rome, Jan. 12.—Unconfirmed Swiss reports today declared the German crown prince had been recalled to Berlin, probably to assume the regency on account of the illness of his father, Kaiser Wilhelm. The message said the report came direct from Berlin.

Rome recently reported that the kaiser's illness was not serious, but within a day it was again rumored that it was serious, and Amsterdam reported that the kaiser was rumored to be dying. This latter report said the rumor was strengthened by the fact that the German press was full of extravagant eulogies of the crown prince.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

The jury in the case of Sherm Swank against Mart T. Moisan and J. M. Moisan returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff last night rendering Mr. Swank a judgment against the defendants in the sum of $750 with interest at 8 per cent from December 1913 and attorneys fees in the sum of $75. The case was an action to collect a promissory note for $750 which was given by the Moisans to Mr. Swank in an auto trade as the difference between the value of the two cars. Attorney William P. Lord represented the defendants and Walter Winslow appeared for the plaintiff.

On account of the continued illness of J. K. Cauthorn, one of the jurors in the Stool damage case the case did not come up for argument today but was continued until some future date when the state of Mr. Cauthorn's health would permit his attendance in court. The case was to be argued before the jury today after a continuance from Monday, but Mr. Cauthorn suffered a relapse and it is not expected that he will be able to appear for several days.

The case of Julia I. Nash against B. M. Dimick was called in department Number 3 of the circuit court this morning. This case was tried out during the October term of the circuit court but the jury failed to agree. This is an action brought by the plaintiff to recover $1000 alleged due for a Federal auto truck and $200 damages additional. John Bayne is attorney for the plaintiff and Winslow and Haddock represent the defendants.

Sons of Revolution Organize Chapter Here

A chapter of the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution will be formed in this city according to the plans made last evening at the meeting called by Winthrop Hammond, the general feeling of those present was that with but little difficulty a local chapter could be formed, in preference to becoming members of the Portland organization.

The meeting last evening was just to get together those who were eligible to become members and to interest those who could become members by securing proper papers from the headquarters of the society in New York. A meeting was called for Tuesday evening, January 25, when steps will be taken to secure a charter for a permanent organization.

THE WHOLE BODY NEEDS PURE BLOOD

The bones, the muscles, and all the organs of the body depend for their strength and tone and healthy action on pure blood.

If the blood is very impure, the bones become diseased; the muscles become enfeebled; the step loses its elasticity, and there is inability to perform the usual amount of labor. The skin loses its clearness, and pimples, blotches and other eruptions appear.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood. It is positively unequalled in the treatment of scrofula and other humors, catarrh, rheumatism, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, that tired feeling. Be sure to get Hood's and get it today. All druggists.
