

SOCIETY

ALINE THOMPSON

WITH a number of bridges and luncheons and an exceptional list of informal gatherings, the week socially will be fairly crowded with things to do.

GOVERNOR and Mrs. James Withycombe have gone to Union, Oregon, where they attended the wedding of their son, Robert Withycombe, and Miss Mabel Hutchinson, which took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hutchinson.

ELDERLY WOMEN SAFEGUARDED

Tell Others How They Were Carried Safely Through Change of Life.

Durand, Wis.—"I am the mother of fourteen children and I owe my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I was 45 and had the Change of Life, a friend recommended it and it gave me such relief from my bad feelings that I took several bottles. I am now well and healthy and recommend your Compound to other ladies."

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness, should be heeded by middle-aged women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has carried many women safely through this crisis.

WILLAMETTE NOTES

Prof. Wallace McMurray's lecture on the plays of August Strindberg last night was of an interesting nature. The professor gave a short sketch of the author's life and then read one of his dramas, "Miss Julia."

Dr. Carl G. Doney will go to Hood River Saturday where he will speak before a Farmers' Institute on an educational subject. In returning he will stop at Portland and speak at the Sunnyside church Sunday evening.

Admirers Celebrate Bobbie Burns' Birthday Despite the big snow storm and generally bad weather, the admirers of Robert Burns met at the First Congregational church to commemorate the poet's birthday of the Scotch poet.

Still No Trace of Escaped Convict The penitentiary officials announced today that they had not yet picked up any clues that would lead to the whereabouts of George Clark, the escaped convict. The officials are of the opinion, however, that the man went south which is not unusual considering that the recent snow and that fact that the climate of Oregon would be unhealthful for the man if caught would cause him to seek a sunnier climate.

"FORTUNE HUNTER" IS SPLENDID PLAY

Will Be Produced By Admirable Cast for Benefit of Social Service

Did you read the announcement of "The Fortune Hunter" yesterday? If you did, here is some additional dope. If you didn't—then listen.

The Social Service Center of the Salem Commercial club is going to produce this play at the Grand theatre on Thursday and Friday evenings, Feb. 3 and 4 with an all-star cast of Salem players, and they are going to use the proceeds of the play to help the 200 worthy families of Salem who, through no fault of their own, are unable to live without the assistance of charity.

Now here is the point. The Social Service Center is not going to ask you for a direct donation, however willing you may be to help along so worthy a cause. Neither is it going to ask you to buy a ticket to an ordinary local theatrical exhibition. On the other hand it is going to do this. It is going to put on the best and highest priced royalty play in the world, a play that has made more money than any play ancient or modern, that has ever been written, and acted by the most distinguished amateur cast that has ever assembled in this city.

You can get tickets now from any member of the board of directors of the Salem Social Service Center. The board is composed of the following members: Supt. of Schools I. M. Elliott, Max O. Baren, Mrs. A. N. Bush, R. A. Harris, Jos. H. Albert, Myron H. O. White, Rev. Robt. S. Gill, Judge W. M. Busby, Rev. R. E. Tinscher, Dr. P. H. Thompson, Ivan G. McDonald, Mrs. N. D. Elliott and Mrs. W. E. Anderson.
