QUITE the most important society events of the next two weeks will be the Subscription dance, Monday night at the Moose hall, and on Thursday and Friday evenings there will be another large affair with the noble purpose of charity as sponsor, "The Fortune Hunter," to be given at the Grand theatre under the auspices of the Social Service Center of the Salem Commercial club for the destitute families, following this benefit will be the concert by Emilio de Gogorza, the famous Spanish baritone at the Grand theatre on Monday night, February the seventh. This concert will be one of the most brilliant events of the social season, and a large array of society folks are planning box parties for the premier appearance of this superb artist. The opening sale of boxes has listed a large number of society folks and will be augmented by many more.

Among those who will occupy the boxes are: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Livesley, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Channing Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sargent, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wells, Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre, Mrs. and Mrs. Asahel Bush. One of the largest and most attractive affairs of the week was the bridge tea presided over by Mrs. Grant Bonnell and Mrs. Emma Davis Friday afternoon at the home of the former in honor of Mrs. E. S. Gannett (Zola Hitchcock).

The rooms were aglow with fragrant red carnations and tulips, intermingled with graceful ferns which made an effective foil for the eight tables. Score honors fell to Mrs. Wilbur Reed, of Portland, who is a sister of Mrs. Gannett. For bridge the guests included: Mrs. Frank Durbin, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. E. S. Carlton, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. A. S. Kazmarek, Mrs. Thomas Gallo-way, Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, Mrs. Endicott, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, Mrs. Chester Cox, Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. Max O. Boren, Mrs. J. C. Griffith, Mrs. E. Dubois, Mrs. David Bracy, Mrs. G. E. Seyvath, Mrs. James Chinnoch, Mrs. Wilbur Reed, Mrs. O. M. Elliott, Mrs. Dana Allen, Mrs. George Wood, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Frank Meyers, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Merila Harding, Mrs. Craig Marvin, Mrs. E. O. Sieche, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Roy Barton, Mrs. David Eyre, Mrs. J. W. Harrison, Mrs. James McGilchrist, Miss Zoe Stockton, Miss Madeline Miller and Miss Snelly, of Portland. Later a number of matrons and maids augmented the affair for tea, including Mrs. R. S. Wallace, Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mrs. Anna Palmer, Mrs. Ramsdell, Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Harriett Dayton, Mrs. Henry Conroyer, Mrs. Alice Dodd, Miss Ada Dayton, Miss Margaret Cooper, Miss Ruby Ramsdell and Miss Mable Roberson. During the serving Miss Madeline Miller played several delightful numbers on the piano. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. Frank Meyers and Miss Zoe Stockton. Mrs. Gannett is a charming young bride and will no doubt be the motif for numerous delightful attentions.

Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner were hosts Monday evening for an attractive five hundred party. Fragrant crimson carnations adorned the rooms in which the card tables were arranged for the guests, who were the members of the Monday evening card club. Mrs. L. F. Griffith and Milton L. Meyers were awarded the card honors. Mrs. Steiner was assisted by her daughter, Miss Rita Steiner. Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush will have as their guests for the subscription dance Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Mason, of Albany, and Mason Ehrman, of Portland. Preceding the dance Mr. and Mrs. Bush will be hosts for a charming dinner, with covers for six. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. John B. Craig entertained the "Cherry City card club" at a delightful bridge. Players circled four tables of the game and the score honors were awarded to Mrs. Edgar Hartley and Homer Smith. Besides the club Mr. and Mrs. Craig asked: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Poisal, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith, and Mrs. Alfred Lovelace. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Miss Bernice Craig and Mrs. Lovelace. Mrs. John D. Sutherland asked a small group of matrons for a very informal chat over the tea cups late afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Charles Gray, who has just returned from the east, where she has been sojourning since the close of the exposition. Mrs. Frank Spears presided at a charming and prettily appointed luncheon Wednesday, covers being placed for six. The table was adorned with an artistic basket of graceful ferns and delicate pink candles. Circling the table were: Mrs. Russell Carlin, Mrs. George William Gray, Mrs. Connell W. Dyer, Mrs. Clyde Graman, Mrs. Curtis Cross and the hostess. Mrs. Guy Sargent asked a group of matrons informally to tea on Wednesday afternoon, her guests being the members of a small Kensington club. One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the attractive five hundred party for which Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Hoise were the hosts Tuesday evening. The card rooms were gleaming with delicate pink carnations and graceful carrot ferns. Mrs. Thomas Kay and Frank Spencer, were awarded the high score honors. Mr. and Mrs. Hoise's guests included the members of the Merry-Gordon club and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Watt as additional. Mr. and Mrs. W. Melvin Plimpton will have as their guests for the Subscription dance Monday night, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Terry, of Portland. Mrs. Walter Spaulding entertained this afternoon with a charming "500" party in honor of her guests, Miss Georgiana Snelly, of Portland, and Miss Blanche Miller, of Albany. Delicate white carnations and greenery adorned the card rooms. Mrs. Spaulding's guests included the "La Couler" club and a number of additional matrons and maids. Miss Carolyn Dur and Miss In Spaulding assisted in the serving. The club members are: Mrs. Chester Cox, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. L. M. Boggs, Mrs. Joseph Reinhart, Mrs. Harry Wenderoth, Mrs. Paul Schmidt, Mrs. Seymour Skiff, Mrs. Louis Jasse, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Miss Zoe Stockton, Miss Mary Eckstein and Miss Nancy Skaffe. The additional guests were: Mrs. Frank Meyers, Mrs. C. J. Green, Mrs. Charles K. Spaulding, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mrs. Harry Weidner, Mrs. Grant Bonnell, Mrs. Dana Allen, Mrs. Lloyd Farmer,

Mrs. Burgess Ford and Miss Jennie Fry. A most artistically appointed bridge luncheon was presided over by Mrs. Frank Durbin Thursday. Covers were placed for sixteen around a table centered with beautiful vivid red carnations and greenery. After luncheon a delightful afternoon was enjoyed over the bridge tables. Card honors fell to Mrs. Oliver Locke. Mrs. Durbin's guests included the matrons of the Thursday luncheon club and Mrs. Curtis Cross and Miss Rita Steiner as additional. Mrs. Cross assisted her mother in the serving. Mrs. George Patterson entertained Thursday with a delightful "500" party. The living room was effectively decorated with fir boughs and brilliant poinsettias. An artistic array of red carnations and greens centered the table, around which were covers for the members of the "Au Fait" club and several additional guests. Card honors fell to Mrs. Frank Davey, and Mrs. Tallington was awarded the low score favor. The club members present were: Mrs. C. K. Ford, Mrs. Eugene Ecklerin, Mrs. J. Nadon, Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Frank Davey, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. John Noud, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Michel and Mrs. F. J. Barringer. The additional guests were: Mrs. F. Talkington, Mrs. Floyd Robinson, Mrs. C. C. Settlemeier, Mrs. William Blake, Mrs. Roy Phillips and Miss Cora Talkington. Mrs. Patterson was assisted by Mrs. Settlemeier and Miss Talkington.

Among the very charming affairs this week, were the dinner and bridge parties presided over by Mr. and Mrs. W. Al Jones on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Mr. and Mrs. Jones' guests numbered eleven on Tuesday, twelve Wednesday and ten Thursday. The table decorations for these artistically-appointed affairs were delicate pink prim roses and cyclamen in tones varying from rose to the deeper shades. The members of the "Sweet Briar club" met on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Ferguson on the Wallace road. An enjoyable afternoon was spent with needle work, after which the hostess served dainty refreshments, assisted by Mrs. E. O. Moll. Besides the club Mrs. Ferguson asked as additional guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Calder and Mrs. Mary Ferguson, of Newport. Friday evening the Misses Gertie and Riter Witzel were the motif of a jolly surprise party at their home on North Cottage street. Games formed the evening's diversion. The young people gathering for the affair were: Miss Emilie Ludi, Miss Gene Sutherland, Miss Ethel Boyce, Miss Greta Witzel, Miss Gerta Witzel, Miss Veda B. Vaughan, Miss Merle Whitney, Miss Esther Baldwin, Miss Esther Bailey, Miss Greta Minger, Miss Celestia Bruce, Miss Clara Page, Miss Joseph Witzel, Miss Hester Welch, Jacob Fuhrer, Floyd Boyce, Miller Cooper, Vernon Howell, Arthur Page, Geo. Alfred Schomaker, James Harrisburg Walker, Arnold Krueger, John Marr, Oscar Zellar, C. H. Mason, Roscoe Clarke, Robert Seaman, Lawrence Brewer.

Mrs. J. W. Cox and Mrs. J. P. Davis assisted the hostess in the serving. Those bidden besides the club members were: Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. A. C. Nadon and Miss Emily Bennett, of Benton, Iowa. Mrs. Bert Waller was a charming hostess for the Elite Embroidery club Thursday afternoon at her home on the Silverton road. Following a pleasant social afternoon and needle work, the hostess served a dainty luncheon assisted by Miss May Warner. Additional guests were: Mrs. May Warner and daughter, Miss Mary Warner. Mrs. P. T. Barker will be the hostess for the next club meeting, on Thursday, February the tenth. Mrs. Leo Urub was hostess Tuesday afternoon for an informal sewing bee. Her guests included Mrs. Charles Knowland and Mrs. Berkeley, of Turner, and the members of the "Williamette Embroidery club." Mrs. Roy Rice was hostess for a delightfully informal Kensington Thursday afternoon, her guests being the members of the "Brode Embroidery club." Miss Johanna James assisted the hostess. Miss Juanita De Voe left today for a several months' sojourn in San Diego, California, where she will visit her mother, Mrs. Edith De Voe. Miss De Voe will be accompanied south by Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dornance who are leaving Salem to make their home in California.

A HOMELESS BABY

This beautiful Chickering Baby Grand Piano is included in the forced sale of the Valley Music House stock of fine Pianos. It is without doubt one of the finest Grand Pianos ever shipped to Marion county. The Chickering is the oldest in America, best in the world, and it would be impossible to secure at any price a better piano than this. We will save someone about $400 on this Grand and will give two or three years time if necessary to pay for it.

AS A PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN HERE SAID YESTERDAY:

"It ought to be an easy matter to dispose of all the pianos you have at the prices they are marked." Seeing is believing. A visit to the store will convince you. For $175 you can select a fine $325 piano on $6.00 per month payments. There are others still cheaper and if you are in the market for a fine player-piano you can now buy one and not feel the cost. Every instrument guaranteed by the manufacturer and by Eilers Music House, and easy terms, like rent, are offered on each one. Only a few days of it. Store open evenings.

Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith will be the charming hosts Tuesday evening for the "Semo Card club."

The ladies of the Eastern Star were enjoyably entertained by Mrs. Frank M. Brown, Mrs. George Dunsford, Mrs. Frank Schaefer, Mrs. H. W. Elgin, Mrs. Coolidge and Mrs. Gingrich at the home of the former on Tuesday afternoon. A novel feature of the afternoon was a spelling contest, the prize being awarded to Mrs. McCarter. Later the hostesses served dainty refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson were hosts Wednesday evening for a delightful five hundred party, their guests including the members of an evening card club. The card rooms, which were a Japanese fairland of vivid lanterns, Japanese parols, and artistic oriental baskets of delicate cherry blossoms, and Chinese lilies formed an effective foil for the six tables. The card honors were in keeping with the attractive decorations and were awarded to Mrs. Ritchies and Walter Spaulding. Mrs. Johnson was assisted by Mrs. Roy Mills and Miss Zoe Stockton. Circling the tables besides the club members were: Dr. and Mrs. G. C.
