

JORN GROWERS OF THE NORTHWEST MAKE GOOD SHOWING AT FIRST NATIONAL CORN SHOW

St. Paul, Minn.—If the boy corn growers of Minnesota, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon continue the progress they have made in the last year these states soon will be in the front rank as producers of juvenile agriculturists.

An exceptionally fine quality of corn was raised by the boys of the Northwest for exhibition in this show. These "future giants" in the corn raising field are rapidly putting these states on the map as a new and wonderful corn belt.

STOMACH MISERY QUICKLY VANISHES

Your money back if you want it is the way in which Daniel J. Fry, the popular druggist, is selling Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia remedy.

This is an unusual plan, but Mi-o-na has so much merit and is so almost invariably successful in relieving all forms of indigestion that he can but little risk in selling under a guarantee of this kind.

Do not be miserable or make your friends miserable with your dyspepsia. Mi-o-na will help you. If it doesn't, tell Daniel J. Fry that you want your money back and he will cheerfully refund it.

A change for the better will be seen from the first few doses of Mi-o-na and its continued use will soon start you on the road to perfect digestion and enjoyment of food.

Mi-o-na has been so uniformly successful that every box is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. What fairer proposition could be made.

Daniel J. Fry gives his personal guarantee of "money back if you want it" with every box of Mi-o-na that he sells. A guarantee like this speaks volumes for the merit of the remedy.

A Month's Experience Under Prohibition

(By United Press.) Portland, Or., Feb. 1.—After a whole month on the watergrain, the heretofore wet portions of the three states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho are taking an inventory of themselves.

Arrests for January, 1916, show a decrease of nearly two-thirds over the same month last year, according to official records. In Seattle, Portland, Spokane and Tacoma a drunken man is not often seen. The novelty of near-ber saloons hasn't worn off and their ultimate success is still hanging in the air.

But only in curious groups, usually led by a man, have the members of the fair sex ventured inside. Many saloons and basements in Oregon and Washington are well stocked with liquor and an easy way is provided for getting more. Idaho, which has a drum tight prohibition law, was nearly all dry by local option before statewide prohibition took effect.

"SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST"

A proprietary medicine like everything else that comes before the public has to prove its merit. It has to meet competition. The law of the "Survival of the Fittest" applies to this as to other things. The fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after forty years of success is still one of the largest standard remedies for the ailments of womanhood, and one in which they may have perfect confidence.

FRUITLAND NEWS

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Fruitland, Or., Feb. 1.—Susie Bennett went to Salem Monday to work. Quite a number of young folks from here attended a party at Mr. Bond's of West Fruitland last Saturday evening.

Elmer Otterbein started to high school last Monday. Mr. W. O. Witham went to Salem Sunday to visit his wife who is staying with her children while they go to school.

Mrs. Laura Slocum and her son, William, visited relatives here last week. Rose, Priscilla and Elmer Otterbein visited with the Lantz family last Sunday. Hilda, William and Carl Lantz returned with them to the Y. P. A. in the evening.

On the evening of February 1, Mrs. Egger and Mrs. Pflieger will celebrate their birthdays at the Pflieger home.

A large number of people gathered at Mr. and Mrs. Val Gerig for the Y. P. A. business and social meeting. Of special interest was the singing of the two little Klesen girls and the quartet sung by Mr. and Mrs. George Klesen and Mr. and Mrs. Cernik.

A fraternal club called the Ku Klux Klan has been organized by the younger set of Fruitland society. Some big things have been planned already and social activities will no doubt be lived.

While reports of many schools being closed or greatly depleted by the influenza, so far at Fruitland only one pupil has been sick for this reason.

Quite a number of young people from the Pratum neighborhood attended Y. P. A. at Fruitland. An instrumental piece on the violin by Frank Egger accompanied by Rose Otterbein on the organ was nicely rendered. Frank is getting along fine as a musician and if improvement continues he will be in big demand at our various social gatherings.

Loss of Life Less Than Reported But No Estimate of Damage Can Be Made

San Diego, Cal., Feb. 1.—San Diego county today is taking stock of the loss sustained by the floods which have swept several fertile valleys and damaged roads and railroads to the extent of thousands of dollars.

Anything like an approximate estimate of damage will be impossible for days, but with clear skies again, relief work is being rushed under direction of the chamber of commerce, aided by citizens, soldiers and sailors.

Today $23,465.19 in cash had been donated, besides thousands of dollars worth of clothing and food which were distributed to the sufferers and their families who lost their all in the flood.

Officers of outside aid were received during the day, but the committee decided that, for the present at least, local people would care for the work.

Sylvester Weaver, president of the Los Angeles Rotary club, wired an offer of aid in behalf of that organization, but it was declined.

Four looters, all Americans, have been captured by marines and blue-jackets patrolling the Otay valley, devastated as a result of the breaking of the Lower Otay dam. A party of Mexicans on horseback, who had invaded the district, fled across the border at the approach of the troops. Food, clothing and medical supplies in large quantities were distributed by the latter.

It is estimated that it will be three weeks before the Santa Fe railroad will be able to resume operation. A large force of men is working on the washed out bridges and track north of here, and another body is working from San Juan to southward.

Many back country points yesterday received the first mail in a week.

The farther rescue parties push their investigation, the fewer number of fatalities are reported. Today it is estimated that eleven have lost their lives. Reports of numerous other fatalities has been impossible to confirm and they are not generally credited.

Auto Parties Marooned

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 31.—There are no less than 50 automobile parties marooned between this city and San Diego today. As they have no way of making their whereabouts known, the telephone wires being down, the automobile club is sending scout cars to rescue the desolate motorists, some of whom have been "ship wrecked" since last Friday.

Repairing Damages

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 1.—Once more the work of repairing flood damage is in full swing today, with temporary bridges being thrown across many gaps and highways cleared of debris.

Scores of men are laboring night and day on the railroads, and normal train movements will probably be established during the week.

Too Young for Prison, Too Old for Reform School

Oakland, Cal., Feb. 1.—Ward Beasley, pronounced by the police as too bad for the juvenile court, and by a judge as too young to be sent to San Quentin, will be held until he is 18 years old, March 31. Then the prison sentence imposed today by Judge Ogden when the boy was found guilty of forgery, will be carried out.

Beasley would have been sent to Preston reform school but the authorities there refused to take him, saying his conduct during a previous term made it impossible to control him.

He was convicted of having forged a check for $50. It was alleged that he deserted from the army, and stole a uniform in which he impersonated an officer.

NUDE GIRL IS SOLD TO HIGHEST BIDDER

Marie Klein, Pretty 18-Year-Old Girl, Tells Story of Horrible Treatment

New York, Feb. 1.—Rescued from weeks of terrible slavery, pretty 18-year-old Marie Klein, daughter of Pastor Charles Klein of the Bethany Reformed church, told today how she had been kidnapped, and auctioned, made to a gang of lustful brutes.

Miriam since December 16, she had been held in an Italian colony at Williamsburg; her story of orgies there shocked even hardened police authorities.

Jimmy Naples dragged me from our doorway at the afternoon of December 16," she said. "He showed me a revolver and threatened to kill me if I tried to escape. Then he forced me to take $400 worth of jewelry and $35 in cash from my parents, after which he drove me to a house in the Italian colony at Williamsburg, locked me in a room and took away my clothes.

"At a Christmas ball of the colonists I was sold. Naples had been the door-keeper of my room, and he admitted many men. The dance was breaking up and it was getting toward dawn. I was terribly ill.

"Naples called the men back and said I would be auctioned off. Then they brought me down nude, but I was too ill to know what was going on. Then they placed me on a stage and held me there while the brutes bid.

"I was delirious, but I could faintly hear them—$25, $30, $32, $33, and then by dollar and fifty cent increases until I was sold to some one for $55. I do not know who bought me, for I became unconscious, and woke up in the cottage where the detectives found me."

Naples, the alleged abductor, is under arrest, but he was taken only after a struggle in which detectives beat him nearly unconscious to subdue him.

According to authorities, he had played the part of friend to the girl, once helping her when hoodlums attacked her as she was on her way home from organ practice at the church.

Thereafter, he professed to be interested in the child and often he called at the Klein home, saying he would "at ways defend her."

After the girl disappeared, it is charged, terrorized her parents by threats to cut out their hearts if they sought to connect him with the case.

PROHIBITION'S SHOWING

Portland, Or., Feb. 1.—Police court records for the month of January today indicate that prohibition has a pacific effect on domestic life.

Not a single family row is reported on municipal court records for last month. The decrease in drunkenness as compared with January last year is 80 per cent. Crime of all sorts was cut just one third.
