SOCIETY

ALINE THOMPSON

From San Francisco to Salem the disposition of the leisure world seems to be to confine the larger affairs of the winter to the benefit entertainments. All manner of charity affairs have been given from teas, bazaars, Kensingtons, to dances, bringing together every element of society in a spirit of altruism which makes the gayety only a side product.

Tonight and Friday night is to be dedicated to the support of the destitute families. The Fortune Hunter will be given at the Grand theatre under the auspices of the Social Service Center of the Salem Commercial club.

The supply of seats as well as the boxes are quite exhausted and the financial results will no doubt exceed the expectation of even the most optimistic of the committee members.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Marvin will be hosts Thursday evening for a charming five hundred party.

The card tables will be circled by the members of a "500" club and several additional guests.

The ladies of the home missionary society held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. V. Avison on State street.

Mrs. Asahel Bush went to Portland this morning for the day.

Miss Madie Withycombe, daughter of Governor and Mrs. James Withycombe, will arrive from Corvallis to-narrow, to be the guest of her parents for the performance of "The Fortune Hunter." Governor and Mrs. Withycombe will occupy a box with Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer Putnam.

In the society department of the San Francisco Examiner, the following appeared in the de Gogorza concert.

Scores of well known society men and women greeted Emilio de Gogorza yesterday at the Columbia. A fashionable audience crowded the theatre. The distinguished de Gogorza has become as popular now with music lovers and students as he has always been with society, and his art seems more finished and wonderful than ever. The audience gave him continued applause, sometimes an ecstasy of it, after some of the more favorite numbers.

This superb artist will appear in Salem, Monday night, and it is evident from the large number of reservations and sale of seats that the fashionable world will also through the Grand for his concert here. Parties of society men and women will also occupy the boxes.

Mrs. E. H. Prothero entertained the "Jolly Neighbors Club" on Wednesday afternoon at her home on the Jefferson road.

During the afternoon the guests enjoyed their sewing, followed by a dainty collation.

Those present were: Mrs. David Reese, Mrs. J. C. Crothers, Mrs. William Boone, Mrs. John Fisher, Mrs. N.

Miller McGilchrist as Larry Miller in "The Fortune Hunter" tonight.

Wilson Howard, who plays "Hi," the oldest inhabitant, in "The Fortune Hunter" tonight.

Larry Hofer, who plays Pete Willing in "The Fortune Hunter" tonight.

H. Uter Mrs. Walter Hatch, Mrs. Carrie Grubbenhorst, Miss McCleery Miss Martha Gannjobst.

Monday evening a jolly crowd of college girls entertained at a chafing dish party, in honor of Mrs. E. C. Emmell, of Sherwood, at their club house on Thirteenth street.

Early in the evening the guests enjoyed a fancy dress party.

Miss Florence Page presided over the Walsh benefit and the following Dew Drop members were present:

Miss Ruth Spoozy, Miss Vesta Mulligan, Miss Carolyn Sterling, Miss Florence Page, Miss Aetna Emmell, Miss Blanche Baker.

The invited guests were: Mrs. Emmell, Mrs. Ida Garrett, Miss Helen Goltz, Miss Vera Witham, Miss Genevieve Avison, Miss Rosamond Gilbert and Miss Carrie Cooksey.

Tuesday evening Dr. and Mrs. Frank Chase entertained about seventy-five members of the Methodist church choir, at the Willamette college of music. The rooms were tastefully adorned with greenery. Music was the chief diversion, after which a taffy pull was enjoyed. Mrs. Chase was assisted in the serving by Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle.

The ladies missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the church parlors on Friday afternoon at two thirty o'clock.

A number of prominent Albany people will attend the de Gogorza concert at the Grand Monday night. Mrs. Anna Maschal, one of Albany's leading music teachers, will also attend the concert, accompanied by a class of vocal pupils.

Big Girl Show Is Coming

Wally Brooks and His Sunshine Flock on Empress Bill Next Sunday

Another big girl show is headed towards the Grand next Sunday. When a musical comedy can boast of a clever comedian and a boy of charming and nifty girls, that offering is bound to be a hit, whether it is a two or three act affair. The most pretentious offering on the list of new acts from the point of stage inventiveness and numbers in the presenting company will be the musical comedy production furnished by Wally Brooks and his sunshine girls.

The girls are attractive and can sing and dance exceedingly well. Pretty costumes and elaborate scenic and electrical effects also add much to make this offering a most pleasing affair.

Jacob's trained dogs will be a delightful offering for the children as well as the grownups. They perform many new and interesting stunts in a most remarkable manner.

The three Alvettas will offer a comedy acrobatic act and will introduce a new and skillful line of gymnastic feats that are sure to please.

George B. Alexander the great exclusive song writer, will appear in a monologue and singing act and will also introduce a novel surprise finish.

Last but not least, Carrol, Kenting and Fay will present a clever song attraction entitled "At Crow's Nest In" in which two appear in robe characterizations and the other in a city fellow part. Taking the bill as a whole it is probably the best bill that has yet appeared in Salem.

PROGRAM OF THE FORTUNE HUNTER AT GRAND TONIGHT

The curtain will rise on the first act of "The Fortune Hunter" promptly at 8:15. Everything is ready. The cast has had its final rehearsal, and Director Mott has pronounced it prepared to put over the best amateur performance ever given in Salem. The ticket sellers at the box office have been handing out the pasteborder in a continuous stream since the seat sale opened yesterday, and all indications point to a jammed house both tonight and tomorrow night.

Everybody is expecting to have the time of their lives at "The Fortune Hunter" this evening. All the boxes have been reserved and the social service center has planned several side attractions between acts. Ex-Mayor Rodgers will make one of his characteristic speeches from the stage the musicians' local will bring their full orchestra and will render a special inter-act program, and while they are doing this King Bing Deckard, Doc Epley and a selected crew of Cherrians will sell peanuts for charity.

Following are the local stars who will shine at the Grand tonight, and the parts they will play in "The Fortune Hunter":

- Nathaniel Duncan, the fortune hunter
- Henry Kellogg, a rising young financier
- George Burnham, a promoter
- Max O. Buren, a friend of Kellogg's
- Lawrence Miller, a Wall street young man
- Miller McGilchrist, a millionaire's son
- Robbins, Kellogg's butler
- Sam Graham, the village druggist
- Rev. R. F. Fischer, the village banker
- Dr. W. S. Mott, the physician's son
- Tracy Tanner, the liveryman's son
- Carl Gabrielson, the bank clerk
- Charles Reynolds, the banker's daughter
- Herman Meiring, the sheriff
- Lawrence Hofer, the tailor
- Cooke Patton, the old inhabitant
- Wilson Howard, the druggist's daughter
- Miss Aline Thompson, the banker's daughter
- Miss Hazel Erixon, the banker's daughter
- Miss Marjory Marvin, the banker's daughter
- Miss Ida Simmons, the banker's daughter
- Don't miss "The Fortune Hunter" on any account. If you haven't yet reserved your seats you should do so this morning. The prices are 25c, 50c and 75c — no more; and the money you spend for your ticket will be used for charity. The gallery doors will open at 7:30. There will probably be a big rush for the bleachers and the early birds will get the worms.

BAPTIZED UNDER DIFFICULTY

Redlands, Cal., Feb. 3.—While Rev. Francisco Lorente of the Honaki Street Mission was baptizing eight converts by immersing them in the Santa Ana river the flood waters swept the entire party away, and they were rescued with difficulty, it was learned today.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

The divorce case of Ross A. Lucas vs. Rebecca B. Lucas was heard yesterday in department No. 2 of the circuit court. There were no property rights involved and the defendant was allowed to resume her former name of Rebecca B. Anderson.

A marriage license was issued at the office of the county clerk yesterday afternoon to Georg Nueck, a Salem laborer, and Ethel Barnes, also of this city.

The demurrer to the indictment of Adam J. Mishler, charged with misappropriation of funds, was sustained in a ruling by Judge Kelly yesterday, and an order issued remitting the matter to the grand jury. Mishler is involved in a case arising from his incumbency as guardian of the Miller estate at Aurora. He was arrested in Reno and returned to this city for trial. His case is now postponed until the March term of the circuit court.

An order was issued by Judge Gallo way today foreclosing the tax lien of J. L. Cain against C. M. Smith and others. The property consists of lot 1, block 1, Smith's addition to Jefferson. The amount was $52.51 with $7.50 costs.

An order confirming sale was issued by Judge Gallo way in the matter of the Horticultural Fire Relief of Oregon. Receiver Harvey Wells sold lots 7 and 8, block 12, Gross addition to Eugene, to C. L. Henderson and Clara Henderson for $850.

The case of the state against Claud O. Ross, charged with criminal assault upon the person of Miss Ada L. Sullivan at Mill City in 1913, went to the jury at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Ross, who is a convict at the state pen, was brought down from that institution to be present at the trial, but the defense relied mainly upon cross examination of the state's witnesses for their side of the case. Miss Sullivan testified for the state late yesterday afternoon and told a simple story of how she had been overpowered by Ross after they had been engaged to be married for about three months. She submitted to his desires on one other occasion. She carried her baby on her arm to the witness stand and held the child during her examination. The taking of testimony for the state continued this forenoon. Ross was tried once before on this charge but the jury disagreed.

The Matthew will case went out on a motion for non-suit made by the defendant, Stephen Alfred Matthew, late yesterday afternoon. Judge Kelly ruled that the case should have come up in the county court before Judge Bushby.

The case of the state against G. H. Tracy, charged with selling a short cord of wood, will be called in department No. 1 of the circuit court tomorrow morning. This is the first prosecution on this charge that has ever been brought in this county.

Pathe Moving Pictures Will Be Exhibited at Congregational Church

Moving pictures from the regular Pathe service will constitute part of the regular Sunday evening services of the First Congregational church, beginning next Sunday evening. A three reel Pathe of "Joseph and His Brethren" will be shown.

The First Congregational is the first church in Oregon to use a standard moving picture reel as part of its regular Sunday evening services. A new Pathe reel will be shown each Sunday evening.

The services will open with the regular devotional exercises, with prayer, scriptural reading and the singing of

Makes Stubborn Coughs Vanish in a Hurry

Surprisingly Good Cough Syrup Easily and Cheaply Made at Home

If some one in your family has an obstinate cough or a bad throat and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. The total cost is about 25 cents, and gives you a full pint—a family supply—of a most effective remedy, at a saving of 83. A day's use will usually overcome a hard cough. Easily prepared in 5 minutes—full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and has a pleasant taste. Children like it.

It's really remarkable how promptly and easily it loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough and breaks the inflamed membranes in a painful cough. It also stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. A splendid remedy for bronchitis, winter coughs, bronchial asthma and whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guaiaicol, which is so healing to the membranes.

Avoid disappointment by asking your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex," and do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction goes with this preparation or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

hymns and an anthem by the choir. The pastor, the Rev. James Elvin will deliver a 15 minutes address on the subject to be shown on the screen, the talk Sunday evening next being on "Joseph and His Brethren." After the pastor's talk, the three reel Pathe pictures will be shown.

The operating machine purchased by the church is one of the standard Powers' manufacture, and equal in every respect to the best in use. Screens have been specially prepared for use in the church. From now on, films will be used at each Sunday night service to assist in maintaining an interest in the evening services. During the past winter, stereopticon views were shown in connection with the sermon, but the installing of a moving picture apparatus is one step in advance.

The films will show educational, biographical, patriotic, moral and religious subjects. A regular fire-proof operating room has been constructed in the gallery. It is entirely lined with asbestos, and then covered with galvanized iron. Care has been taken to observe in every particular the requirements of the Insurance Underwriters' association. Mem Pearce, assisted by Roy Duncan, will be in charge of the operating.

The Rev. James Elvin and the officials of the church feel they are taking an advance step, one that is sure to come, that of entertaining the members of the church and especially the girls and boys. They have spared no expense in procuring the best machine on the market and the standard Pathe reels. It is needless to say that there will be no admission charge. The public is invited and especially the young people of the city.

The installing of moving pictures in churches as a means of keeping together the young folks of the church has been discussed in various church publications, and it is the opinion of the pastor as well as of the officials of the church that they are pioneers in this form of church service, which will include all the devotional exercises of the regular Sunday night services.

Anyhow, the citizens of Salem will have the opportunity Sunday evening of seeing the first moving pictures ever shown in the state as a part of the regular church services.
