BASEBALL MAGNATES SWAPPING PLAYERS

National League Leaders Confer Absolute Power On President Tener

New York, Feb. 9.—The meetings of the executive committee and the board of directors having been brought to a close, the magnates and managers of the national league swarmed through Penecek Alley, in the Waldorf today swapping players.

Garry Herrmann, John A. Britton, Charley Ebbetts and Charles Weeghman were the most conspicuous figures in the trading negotiations in progress today. All of these magnates are out to strengthen their teams to the utmost for the coming struggle of the rejuvenated league. Weeghman, who, with Perry D. Houghton, of Boston, is one of the newest members of the National league, entered into the bidding for players with the zest which made his reputation with the late lamented Federal league such a success.

Tonight the baseball men will gather at the annual banquet of the league and discuss the rosy outlook during the coming season. The affair is in celebration of the fortieth anniversary of the founding of the league.

Before concluding their work the directors passed a resolution giving President Tener the right to decide finally all league matters in dispute and depriving owners of the right to appeal from such decisions. This gives Tener power as arbitrary as that enjoyed by President Ban Johnson, of the American league and makes the National league president a czar in his own ballpark.

Willard and Moran Will Sign Articles

New York, Feb. 9.—New and final articles for the Jess Willard-Frank Moran bout here next month will be signed today by managers of the two boxers. They will provide that the fight is to take place at Madison Square Garden on March 8, instead of March 17, the date originally set.

Mauritius Tex Rickard, promoter of the battle, was busy today arranging final details of the match. He proposes to build several tiers of seats in the garden in order to bring the capacity of the building up to 13,000 persons.

It has been announced that the cheapest seat in the house will cost $3 and the best $60. It is estimated that Rickard will have to take in an average of more than $8 a seat merely to break even.

ARTICLES ARE SIGNED.

New York, Feb. 9.—Articles for the richest ten round fight in the history of the prize ring were signed here this afternoon when Frank Moran and Jess Willard closed their negotiations. They will meet here March 8.

Willard is guaranteed $40,000, besides a bonus of $5,250 expenses, while Moran receives $22,500.

Present at the closing of the negotiations were Tex Rickard, Tom Jones, Jack Curley, Promoter McCracken, the Dargan, Bob Vernon, Frank Moran, Willie Lewis, movie men and reporters.

Three Oregon Players May Be Professionals

Eugene, Or., Feb. 9.—The future of the University of Oregon track team hung in the balance today because of charges of professionalism preferred against Chester Fee, Glen Wheeler and Glen Dudley. Around these three, Trainer Bill Hayward had built his hopes for a good track team this season.

Fee, Wheeler and Dudley played recently in a game of basketball with Lyle and Carson Bigbee, the University of Oregon brothers who have signed with the Portland Beavers for 1916.

Hayward professes to believe that the Pacific Northwest Athletic association will not bar the three athletes because of their escapade in joining the University of Oregon "outlaw" basketball team.

Fee was winner of the deathlon championship at the Panama-Pacific exposition last year. Wheeler was elected captain of the 1916 Oregon basketball team and Dudley is a baseball player.

DILLON IS WINNER.

New York, Feb. 9.—Battling Levinsky was outclassed when he met Jack Dillon of Indianapolis in a 10-round bout here last night, according to the verdict of fight fans today. Levinsky had a slight advantage in weight.

A unique program of moving pictures and vaudeville will be given by the Ching Clinic Camp Fire Girls of this city of which Mrs. Oscar B. Gingrich is guardian in the Grand theatre Tuesday, February 15, both in a matinee and evening entertainment. The object of the entertainment will be largely for educational purposes and while a small admission of 10 cents will be charged for defraying expenses it is simply taxation of those in charge of the program to bring to the people of Salem and particularly those interested in the Camp Fire movement for girls the object and scope of the work. In addition several vaudeville numbers, a comedy and Pathe picture, the feature of the evening will be the moving picture film which has been obtained from the Camp Fire outfitting company of New York putting forth some of the activities of the Camp Fire Girls throughout the country in their home life, school life, camp life, etc. Some very good pictures have been obtained of the girls in camp in New York state showing them boating, coasting, fishing and swimming, etc. T. G. Bligh, manager of the Grand theatre, is working with Mrs. Gingrich and her group of girls to perfect the plans and program for next Tuesday.

INVESTIGATING COLLISION

San Francisco, Feb. 9.—Investigation of the crash between the liner Harvard and the steam schooner Excelsior in the bay Monday night proceeded today. The Excelsior wreck has been removed from the path of navigation.

CHESS AND CHECKER CLUB PLAYERS WON

Commercial Club Champions Were Worsted In Tourney Last Night

The Salem Chess and Checker club rather out-played the old stand-bys of the commercial club last evening in the games played at the commercial club rooms. The final score stood, in checkers four and one half games to the credit of the commercial club, to nineteen and one half for the Chess and Checker club. The final chess score was four and one half for the commercial club to five and one half points for the chess and checker club.

Two games of chess were played both games with the same opponents. Jonathan Bourne and E. Miller broke even, with one game each. C. G. Givens had little the best of it with James Walton, as Givens had one game to his credit and the other game a draw.

P. E. Plant for the chess club won two games from C. L. Dick, one of the commercial club veterans. But Judge Ryan, another expert of the commercial club, averaged things up to some extent by taking two games from H. H. Savage of the chess club.

Dr. W. H. Byrd, a veteran of many games in the commercial club, broke even with Joseph N. Smith, each winning a game.

In checkers, four games were played. W. S. Drager playing for the commercial club, opposed H. M. Ingalls, the games resulting in two games for Ingalls and two draws.

S. Z. Culver, for the commercial club, played one of the chess and checker club's champions, I. Greenbaum, the game resulting in three for Greenbaum and one draw.

Carlis (Tracy) for the commercial club had hard luck in his game with H. H. Hill, as Mr. Hill won all four of the games.

L. Westcott, for the commercial club, played another of the chess and checker club champions, W. L. Bryant, Bryant won two games, and two draws were played.

W. T. Stolz showed poor form with Dave Drager, as Mr. Drager walked away with three of the games, allowing one draw.

W. S. Drager for the commercial club permitted H. G. Ingles of the checker club to win two games and break even as the other two.

The next contest will be played Tuesday evening, February 15, at the chess and checker club rooms, with the same players pitted against each other.

Spencer Hardware Store Entered by Burglars

The Spencer Hardware store at 474 State street was entered by burglars last night and $7 in cash taken from the cash register. A number of pocket knives, some razors and three dollar watches were also carried away by the robbers. Entrance was made by prying up a window at the rear of the store and after looting the establishment the thieves made their escape through the same window.

Makes Your Stuffed, Germ-laden, Catarrhal Head Clear as a Bell

When you wake in the morning plagued with the tortures of head colds and catarrh, head, nose and throat stopped up, air passages clogged with obnoxious catarrhal discharges that have collected during the night and you can hardly breathe—just put a little Hyomei Pocket Inhaler charged with the pleasant healing oil of Hyomei through your lips. Hold it there while breathing and breathe the medicated, antiseptic germ killing air deep into your nose, throat and lungs with every breath you draw.

By the time you are dressed your head will be clear as a bell, you will breathe with ease and comfort, eat your breakfast with a relish and go about your day's work with a clear brain and steady eye.

This clean smelling, germ destroying air of Hyomei penetrates deep down into every fold and crevice of the membranous linings of your nose, throat and lungs where no liquid spray could possibly get and absolutely kills and drives out of your system every germ it finds there, heals the inflamed swollen tissues and after the very first trial you notice a wonderful improvement. A few weeks use and every catarrhal germ is killed and driven out of your system.

Druggists everywhere think so well of Hyomei that they agree to give you a guarantee with every complete inhaler set you purchase that if it does not satisfy they will gladly return every cent you paid for it, but if using for the first time be sure to ask for the complete Hyomei Pocket Inhaler outfit as the smaller package does not contain the inhaler. Daniel J. Fry or most any other reliable druggist will gladly supply you on request.

dividual grower of the expenses of storage and insurance. This would also reduce the selling expense, where it was necessary this year to cover the hop fire growing territory with hop buyers and salesmen, all of which reduce the profits of the grower. By having the entire hop crop of the association collected at convenient assembling points the purchaser could buy 500 bales or 5,000 bales of any grade or quality without charging livery hire while he was looking over a dozen different crops and making selections.

Oregon Hops Are Superior.

In the resolution favoring national legislation in the interests of the American grower the preamble states that international fairs and exhibitions have demonstrated the fact that Oregon hops are superior to European hops and also to the hops in other sections of the United States. In spite of this, however, hops are imported and higher prices are paid than for Oregon hops. This, says the resolution, is due to the racial prejudice and commercial ties of the brewers who insist upon blending imported hops with Oregon hops for their brew. Any law in favor of the American grower would increase the acreage in this country and raise the prices of American hops without reducing the quality of the product of the beer and it was resolved that the Oregon senators and representatives be requested to work for the passage of laws requiring foreign grown hops imported to this country to bear stamps naming the country and province in which they were grown with the certificate of the American consulate certifying the stamping.

It was decided to organize local hop growers' associations in the various districts to further the interests of the association as a whole and to work with the central organization for the furtherance of the industry.

inquiry, "Did you plant the squash seed is enclosed?" No one has called although Zulle expects company.

The quarterly also includes a letter of historical value, written by Major Barnhart in 1852, from Acapulco, Mexico. He was unfavorably impressed with the west coast of Mexico and was anxious to be on his way to the "States."

A historical account of "Loju" is also found in the quarterly, giving a detailed description of the difficulties experienced by Paul Schmidt before he obtained a loganberry juice that would remain clear. The Northwest Fruit Products company also had trouble in securing a satisfactory name for their juice, one that would awaken curiosity as well as being a catch word for advertising purposes.

The frontispiece is a picture of a man that was well known to many of the older Salemites, that of A. T. Yeaton.
