

There Are Pianos On Our Floor That Are Marked Below Actual Cost to the Valley Music House.

When you can actually buy for less than wholesale, you should take advantage of the opportunity. The piano we offer for $125 is worth twice this price...

With every player-piano I include $25 worth of free music and with every piano I include a stool and the piano is tuned.

I will not order duplicates as these prices are only on the pianos now here. Store open evenings.

J. C. GALLAGHER

General Agent for Eilers Music House and the manufacturers, 264 Commercial St.

We carry the largest and most complete stock of

Bicycle Tires

in the city. And at lower prices than you are asked to pay elsewhere.

Red Inner Tubes

You run no risk for every tire and tube is

GUARANTEED

Scott & Scott

252 State Street

25 and 40 Watt Guaranteed Electric Globes

25 cents each

WM. GALES DORF

The Store of Housewares

135 N. Liberty Street.

Phone 67

Scott & Bynon's Bargains

25 acres good pasture land with spring, 2 1/2 miles from Fair Grounds, at $900 terms. 40 acres good level land, all cleared, close to school, near Fair Grounds, at $125.

Wife of Forty Years Claims Another Has Won Husband's Love

Chehalis, Wash., Feb. 12.—Mrs. Emma Young and husband, Ed Young, well known farmers living three miles north-west of Chehalis on the west side of the river, are the defendants in a $15,000 damage suit, papers in which were served yesterday.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

An inventory and appraisement filed today in the estate of Mary A. Ramp, deceased, estimates the total property value at $84,500.45.

Since today is a legal holiday there was no session held in either department of the circuit court today.

The date of the hearing of the final account of Ole Halverson, administrator of the estate of Lulu Halverson, deceased, has been set by Judge Bushey for March 20 at 10 a. m. at the county court house.

Sheriff Each today received information from Multnomah county that one Sam Berry, aged 20, five feet six inches tall and weighing 140 pounds, is badly wanted in Portland on a charge of robbing some Japanese.

Anna Serina Rucker today petitioned the county court to be appointed guardian of her son, Alfred Floyd Rucker, aged 10 years and two months.

An answer was filed today in the circuit court by Judge Bushey and Mrs. E. M. Hopkins in the damage suit brought against them by Ina Larson of Quincy, who was until recently an inmate of the Girls' Industrial school.

The answer is set forth the petition filed by Thomas Larson, the father of the girl in which he alleged that she was incorrigible and delinquent and that she would not live with her parents but insisted upon staying away from home with another family.

Local Modern Woodmen Hold Social Meeting

Last Thursday night was the occasion of the monthly social meeting of the Modern Woodmen of America in their lodge hall in McCormack building.

Reading, A. H. Dunn, Violin selection, Ross Harris. Piano solo, Ruth Webster.

MT. ANGEL ITEMS

E. Olivetti was in Silvertown Saturday. Miss Stetz died Thursday night and was buried at Garviss Saturday.

ARE ALL ROUNDED UP

San Francisco, Feb. 12.—With German Consul Bopp and many others already listed as accepting service in bomb and neutrality conspiracy indictments, federal authorities predicted today virtually all will be rounded up before night.

TOWNE SAID TO HAVE CONFESSED

George W. Towne, arrested in Silvertown, Ore., on an arson charge brought by the authorities in Oakland, Cal., Wednesday confessed to Deputy District Attorney Robinson to have set fires in the California city.

Y. M. C. A. Basketball Team Prepares for Indians

With about a half hour work-out in the gymnasium last night the Y. M. C. A. team put in its final practice for the game tonight with the Chemawa team, which will be played in the Association gymnasium at 8:45.

Dr. R. T. McIntire, a former Willamette University player, and A. E. Sweeney, a former Washington University player, will be seen at forward positions for the Association. Baker will hold down the position of center, while Ben Williams and Nick Brill will fill the guard positions.

As a preliminary game to the main event the Intermediate team of the Association will play the Silverton High School Freshmen at 8:00 o'clock.

Stayton News

Frank McDonald will move to his ranch near Mehama as soon as the weather will permit.—Solo Tribune.

Mrs. Sarah Cook, wife of H. M. Cook, died Saturday at her home near Marion, age 63 years. The burial was at Jefferson.

Joe Spaniol last week sold a three-horse Fairbanks-Morse gas engine to John Steinhilber, northeast of Sublimity.

The Kingston stage tipped over Saturday night, by running off the grade near Kingston in the dark. No damage, except to the back top.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beauchamp, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Jones and Ed Blakely visited Salem yesterday in C. A.'s new Maxwell. He is well pleased with the car.

U. Whitney about recovered from the grip, but was taken ill again last week. He is now considerably improved. Mr. and Mrs. Sihavy have been with him during his illness.

Ed Young, who started last Wednesday for Idaho, was obliged to turn back at Salem on account of bad railroad service. He expects to start again tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kerber entertained at supper last night Mr. and Mrs. E. Thoma and family, Dan Doll and wife, Marie Henkel, Mary Frank and Frank Kerber.

C. A. Beauchamp arrived from Portland Thursday with a 1916 Maxwell touring car. He came through alone, coming from Salem via the Waldo Hills. He says he found plenty of mud, but the car didn't seem to mind it.

C. E. Taylor tells us that if the weather remains sufficiently fair, he will soon have his new dynamo on a permanent foundation. If poor weather intervenes he will put it in use, but on a temporary foundation.

Miss Anna Mullen, who left in October of Pipestone, Minn., on account of the illness of a brother, returned Wednesday and has resumed her position as stenographer for S. H. Heltzel.

Howard Ternet, of West Stayton, who recently broke his collar bone, fell on the ice Friday last and broke the bone again in the place of the former fracture. Dr. Beauchamp was called and put it in repair.

The Santiam river was quite high Monday, and Stayton was cut off from Lin county most of the day. The mail was taken to Kingston in the morning but the afternoon trip could not be made.

Mrs. Jos. Hamman went to Sheridan last week, called by the illness of her mother, Mrs. N. F. Dean. She returned home Sunday evening, leaving the baby apparently better. On Monday morning Mrs. Hamman received a telegram stating that her mother had passed away at 7 a. m. She was about 74 years of age.—Standard.

WILSON D. BURCK DIES

Wilson D. Burck died Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock, of pneumonia, having been sick since Friday, January 28. Wilson had made his home for several months past with his brother-in-law, Dan Hershberger, and working at the feed mill since coming to Hubbard from Albany. Up until Tuesday night his condition had not shown serious conditions, but when the fever left him he was too weak to rally. He was conscious until a short time before he passed on and assured his mother and other relatives that he was reconciled to go. He was baptized a member of the Mennonite church several years ago. He was but 16 years, six months and 21 days old.—Hubbard Enterprise.

DEATH OF JACOB STROHAKER

Jacob Strohaker died at his home three miles northwest of this city last Friday. Mr. Strohaker was born in Germany, April 27, 1869. When he was 12 years old the family came to the United States and settled near Emporia, Kansas, August 1, 1881, where they made their home for three years.

OREGON LEADS WAY IN SOLVING CHURCH PROBLEM

Oregon appears to be leading the way in solving a few of the many church problems, Salem claims the first church in the state to use moving pictures as a means of interesting people in the evening services. Beginning Sunday, February 6, the First Congregational church of this city, began a series of Sunday evening entertainments with moving pictures of standard grade and with the Pathe company service.

ERTNSON-PALMER MARRIAGE.

Miss Burnett Palmer and Mr. J. D. Ertson of Monitor, Oregon, were married Tuesday evening, January 25, 1916, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Palmer. Rev. T. L. Thumler of Hubbard officiated.

COURT MARTIAL TRYING THEM FOR LOSING BOOK

San Francisco, Feb. 11.—On a battleship in the bay, court-martial proceedings started today against Lieutenant H. A. Jones and Ensign R. D. Kirkpatrick, because of the loss of a naval code book from the destroyer Hull last fall.

House Cleaning Suggestions

This kind of weather brings to us the realization that house cleaning time is due and will be on us in short notice. Our store can and will always aid in house cleaning events—will help you decide the color and kinds of wall papers, draperies, rugs, curtains, in fact everything that will beautify the Home and lighten the Household duties.

Carpet Sweepers, both hand and electric Sweepers as shown in cut, $7.50 to $9

O-CEDAR MOPS

Round as shown in cut $1 to $1.50

Triangler 75c to $1.25

All kinds of FLOOR COVERINGS, Linoleums in both Prints and Inlaid—Prices lower than others as we bought before the raise in prices.

BAKSVAHER DUST PAN

WE HAVE THE LARGEST LINE OF WILTON RUGS AND CARPETS IN SALEM AND INVITE YOUR INSPECTION AT ANY TIME.

WITH EVERY PURCHASE AT OUR STORE WE WILL GIVE YOU FREE ONE OF OUR 20TH CENTURY DUST PANS AS SHOWN IN CUTS.

VISIT OUR STORE

BUY IF SUITED COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHINGS

Oregon Clayworkers In Annual Session at Albany Thursday

Albany, Ore., Feb. 10.—The second annual convention of the Oregon Clayworkers' association began here Wednesday afternoon. Owing to delays on railroads delegates were slow in coming and only a few of the 30 expected were present at the opening session.

Chinese Highbinders Fight and Then Feast

San Francisco, Feb. 12.—Chinese tong men gathered today in the Six Companies building here to patch up a peace. For bullets sang last night here, at Stockton and San Jose in a battle of Suesy Ongs and Suesy Kings, killing one Chinese here, and one at Stockton, in addition to wounding a Chinese and two white men here.

OREGON LEADS WAY IN SOLVING CHURCH PROBLEM

At Corvallis this afternoon four addresses were given by O. A. C. instructors: Prof. Parks, on the clay industry in Oregon; Prof. Williams, on the burning of clay wares; Prof. Graf, on the strength of clay products and Prof. Powers on drainage problems.

WILL RESUME LOGGING SOON

The Willamette Valley Lumber company has announced that it will resume logging operations above Hill next week and it is expected that other business of the church.

A pastor from a consolidated church in Oklahoma, the Rev. H. B. Iler, was called to fill the position of pastor, at a salary of $800.

SUBMITTY NOTES

Mrs. Crump and daughter, Josephine Duchateau, of Stayton, visited at the Arnold Van Handel home Thursday of last week.

G. Q. Smith left on a business trip to Portland Saturday morning.

Lena Hermens and George Bell are included in this week's gripe list.

A telegram was received by Wm. Van Handel from his brother-in-law, Van Hermens of Del Rey, Cal., in which he states that he had the misfortune of losing his wife and all his personal property in the recent flood there. Latest reports state that he had about $1,000 of hogs to be marketed about May, that also perished.—Stayton Standard.

WEST STAYTON NEWS

T. Y. McClellan went to Salem Monday on business.

There seems to be some demand for wood in Salem and Portland and several car loads have been and will be shipped from West Stayton.

Joe Trammell sold his team to the Forette Bros, Monday.

The school children gave a very good program at the school house Friday evening. There was a good attendance of well pleased patrons of the school.

Mr. Dively lost a horse last week by distemper.

The B. B.'s met with Mrs. McClellan Wednesday.

Howard Ternet, who suffered a broken collar bone in the football game with Marion last fall, fell one evening last week and refractured it, and it is now doubtful whether it will knit again. If it does not it will be necessary to wire it together.

Albert Eoff came up from Geer Saturday evening to attend the dance.—Stayton Standard.

COURT MARTIAL TRYING THEM FOR LOSING BOOK

San Francisco, Feb. 11.—On a battleship in the bay, court-martial proceedings started today against Lieutenant H. A. Jones and Ensign R. D. Kirkpatrick, because of the loss of a naval code book from the destroyer Hull last fall.