Great Clubbing Offers by the Daily Capital Journal

WE Have made arrangements by which any subscriber to the CAPITAL JOURNAL, delivered by carrier in Salem, who will pay for the paper six months in advance, at the regular rate, $2.50, will receive without extra charge, the following publications for one year:

> The Northwest Farmstead, regular price, $1.00 Boy's Magazine, regular price, . . Today's Magazine, regular price . . Household Magazine, regular price, . Total of regular price, . . $2.75

REMEMBER these cost you nothing if you pay six months in advance for the DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL by carrier in Salem.

Or you may have the following combination on the same lines if you prefer it:

> Today's Magazine, one year, and McCall Magazine, one year, with two McCall patterns of your own selection, free.

Today's Magazine is a splendid publication---bigger and better than ever before.

McCall's Magazine is too well-known to need further introduction ---it is growing bigger and better all the time.

Mail Subscribers to the CAPITAL JOURNAL may secure either of these clubbing bargains by paying one year's subscription at the regular rate of $3.00 per year.

Fruitland Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service.) Saturday evening, the 5th, your rep-esentative and others from here at-caded the basket social at Bethel. In connection was a literary program, the principal feature of which was the comedy, "A Kentucky Belle," by thirteen Bethel folks. All did their parts well. Without disparaging any I will mention Mrs. G. O. Swales as Isabelle, showed fine histrionic talent for an annatour. And if anybody should want a good instation nigger get Geo. Matten.
