J. E. Morson's Reply Is Sent to Washington

At a meeting of the Desert Land Board yesterday it was decided to forward to the department of the interior the reply of J. E. Morson to the board relative to the extension of his contract on the La Pine project of the Deschutes Irrigation company. The government asked that Morson enter into a new contract with the state and Morson refused to enter into any new con-

WOMEN'S STOMACH TROUBLES

The Great Woman's Medicine Often Just What Is Needed.

We are so used to thinking of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a remedy exclusively for female ills that we are apt to overlook the fact that it is one of the best remedies for disorders of the stomach.

For stomach trouble of women it is especially adapted, as it works in complete harmony with the female organism, since it contains the extracts of the best tonic roots and herbs. It tones up the digestive system, and increases the appetite and strength. Here is what one woman writes showing what this medicine does:—

Newfield, N. Y.—"I am so pleased to say I can recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as an economical and beneficial remedy in most ailments pertaining to women. At least I found it so by only taking two bottles. I had indigestion in a bad form and I am now feeling in the best of health and owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BURR WILLIAMS, R. D. No. 29, Newfield, N. Y.

Many women suffer from that "all gone feeling," and "feel so faint," while doing their work. Ten chances to one their digestive system is all out of order. A tablespoonful of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after each meal should completely remedy this condition in a few days.

tract until he had been granted a three years' extension on his old one to cover time lost while the project was held up by litigation.

MILTON'S VILLAGE HAS PROUD WAR RECORD

(By United Press.)
Horton, Buckinghamshire, Eng., Feb. 2.—(By mail.)—This small English village where John Milton wrote L'Allegro, II Penseroso, a portion of Paradise Lost and other poems, has a proud war record. Practically every man eligible for war duty out of Horton's 700 population in khaki. Some of them have been killed. The women, children and old men are carrying on the village's chief occupation, market gardening, as usual. Milton left Horton in 1638, a year after the death of his mother. Her body lies under the southern aisle of the Parish church. The spot is marked by a flat blue stone which distinctly bears the date "April 3, 1637."

COURT HOUSE NEWS

A romance, begun, shattered, began once more and again to suffer the disrupting influence of the divorce court was outlined in a complaint filed in the circuit court today by Mabel Benjamin against Gilbert H. Benjamin. The couple were married in Salem, October 7, 1907, and divorced January 26, 1909. They remarried July 26 of the same year and the plaintiff alleges that cruel and inhuman treatment is the grounds for another divorce. She asks for the care and custody of their five-year-old child, Zoe Benjamin, and a one-third interest in some real property near Woodburn. She alleges that the defendant is possessed of personal property worth $11,400 and asks for $3,800 or a one-third interest in this as gross alimony. She also seeks to recover $100 as suit money and $100 for attorney's fees if the case goes by default or $200 if it is contested in the courts. E. P. Moreom is attorney for the plaintiff.

Grace L. Miles today filed a suit for divorce against Elnor S. Miles, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married in this county in 1911 and have one child, Harold E. Miles, aged four years, of whom the mother seeks the care and custody. Carey F. Martin is attorney for the plaintiff.

Salem Good Templars Elected Officers

The Independent Order of Good Templars met last evening at their hall, 207 South Church street, with an attendance larger perhaps than any of their former meetings, and a growing interest in the work of the order. A program was included in the evening's entertainment, followed by refreshments. Officers elected for the coming quarter were as follows:
P. C. T. Mrs. Edith Darr.
C. T. Miss Mildred McBride.
V. T. W. W. Berry.
Secretary, Miss Jessie Martin.
Assistant secretary, Miss A. Martin.
Financial secretary, Miss Theresa Olson.
Treasurer, Mrs. Etta Case.
Chaplain, Arthur Sasser.
Marshal, G. W. Berry.
Deputy marshal, Miss Dorothy Whipp.
Gurd, John Watson.
Sentinel, Miss Essie Lindley.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

Greenford, Middlesex, Eng., Feb. 16.—A letter received by Alderman Perkin from his son Lieutenant Perkin, states that on arriving at Gibraltar he was given a mount which seemed strangely familiar. Investigation proved that it was a horse off the Perkin farm which the young officer himself had broken in before the war.

RAILROADS GET READY

Portland, Or., Feb. 16.—Anticipating government ownership, railroads are attempting to place an abnormally high value on their property with a view to dumping it on the government, declared Clyde B. Aitchison, chairman of the Oregon railroad commission, upon his return today from the interstate commerce commission valuation hearing in Washington.

There is a difference of $5,000,000 between maximum estimates of the interstate commerce commission and the lowest figures furnished by the railroads as to the value of railroad property in the United States, Aitchison said.

LIQUOR ADDS WORRY

Subscribers to Papers Printed in the East

District Attorney E. R. Ringo is in receipt daily of numerous papers sent in by Marion county people who find liquor adds in the paper and desire to call his attention to the violation of the Oregon liquor laws. Mr. Ringo states that he is well aware of the fact that the publishing of liquor ads in papers distributed in Oregon is a violation of the law but it is a case of "What are you going to do about it?" The teeth of the Oregon laws do not bite beyond the borders of the state and only a fugitive from justice can be extradited for trial. The liquor men in other states and newspaper publishers who run ads are not fugitives from Oregon because they have never been here. They are publishing their papers under the laws of states where it is not unlawful to publish liquor ads and the Oregon law cannot reach them.

Of course, if they ever came to Oregon and once stopped within this state for a few minutes they could be arrested but it is likely that Oregon will be deprived of such tourists as send in liquor ads. Another curious fact of the sending in papers to the district attorney's office is that most of the senders pencil a few remarks on the margin of the paper to call the attention of the district attorney to the contents and this notation is in itself a violation of the law.

MARY I. MEYER TODAY FILED A SUIT IN THE CIRCUIT COURT AGAINST THE GERMANIA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Mary I. Meyer today filed a suit in the circuit court against the Germania Fire Insurance company. She alleged that she was the owner of lot 6 block 1, Macleay, and of the building on the property which was used as a store. She further alleges that the property was insured in the defendant company for the sum of $2,700 and was destroyed by fire January 27 with a loss of $1,000 for the building, $3,500 for the stock of the store and $300 for fixtures. She claims that she made claim for the insurance money upon proof of the loss and that the claim was refused and brings suit for $2,700 and the costs of the action. McNary & McNary are attorneys for the plaintiff.

WAR NEWS OF ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

Germany officially began her submarine warfare. The British steamer Dulwich was sunk without warning and the French steamer Ville de Ville, with 700 men on board, was sunk. The allies assumed the offensive on all fronts. The Kaiser saw 50,000 Russians captured in East Prussia.

Now if they will keep dirt, instead of words, flying at the auditorium site, the past will be forgiven.

laboratory in the city hall where analysts were determining the nature of the poison fed to Archbishop Mundelein and others, supposedly by Sub-Chief Jean Cronas of the University club. A corked bottle was found within a few inches of the flames, and when water was thrown on it, it exploded, emitting an unusual odor. Another bottle which had exploded was found in a room. In the bottom of it was a white powder, which chemists are now analyzing.

The police announced that Cronas and John Allegretti, the latter now a prisoner, were seen together Thursday in a saloon where Cronas changed a $100 bill.

Sentiment Against Germany.
Washington, Feb. 16.—Coincident with Germany's first steps toward final settlement of the Lusitania case, official sentiment here today turned sharply against acquiescence in the Teutonic plans to attack armed merchantmen without warning.

High officials intimated that the United States will uphold the allies and deny Germany's right to sink without warning vessels armed for defensive purposes.

EMBARASSING HAIRS CAN BE QUICKLY REMOVED

(Beauty Culture.)
Hairs can be easily banished from the skin by this quick, painless method: Mix into a stiff paste some powdered dextrose and water, spread on hairy surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, was the skin and it will be free from hair or blemish. Excepting in very stubborn growths, one application is sufficient. To avoid disappointment, but the dextrose in an original package.

decree was to be issued long before it was announced in Berlin or Vienna, and this decree is tending to delay informal negotiations between Bernstorff and Lansing.

All Off Again.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Germany's decree of warfare against armed merchantmen has entered into the Lusitania case, and settlement of the latter will not be reached until future submarine warfare conforms to international law.

This was made plain at the state department yesterday afternoon following the Lansing-Bernstorff conference in which the German envoy transmitted Berlin's reply to American suggestions for changes in the Lusitania settlement phraseology.
