Bethel News Notes

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Bethel, Or., Feb. 16.—The meeting of the Bethel Literary society last Friday evening was well attended. The debate was on the question, "Resolved that the United States should make greater preparation for war." The speakers on the affirmative were John Clark, George Matten and Walter Ransom. Negative, W. R. Baker, John Zak, and Harlan Hoffman. The affirmative waxed eloquent over the danger that we might be insulted by some foreign power. They said that Villa had been wiping his dirty hands on the United States flag, intimating that we should send an army into Mexico to clean the bandit chief—if we only had an army to send. They said that we should have a navy stronger than any other in the world. To negative said that we should prepare for peace instead of preparing for war. We should do away with secret diplomacy and give to the whole people the power to declare war. They declared that it would be impossible for the United States to ever rank first as a naval power. The judges were: Mr. Ransom, George Bahusen, Mrs. Swales, Paul Baker, and Homer Holms. Their decision was three for the affirmative and two for the negative. After the debate the following program was given:

Song, by the Bethel Quartet.
Recitation, "Limbberger," by Hattie Psetak.
Reading, "Married Life," by Harlan Hoffman.
Music, by Paul Baker, W. R. Baker and Bert Bressler.
Reading, "Motor Car Rhymes," by John Zak.
Music by Ida Schruink and Bert Bressler.
Recitation, by Walter Ransom.
George Bahusen has the cream route succeeding Francis Schruink.
Bethel is simply being torn wide open this fine weather. The farmers are working over time shooting stumps and trying to do as much clearing as possible before the spring work starts. Guy Johnston is clearing eight or nine acres and is plowing. John Zak and Frank Bueiter have been helping him. Clifford Johnson and Chris Battalion are helping Mr. Clark who is clearing several acres. George Bahusen, Mr. Vanderbeck, Mr. Hain, and Mr. Nichols are some of those who are turning the stump land into cleared fields.
Mr. and Mrs. Swales gave a farewell surprise party at their home last Wednesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Schruink, who have since moved to Aumsville. There were twenty-six guests present and they didn't go home till morning.
Chris Battalion gave a dance Saturday night. The hop house was jammed. Some time after midnight the congestion was relieved to some extent when some of the hops went home. Those who remained tripped the light fantastic toe till—well, till later. Mr. Bressler and Mr. Fliegel furnished the music.
There will be a parent-teachers meeting at Macleay Friday evening. There will be a speaker from Corvallis and special entertainment is promised. Bethel will attend in a body. The Bethel literary society will meet Saturday evening this week.
C. F. Johnston is now a landed proprietor in our midst. He has traded for the ranch formerly owned by Mr. G. I. Newton. George Hain has the place rented and will have possession till the first of October.

B. L. STEEVES WOULD BE DELEGATE TO THE NATIONAL CONVENTION

Salem Ex-Mayor Would Represent Oregon Republicans Under Moose Banner

With the slogan "Roosevelt and reunion; vigor and victory," Dr. B. L. Steeves, of this city, today filed at the office of the secretary of state, as a candidate for the office of delegate to the national republican convention, first congressional district, comprising the counties of Benton, Clackamas, Columbia, Coos, Curry, Douglas, Jackson, Josephine, Lane, Lincoln, Linn, Marion, Polk, Tillamook, Washington, and Yamhill.

Dr. Steeves has been prominent in local politics since he began his residence in this city and was mayor of Salem during the years of 1913 and 1914.

He has been selected as the delegate of the state of Oregon to the general

WINSLOW IS UNABLE TO PROVE CHARGES

On Cross Examination Forced to Give Brandeis Complete Exoneration

Washington, Feb. 16.—Lewis D. Brandeis, President Wilson's nominee for the supreme court, gained ground today in the senate sub-committee hearing as to his fitness for office.

Under cross-examination President Winslow of the United Shoe Machinery company, who had suggested Brandeis acted in bad faith toward that concern, could not recollect details of his break with Brandeis. Finally, however, he gave Brandeis what many regarded a clean slate.

He admitted that Brandeis had informed him in 1907 that unless the terms of the shoe company's leases were changed, that he (Brandeis) would cease to be attorney for the company.

This, he admitted happened before Brandeis had attacked the leases as illegal either before congress or in behalf of other clients, and before Brandeis had charged that the company was trust.

Challenged to name once when Brandeis had used information gained as counsel or director of the company, to attack it later, Winslow said that he had told Brandeis secrets about the leases in 1906; and that several years later Brandeis appeared before congress in behalf of other companies. At the same time, however, Winslow admitted that the leases were public and that Brandeis did not need inside information concerning them.

THE OREGON RETIRES

San Francisco, Feb. 16.—The historic career of the battleship Oregon as a unit in the United States navy came to a close today.

The vessel in which centers some of the finest traditions of the navy today went into the service of the California naval militia as a training ship and her crew, commanded by Captain Joseph M. Reeves, was transferred to the cruiser Marblehead.

THEIR FATE UNKNOWN

New York, Feb. 16.—The British destroyer Viking was towed into Dover, England, after on January 29, according to reliable advices today. Two of the crew of 70 were rescued, but the fate of the others is unknown.

A "Positive" Sale

"Where Frankness Reveals Your Opportunity"
Some things marked less than cost. Many others at exact cost. On a few items we will make a profit.

What's in a Name?
When we named this a "positive" sale we looked in the dictionary and found that positive meant Real, Actual, Sure Enough, Without Question. Since the sale began, the public has found a new meaning. The ones who have bought here in the past week know now that positive means Plus.

Apply this to your dollars. Plus means more. A dollar plus is more than a dollar, and every dollar spent here during this sale has more than that much buying power. Ask somebody who has tried it. Or better still, try it yourself. That's the best way to be convinced of value.

Raincoats
