FOX-MASCOTT BOUT SIX ROUNDS TO DRAW

Scrap Was Hot From Start, Fox Having Best of It—Other Sport News

MARCH 25 THE DATE
Chicago, Feb. 16.—The Willard Moran fight has been postponed to March 25, Willard's manager Tom Jones, announced today.
Jones announced that he would telephone Tex Rickard and ask him to set the fight for March 25 or a day very near that. He examined Willard and said the champion would be unable to train for a week or ten days because of his severe cold.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 16.—Jimmy Fox of San Francisco, still claimed the Pacific coast featherweight championship today after facing Billy Mascott for six rounds last night. Boxing fans who expected a gentlemanly sort of a bout were pleasantly disappointed. Ambition urged Mascott on to supreme efforts. He had a shade in each of the first four rounds, and twice Fox went to the floor under his rushes.
But with an unflinching smile the San Franciscan turned himself loose in the fifth and sixth rounds after Mascott had used up most of his energy. In the last two rounds Fox evened up matters, and probably was entitled to a decision. Nobody appeared dissatisfied when the referee called it a draw.
Jockey Bennett outpointed Abie Gordon in the semi final.

Willard Fights in March.
Chicago, Feb. 16.—Jess Willard will not take any chances with his heavy-weight laurels until he is sure of feeling in first class shape. He has decided that he will not fight Frank Moran in New York until late in March and will not begin training until the severe cold from which he is suffering is entirely cured.
This is what the heavyweight told his manager, Tom Jones today when Jones arrived here from New York.
The title holder takes the position that it will be impossible for him to begin even the lightest sort of training until next week, and possibly not until the week after. Meantime Jess is taking it easy in his home at Rogers Park and is letting the promoters of his proposed battle with Moran do the worrying.

Britton Won On Points.
New York, Feb. 16.—Eight fans who witnessed the two round bout between Jack Britton and Ted Lewis last night generally expressed the opinion today that Britton had won the match on points.

Taft's Woes Increase.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 16.—The Chicago Cubs have brought more woes to Charles P. Taft.
He has been sued by his former employee, Charles Schulzitz for $55,555 which, he alleges, Taft owes him for 100 shares of Cub stock sold to Charles Weighman of Chicago. Schulzitz claims the shares belonged to him.

Santell to Meet Gotch.
San Francisco, Feb. 16.—Ad Santell today began training for his coming bout here with Frank Gotch, world's champion wrestler. He declared himself to be already in first class condition but he wants to eliminate all possible faults before meeting the great Iowa farmer.
Santell proved his skill last night when he threw Nick Davison twice in a little over an hour. The first fall came in 47 minutes, 22 seconds; the second in 18 minutes, 40 seconds.

Talk About Cost.
New York, Feb. 16.—Speculation was rife among the fans of the hot stove league today as to the amount of money the New York Americans paid Connie Mack for the services of "Home Run" Baker. Several months ago Mack wanted $25,000 for the great slugger, but it is believed that he probably accepted considerably less than that figure.
Baker has signed a three year contract with the Yankees.

Fog Won at Hockey.
Seattle, Wash., Feb. 16.—One of those freaks that happen once in a thousand years but the kibosh on last night's ice hockey clash between Victoria and Portland at the ice rink here.
Just as the teams took the ice a dense fog enveloped the arena. It was somewhat thicker than restaurant soup as the fans who tried to follow the game declare today.
After the teams had played a game of hide and seek for some time, it was announced that the game would be declared an exhibition and the real contest would occur tonight.
It was said that the exhibition finished with the score of 4 to 4 tie. For this we may have to take the word of Referee Mickey Lon, and it is doubtful if he knows the real score.

Seattle and Spokane Tie.
Seattle, Wash., Feb. 16.—The Seattle and Spokane Athletic clubs broke even in the interclub meet staged at the Seattle club last night. Seattle took two boxing events and Spokane copied the wrestling matches and one boxing contest.
The interclub events were for outdistanced as far as class goes by the bout between Lloyd Malien and Archie Wyard. Wyard was awarded the decision.
The interclub mixes resulted as follows:
135.—McIntosh defeated Ross, three rounds.
125.—Baird defeated Dilliro, three rounds.
115.—McTeitt defeated Buckner,

Second Round of Commercial League Series Starts Tonight

The commercial basketball league of the Y. M. C. A. will start on the second round of the series of games tonight. Last week's games completed the first round during which each team met each other team in the league. In the first round the Capital National bank team demonstrated the best team work especially toward the close of the round. The Capital National bank team is the one team to have taken first place alone since the beginning of the league. Other teams were tied for this place throughout the entire first round.
The Capital Business college, Fry's Drug store and Bishops are dividing honors for second place and it was no little surprise when the Drug team went down to defeat at the hands of the Bishops who were somewhat handicapped by the absence of Baren and Ackerman, two strong men, during the greater part of the first round. The Business college team managed under adverse circumstances to maintain an equal standing with the leaders, Dr. R. T. McIntyre, captain, being unable to be present at all the games due to professional duties and Steussloff the strong guard being absent most of the time playing with the high school team.
The first game this evening will be at 7:30 p.m. and will be between the Hanser Bros. and the Capital National bank teams. The second game between the Bishops and the Watt Ship company teams at 8:00. The third game between the Standard Cleaners and the Price Shoe company teams at 8:30. The fourth game between the Fry Drug store and the Capital Business college teams will be played at 9:00.
The last game of the evening will be unusually interesting in that both teams are tied for second place and one will have to drop to third place as the result of the contest tonight.

SALEM BOY IS EDITOR

C. Ernest Howell, a printer boy, who at one time worked on The Capital Journal, and who has many friends here, is now editor and publisher of the Kinsey (Kansas) Mercury, an eight page weekly, a copy of which was received at The Capital Journal office yesterday. The paper is bright and "newspaper" and carries a goodly lot of advertising. This emphasizes the fact that if a boy gets started right out of the old Capital Journal office, he is bound to climb up and be heard from.
Ernest is the good wishes of everybody on The Capital Journal "front and back," who wish him an ever increasing circulation so long as it does not affect his health.

Ham and Eggs Draws Soldier from Trenches

New York, Feb. 16.—Patrick Kelly, of San Francisco, planted his feet on good American soil today after months of Balkan war service, cast his eyes longingly at a ham and egg, and, spotting one, made a mad dash for it.
Indeed it was a yearning for ham and eggs, a la American, with a cup of steaming brown coffee on the side, he said, that drove him home on the Ordnance, arriving today.
Kelly enlisted in the Irish Fusiliers a year ago, and reached England aboard a sailing ship from San Francisco. He was sent into Balkan service, and during the months while he longed for the great American dish, he distinguished himself as a hero. As a result of rescuing several boats of ammunition from a river, while the enemy guns popped at him, he brought back an allied decoration for distinguished service.

Chess Was a Draw but Checkers Different

The commercial club championship players played to a draw in the chess games with a score of 5 to 5 in the contest last evening at the commercial club rooms with the Salem chess and checker club. In the checker contests, the chess and checker club won easily, with a score in their favor of 18 to 6.
Perhaps the most interesting single game was the second in chess between Jonathan Bourne for the commercial club and R. Miller, for the chess and checker club. Mr. Miller had already won a game from Mr. Bourne and the chess and checker club needed another game to play even for the evening. After a two hours contest, the game was won by Mr. Miller, making the score for the evening in chess, 5 to 5.
The scores are as follows, the first name in each case being the player for the commercial club and the checker club:

Salem Handball Team Working Hard to Retrieve Lost Laurels

The Salem Y. M. C. A. handball team are practicing hard for the return tournament with the Albany Y. M. C. A. Business Men's team. The return tournament will be played in the Salem Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, Friday, February 25. Much interest is being taken by the men in the coming match because at Albany last week the Salem aggregation lost the tournament by one match and the men are expecting to return the compliment when Albany visits Salem.
The Salem team was somewhat handicapped by the absence of some very good players. When the tournament is pulled off next it is expected that the association will be represented by the strongest handball team that has ever represented the association.
Among those who will compete for the local association will be: R. C. Bishop, Oscar B. Gierlich, W. I. Staley, A. A. Schramm, Dr. R. T. McIntyre, Ben Williams, W. D. Evans, H. V. Compton, L. H. Compton, Jas. Marr, Paul B. Wallace, Jas. Young, Ralph Moores, Jas. Hartwell, Clarence Walls, etc. With this line-up some good handball is looked for and an unusually interesting tournament.

Kistritz entered the drug store of E. A. Henderson last night while there were many passersby, and pulled a gun on Henderson, ordering him to surrender all the heroin and morphine in the place. People passing saw the bandit holding up Henderson, notified the officers, and four minutes after Kistritz left the store he was cornered in the yard of John Valley, a manufacturer. He fired three shots at the posse, then fell dead, riddled with bullets and shotgun slugs.

Reducing Cost of Raising Hog Topic

How to reduce the high cost of hog production.
That is the problem which about 100 farmers from various points in the Willamette valley wrestled in an all-day session at the Portland Union Stock yards Monday.
Professor Thomas Shaw, agriculturalist for the Northern Pacific and Great Northern railways, told them how. He advised them to raise corn and then to raise more corn.
Professor Shaw canceled some farmers' institute dates in the middle west to attend the meeting. He discussed the big question from almost every angle and after he had finished his regular address invited his hearers to ask questions.
This question and answer dialogue continued for hours. The farmers displayed a keen interest in the subject but they can make the hog business pay better than it is—paying now. In answer to the question as to where the profit in pork was to be found at the present time, with feed up and meat down, Professor Shaw advocated such methods of raising and breeding as would reduce the production cost of pork.

Six Cents Cost Price.

Several present said they couldn't raise pork for much less than 6 cents a pound. The expert declared if they would try it in dead earnest they could find a way to produce pork cheaper. He argued that the outlook was promising for the small farmer who is producing beef and pork from a farm that was not attempting to carry too much livestock.
Professor Shaw declared it was almost past belief that some practical farmers are so short-sighted as to attempt to buy feed to carry stock. If they don't raise the feed necessary to take care of stock it is not surprising, he said, that so few farmers are making any money.
C. C. Holt, president of the Union Meat company, also spoke to the visitors. Other speakers were O. M. Plummer, of the Stockyards company; W. C. Wilkes, assistant general freight and passenger agent of the North Bank and Oregon Electric railways; E. E. Flavelle, editor of the Western Farmer, and others.
