ALINE THOMPSON

Mrs. Ben Olett and small son, Chester, went to Portland Sunday where they will be the guests of Mrs. Oswald West for a couple of weeks.

Congratulations are being showered on Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, of Portland, on the arrival Friday of a baby girl, who has been named for Mr. Murphy's mother, Catherine Elizabeth.

Mrs. Charles Gray has gone to Portland where she will be the guest of friends for several days.

Mrs. Ivan Bellinger, of Sweet Home, was the motif of a charming dinner given by her mother, Mrs. W. H. Cook. The prettily appointed table was circled by: Mrs. Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hauser and the hosts.

Mrs. A. M. Boynton entertained a heavy of young people Saturday afternoon at a delightful surprise party for her daughter, Miss Elsie, on the occasion of her thirteenth birthday.

The young folks indulged in a jolly afternoon of games followed by dainty refreshments, served at the table which was centered with a beautiful birthday cake aglow with thirteen candles.

The rooms were attractive with red tulips and pussy willows.

Those participating in the gayeties were: Misses Mable, Marlene, Marjorie, Miller, Gladys Olsen, Alice Barchardt, Kathleen Walsh, Marion Drager, Alice McClellan, Anna McIntyre, Carl Armstrong, Ray Lewis, William Walsh, Edwin Armstrong and Paul Lelanoy.

The members of the Yeoman lodge are making elaborate plans for a delightful and unique character party to be given at the Moose hall Friday night.

A charming programme has been arranged for the affair which bids fair to be one of the most pleasurable of the season.

Each member has the privilege of inviting a friend, but as it is the lodge custom to give a pass word before being admitted, it is requested that all guests are given an entrance word.

The annual banquet by the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution in honor of their state officers was held at the Osburn on Friday night. The officers present were Mrs. Isaac L. Patterson of Salem, who is state regent; Miss Ruth Guppy, who is state vice-regent and Miss Amy Dunn, state auditor. At three o'clock a business meeting was held in the parlors of the hotel, followed by an address on the Ford Peace mission by Lamar Toozoo. Mrs. Patterson then discussed informally the future plans of the organization. Dinner served in the tea room for thirty members of D. A. R. was in charge of Mrs. Robert McMurry. As to decorations which were most appropriate and beautiful; red carnations with airy bows of red, white and blue tulle made the tables unusual. During the program of the dinner Mrs. Paul Willoughby sang in her charming way, the "Star Spangled Banner," which was followed by the hymn composed by Mrs. P. G. Frink. Mrs. B. R. Russell, as vice-president of this chapter, acted as toastmistress and began by proposing in well chosen words a splendid toast to the nation's flag. Four toasts were responded to by Mrs. P. M. Wilkins, Miss Amy Dunn, Miss Ruth Guppy and Mrs. I. L. Patterson. At 8 o'clock the meeting adjourned in

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Lone Oak cemetery in Stayton. The Rev. Anthony Lainick will conduct the services.

Kaiser Bottom News

(Capital Journal Special Service.)
Kaiser Bottom, Feb. 21.—Spraying and pruning are the order of business in Kaiser Bottom orchards at this time. Many new trees are being put in the ground to replace those which have not thrived.

Fruit men, loganberry growers, peach growers are all preparing for a busy season.

The large Claggett-Patton hop yards here have been removed and a great bean garden will occupy the ground so long covered with hops.

High water has subsided here. The only results beyond washing out a few fences, seems to be that a rich layer of silt has been deposited on the ground which farmers here claim is valuable as a fertilizer.

The great forest on the old Silas Pugh place has been cut and placed in ricks of corded wood.

Much new land in this vicinity is being put under intensive cultivation. The changes are largely the result of cutting up many of these large old places. Many new cottages are springing up and many new people coming in to locate.

The postoffice will be open from 8 to 9 in the morning. There will be no rural delivery, it being one of the very few holidays the rural carriers are permitted to enjoy.

Sublimity Asks for Railroad Extension

Sublimity, Or., Feb. 21.—The Sublimity Commercial club at its regular meeting elected W. H. Downing president, F. A. Bell vice president, George H. Bell secretary and John Zuber treasurer. W. H. Downing was formerly president of the state fair board.

Resolutions passed at the meeting tend to show the endeavor of the club to obtain extension of the Clackamas Southern railroad, which is now as far south as Mount Angel, to tap the Sublimity and Stayton district, which has much tonnage to offer.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

A suit for divorce has been filed in the circuit court by E. E. Ostendorf against Ethel Ostendorf, his wife. The couple were married in Portland in 1910 and the plaintiff alleges in his complaint that his wife deserted him in October, 1912. There are no children or property rights involved in the controversy. Blue & Miles represent the plaintiff.

Jennie V. Hunt has brought suit against George W. Colvin and others to foreclose a mortgage on some property in the Nob Hill addition to Salem. The plaintiff alleges that a note for $1300 for which the mortgage was given as security is overdue and in addition to a judgment for $1300 and interest the plaintiff seeks to recover $100 attorney's fees if the suit goes by default of $150 if the action is contested. Smith & Shields represent the plaintiff.

Deputy County Clerk U. G. Boyer visited Aurora, Hubbard and Woodburn Saturday to receive zopher and male skins from that section. In all about 2,000 scalps were collected from aprties who find it more convenient to turn in their scalps for the bounty in towns other than the county seat.

An inventory and appraisement in the matter of the estate of Lizzie Blyven, an infirm person, was filed today in the probate court of this county. The inventory shows the estate to consist of real property to the value of $2,180 and personal property worth $12,122.85. The guardian of the estate is S. H. Heltzel and the appraisers were W. H. Holson, J. R. Miller and S. L. Stewart.

The court house will be closed tomorrow in honor of Washington's birthday which is a legal holiday. No legal business will be transacted in the circuit court or at the county clerk's office.

An inventory and appraisement filed in the probate court today in the estate of Adam Miesler estimates the value of the personal property at $4,983.66. Fred J. Smith, John Gray and R. C. Bollier were the appraisers.

The inventory and appraisement filed today shows the estate of Silas Reynolds to consist of real property to the value of $6,850 and personal property at $389.97, or a total of $7,239.97. The appraisers were William Zozel, R. D. Teter and John Ruan.

Salem Trap Shooters Begin Race for Trophy

The Capital City Rod and Gun club began a 100 bird race for the handsome trophy offered by the Western Cartridge company which will require five weeks for completion, 20 birds to be shot off each week. Yesterday each entry shot from the regulation 10 yard mark to establish the sliding handicap which will range from the 16 yard distance to 20 yards. All shooters who broke 20 birds yesterday will shoot next Sunday from the 20 yard distance, all who broke 19 will shoot from 19 yards and so on down to 16 birds at 16 yards and all under 16 will shoot from the regulation distance regardless of low scores.

A large number of the local shot gun experts were out to try their luck at the clay birds and until the gunners quit the traps to wade through the trout streams next spring it is expected that the 17th street grounds will be visited by the usual crowd each Sunday.

The scores on yesterday's trophy shoot were as follows: Wilson, 19; Arthur Moore, 19; James Lewis, 18; Mark Siddall, 17; Abe Magers, 16; Otto Kubin, 16; Pierson, 16; Smith, 12; W. E. Anderson, 10; C. Kubin, 7.

The averages for the entire day were: Wilson, 90 per cent; Siddall, 90 per cent; Lewis, 88 per cent; Moore, 88 per cent; Magers, 84 per cent; Kubin, 84 per cent; Pierson, 76 per cent; Anderson, 65 per cent; Smith, 62 per cent.
