Needlecraft Waist club Wednesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. L. Lawrence received first prize and Mrs. F. X. Beck the consolation. Mrs. Geo. Keyes and Al Beck were additional guests. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kent entertained a few of their friends Wednesday evening. Cards were played. Lunch was served by the hostess.

One of the smart affairs of the week was the Leap Year-Valentine party given Monday, February 14th at the I. O. O. F. hall by the Ravelin club. The hall was beautifully decorated with red crepe paper, hearts, ivy, hanging baskets, with ferns and Jack-o-lanterns. There were several novelty dances given such as the number dance, each person received a number and had to look for corresponding number for partner. A jittery dance, which was men's choice, Serpentine dance and moonlight dance. There was a large crowd attending. Music was furnished by Miss Helen Fleener and Wendell Kent. Club members entertaining were: Misses Nell Binkley, Lois Beebe, Madge Scollard, Nellie Broyles, Della Beck, Sadie Richards, Hazel Bittney, Mary Scollard, Nora Beck, Aletha Bittney, Ethel Bonney, and Gladys Binkley. Misses Carrie and Jenath Christensen informally entertained at their home Thursday evening. Cards and music were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served by the hostesses. Those present were: Misses Nell and Gladys Binkley, Messrs. Earl Sims, Clarence Brune, Elmer Spencer, Gilbert Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brune and the Misses Christensen.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bruce entertained at a Valentine's party Monday evening.

The time was pleasantly spent with music and games. One musical number, which was greatly appreciated, was a vocal quartet by Miss Velma Keyes and Al Beck.

The Queen Esther Girls met Tuesday evening at the home of Misses Nell and Gladys Binkley. After the business meeting there were three short stories read by Miss Mildred Simmons, Miss Martha Hawley and Miss Lois Hallard. Several musical selections were also enjoyed. Lunch was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Goodale charmingly entertained the 500 club at their home last Friday evening. High scores were won by Mrs. F. W. Settlemier and Mr. R. T. Guise. Consolation was received by Mrs. Robert Scott, Mrs. Lyman Shorey, Mr. and Mrs. F. X. Beck and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Guise were additional guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lindahl entertained a few of their friends informally at their home last Thursday. Five hundred was played, card honors falling to Miss Esther Berge and Raymond Fisher.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian Manse at 8 o'clock, when Andy T. Hayes and Miss Dena Guerin were united in marriage by Rev. O. C. Waller, E. H. Riches and Miss Nina Riches were attendants. Only intimate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes will make their future home on a farm near St. Paul.

One of the most successful and delightful affairs of the year was a card party and dance given by the Emora club Saturday night at the armory. The hall was patriotically decorated in honor of Lincoln's birthday. A large crowd attended. Music was furnished by the Steelhammer-Kent orchestra. The prize given away at cards was won by Mr. J. M. Poorman. Punch was served during the evening at which Mrs. P. A. Livesley and Mrs. E. E. Stannard presided. Those on the arrangement committee were Mrs. F. W. Settlemier, Mrs. Lulu Shorey, Mrs. J. W. Richards and Mrs. T. C. Poorman.

Mrs. Francella Newton's death came as a shock to her many friends. She had just returned home after visiting with her sister, when she complained of feeling dizzy and it was not long before she passed away. Apoplexy was the cause of her death. Mrs. Newton leaves her husband and daughter, Miss Stiel Newton, five sisters, and one brother to mourn her death.

George Washington, there will be no school at Willamette tomorrow. Dena Allen, in announcing this to the students this morning, said, "Students need not attend classes tomorrow, instead honor the Father of our country."

Dr. Chas. Bowen, the evangelist, who has been holding evangelistic services at Willamette for the past 10 days, spoke for the last time this morning to the students, before returning to Seattle, Wash., where he is pastor of the University church at the University of Washington.

He stated that he had appreciated the privilege of having an opportunity to become acquainted with Willamette students, and thought they were an exceedingly fine bunch of young men and women. He was well liked by the students and his work will be remembered by many.

Saturday both Willamette basketball teams played games, the "scrubs" or second team playing the mule school on the Willamette floor, winning by a score of 44 to 15, while the "Bear Cats," the regulars, played Multnomah Athletic club at Portland, losing by a score of 26 to 17 in a hard fought game. In the first half the Winged "M" men had an advantage over the Bear Cats but the second half was an exhibition of basketball that is seldom seen. Willamette scoring eight points to Multnomah's nine. The showing made was good considering that Multnomah has beat several teams by larger scores than beat Willamette.

The last game of the season will be the one with O. A. C. which will be played February 29.

WILLAMETTE NOTES

Prof. Alice Dodd, of the art department of Willamette university, will give a lecture tonight in Waller hall chapel at 8 o'clock on "Pre-Raphaelism."

Prof. Dodd is well fitted to lecture on this subject, as she spent two years traveling in Europe studying art in the galleries of London, Paris, Berlin and Rome. This lecture is one of the faculty series of lectures which is open to the public and a big crowd should attend as it will be both interesting and instructive.

On account of the fact that tomorrow is the anniversary of the birth of
