Rosebud Class Forms Queen Esther Circle

The Rosebud class of the Leslie M. E. Sunday school met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rhoten at 1415 South Liberty street, yesterday afternoon and organized a Queen Esther circle. Officers were elected as follows: Luellie Olsen, president; Leona Morgan, vice-president; Helen Peterson, corresponding secretary; Veda Rhoten, literary secretary; Helen Frey, mite-box secretary, and Mrs. Gibbs, teacher of the class, was chosen director.

Brief talks were made by Mrs. Underhill, Mrs. Gibbs and Rev. J. C. Spencer.

Those present were: Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. Gibbs, Rev. J. C. Spencer, Gladys Olsen, Luellie Olsen, Leona Morgan, Elsie Boynton, Florence Simons, Alice Borhardt, Helen Frey, Anita Roberts, Helen Peterson, Cleo Walker, Mildred Judson, Ida Vogt, Adra Harmon, Caroline Christiane and Edith Seamer. After the organization was completed dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses.

The committee on lights of the city council this morning granted to Gardner and Kean permission to erect an illuminated clock in front of their place of business on State street. The committee being of the unanimous opinion that all good citizens should be home and in bed before midnight, decided that 12 o'clock at night was late enough to warn the wayfarer of the passing of time.

Siphoning of the mill race at Church street is under consideration by the street committee of the city council, but no definite action has as yet been taken. Should the race be siphoned it would lower the level of the street at this point about three feet. Siphoning is necessary to put the street in condition for the proposed paving of Church street from State to Mission.

"Spinners of Speech" is the special reel, the property of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, which will be shown Sunday evening at the First Congregational church. All the telephone operators and linemen and employees of the company have been given an invitation to attend the service. The reel shows the various stages of construction work and manufacturing departments of the company.

ship of your club Saturday evening, March 4. The address will be given in the auditorium of the club.

O. E. Price, of the Price Shoe company, will give a line party for his employees on the evening of March 2. This is the evening the Moose lodge will give their great and only entertainment and Mr. Price has reserved a row in the dress circle. Line parties are becoming quite the thing since Vick Bros. started the fashion by taking the entire first row of the balcony.

Through Mrs. Edyth Tozier Wethered it was made known to the Elks at their meeting last evening that the state Bar board would cooperate with the Elk lodge of this city in making Thursday of state fair week one of the big days of the state fair. The Elks will soon appoint a committee to take up with the lodges of the state the proposition of preparing a special program for that day and the attending of Elk lodges in a body.

Dean George H. Alden, of Willamette university, and Attorneys Rollin K. Page and Ernest Blue went to Woodburn this afternoon to judge a debate. The debate will be a three cornered or triangular affair as three schools, Jefferson, Woodburn and Estacada will take part, to decide the championship of the northern Willamette valley league. The winner will meet the Albany high school team, March 4, as this team is the winner of the upper valley league.

D. Shono, of Tokyo, Japan, manager of a tourist agency, has written the commercial club that now is the time to visit Japan as the cherry trees will soon be in bloom and that the spring time is the ideal time to visit his country. He also suggests that while the Americans were busy in 1915 with their big exposition, the summer of 1916 would be about the right time to do some touring in Japan and accordingly has sent a folder, with views of the scenery to be seen in that far off country and descriptions of their attractive points of interest.
