Officials Must Consult Stockholders Before They Close Company's Books

The officers of the Bankers' and Merchants' Mutual Fire Relief association of Forest Grove do not have the authority to wind up the affairs of that company without the approval of the members of the association, according to an opinion rendered to Insurance Commissioner Harvey Wells by Attorney General Brown today.

It appears that an old line company offered to issue new policies to the members of this association providing they would cancel the policies during the term of the insurance, and with this agreement the mutual company would receive a commission on the premiums paid by the members to this stock company and as an inducement to insure in this stock company the officers of the association proposed to return a portion of this commission to the members as a return premium on their old policies. This offer the attorney general holds to be a rebate and in violation of section 466b of Lord's Oregon Laws.

It also appears that the total amount of liability in force January 1 was $1,400,000 and the unearned premium on this amount of insurance was $14,000. Their obligations to other members for fire claims amounted to $8,000, making a total indebtedness of $22,000 with total assets not to exceed $2,000. So the above proposal would amount to but very little to the members.

Commissioner Wells stated today that on January 12 he wrote to the Bankers' & Merchants' Mutual requesting that they notify their members of the condition of the company in order that they might protect their interests. On January 8 the commissioner served notice on this company to meet their obligations within sixty days or cease transacting further business. The expiration of this time is March 8 and will then make an investigation to ascertain if they have complied with the law.

shreds. At 5 p. m. we advanced. Our artillery had destroyed the wilderness of barbed wire in the woods. Consequently the infantry rushed in with but slight losses and by 8 o'clock the woods were firmly in our possession, and likewise we held the strongest redoubt in that sector.

"The offensive gradually spread to Ornes and by following the same clockwork co-operation of artillery and infantry, the Germans took new positions. "The offensive shifted again toward the so-called Brabant position. Mortars and howitzers spat death and destruction against these strong field fortifications. On the 22nd we took this position.

"The driving power, endurance and discipline of our troops were incomparable, while our losses, happily, were not very great."

Fighting Grows Weaker.

Berlin, by wireless to Sarville, L. I. Feb. 28.—The Tontin drive against Verdun is spreading westward to the Champagne, said today's official statement.

After heavy artillery preparation, the Germans rushed French positions in the Champagne on both sides of the Somme-Senain road, capturing the Navarin farm positions on both sides of the road and 1,600 yards of French trenches. More than 1,000 prisoners were taken.

The Germans continue to push forward on the Verdun front, said the statement. Heavy French attempts to recapture the ruins of the Douaumont fortress have been repulsed.

"North of Arras," said the statement, "there were uninterrupted night operations. The Germans destroyed 40 yards of English trenches.

"The enemy exhausted himself in unsuccessful attempts to storm the German positions in and around Douaumont and Hardsaumont. The Germans cleared the Meuse peninsula of the enemy.

"The Germans advanced further in the direction of Vacheriauville and Bras (four miles north of Verdun) while in the Woëvre, the foot of Cote Lorraine was reached."

The "Meuse peninsula" refers to a lobe of land northwest of Verdun on the east bank of the Meuse, enclosed by the head, containing Champ Neuville and Cote De Tala Heights.

Say Attack Crumbling.

Paris, Feb. 28.—The great German offensive along the 25 mile front, north and northeast of the Verdun fortress is now crumbling in a series of local actions, according to dispatches today.

HINDOO WONDER AT THE GRAND

Unusual Feats Are Performed by Prince of India in Mystery.

Karni, the much-talked-of illusionist, and his royal troupe of Hindoos will be the headline attraction at the Empress Theater, beginning this afternoon. Karni is a genuine Prince of India and there are many strange things in Karni's act. Paramount among them is the mysterious disappearance of a woman associate while confined in a box in midair.

By no apparent means of exit, she simply goes away from there. The box containing her body rests on several supports that are in turn placed on top of a table. From time to time her hand appears, producing various articles that the conjurer has caused to disappear. Stage magic always is of intense interest.

Besides the entertaining qualities of such an act it also affords food for much thought on part of those viewing it for the illusions are perfect and were this not the 20th century and everyone acquainted with the results of science, Karni's performance might well be attributed to a sort of witchcraft.

Prince Albert is so friendly and so all-fired-good that it just makes a man sorry-like that he didn't get onto this pipe thing and cigarette rolling stunt a-while-ago. He counts it lost time quick as the joy's goodness of this P. A. tobacco gets firm set into his happiness division. The patented process fixes that—and cuts out bite and parch!

Men, it's so easy to get on the right track for straight-ahead-action—and the ride only stands you 5c or 10c—that it sure is due you, due your tongue, due your contentment-container to know how much you'll like

That tobacco appetite of yours, when it gets-going-good, is as fierce as a baby's cry for milk! Right now, while you feel it digging in, do that little old tree act—leave for the nearest store that sells tobacco! And get yours!

Because Prince Albert, jammed into a jimmy pipe or rolled into a makin's cigarette, taxes the joy-speed-limit! And you'll get the listen of what that means the minute you put some P. A. next to a match! You'll get flavor and aroma and coolness that will set-to-rest-for-all-time any odd notions you ever concocted about pipe-pleasure and makin's pleasure!

All over the U. S.—and in every civilized country in the world—you'll find P. A. cheerily awaiting your brows-do in tannoy red bags, 5c tiddly red tins, 10c handsome award and half-pound tin humidors—and in that corking-fine crystal-glass humidur with sponge-moistener top that not only keeps the tobacco in such clever trim, but is such a nifty thing to have about!

MOVIES RESPONSIBLE FOR DOCTOR'S DEATH

Santa Monica, Cal., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Raymond, Toft, aged 28, of New Westminster and Vancouver, is near death at St. Catherine's hospital today from pneumonia and acute hysteria, brought on by a narrow escape from drowning in the surf at Venice yesterday.

Her brother, Dr. Hankon B. Christensen, aged 40, of New Westminster, B. C., was drowned saving her. A big crowd watched the tragedy from the beach, believing it a motion picture scene. Christensen fought for life for 30 minutes, in plain sight of the spectators.

Mrs. Toft was seized with cramps while swimming in the breakers, and screamed for help. When Christensen reached her side, she clutched him. Both sank. After a hard fight, Lifeguard Fred Townend brought the woman ashore.

Christensen, exhausted, was carried rapidly backward by the strong tide. He could be seen swimming desperately at intervals, then floating face downward and helpless. Bathers made a human chain and tried to aid him. Christensen began swimming again, but before he reached the rescuers he weakened and was swept backward, far out of reach.

A lifeboat was launched, with Christensen only 30 yards from shore, but unable to progress. The boat reached his side, only to be carried landward before he could put forth his hand and seize the line tossed to him. He tried to swim again. The watchers saw his arms beat the water half a dozen times before his head went down.

When the lifeboat finally got him out, he was dead.

Another shipment of those famous $3.00 Crofut-Knapp Hats arrived yesterday—and they are beauties. It's a real pleasure to sell hats that are of such superior quality and we guarantee every hat that leaves our store.

As our hat stock is brand new, you need have no fear of getting a vintage of any year except 1916.
