Mrs. M. L. Jones, of Labish Meadows, accompanied by Mrs. George William Gray and small daughter, Prudence, have gone to Portland to attend the tea for which Mrs. Anderson Cannon (Mable Jones) will be hostess Wednesday afternoon in honor of her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, on the occasion of her seventy-sixth birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Plimpton have moved and are domiciled at 254 North Church street.

Wallace Nutting, famous photographer and connoisseur, and collector of antiquities, of Framingham, Mass., visited in Salem for several hours yesterday afternoon en route for Portland and other western cities. Mr. Nutting is well known in Oregon and Washington having formerly been a minister in Seattle.

During the antiquarian's visit at the Gilbert Frame Shop yesterday several nautrons called to see his new pictures, a number of which the Gilberts have purchased and will show at the opening of their handsome new place on Court street.

A Leap Year party will be the diversion of tonight at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Deckerbach, 940 D street given by the women of the Auxiliary of St. Paul's church. The affair promises to be attractive not only from a social viewpoint, but for the charming programme which will be as follows: Vocal solo, Miss Margery Marvian; ocarina, William McGilchrist, Sr.; violin, Henry Hackett; vocal, Dan Langenberg; readings, Miss Hazel Erickson and Miss Beatrice Walton.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. A. M. Clough entertained the members of the Elite Embroidery club.

The afternoon was enjoyably devoted to needlework.

The hostess was assisted in the serving by Mrs. W. L. Bryant and Mrs. Harley Pugh. Mrs. Clough asked Mrs. R. P. Smith as an additional guest.

The members of the Tano club were entertained Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lenox Hewlett.

Five hundred was played during the evening and guests circled six tables of the game.

Besides the club members Mr. and Mrs. Hewlett asked Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abrams, Mr. and Mrs. William Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Canatsey and Miss Zaidée Palmer.

The Misses Marie and Nellie Schwab entertained a group of their friends at an informal dancing party recently asking as their guests: Miss Harriett Hrangrave, Mr. and Mrs. George Riches, Miss Adelta Nye, Miss Louise Humphreys, William Walton, Clarence Newberry, Carl Massey, of Portland; James Peckles and Fred Schwab.

As the date for the Grand Military Ball draws near it becomes more and more apparent that there will be a number of prominent persons from out of town present.

Among the acceptances received by the committee was one from Adjutant General George White and general staff of Portland.

A pretty home wedding was that of Miss Beulah Mapletorpe and Roy Westley which took place Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mapletorpe, 290 South Fourth street. Rev. R. N. Avison officiated. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few relatives and friends.

Miss Eva Mapletorpe, the bride's sister, and Elmer Westley, a brother of the groom, were the attendants. Mrs. Malcolm Hanson sang "At Dawning."

The bride attended Sacred Heart Academy and has a large circle of friends in the city. Mr. Westley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Westley of Claxtar, and is a former Willamette university student.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Westley left for their home in Bushy, Montana, where Mr. Westley goes to accept a government position at the Indian school in that city. En route Mr. and Mrs. Westley will visit in Portland and Great Falls, Montana, where they will be the guests of Mr. Westley's sister, Mrs. Alex S. Hullen.

The guest list, which included only the relatives and a few personal friends was as follows: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mapletorpe, Mr. and Mrs. John Westley of Claxtar, Dr. and Mrs. John Evans, Mr. and Mrs. William Westley of Claxtar, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mapletorpe, Miss Emma Mapletorpe of Portland, Miss Frances Solomon, Miss Beulah Roberts, Miss Frieda Weidman, Miss Nellie Keeton, the Misses Eva and Lucile Mapletorpe, Elmer Westley, Osborn Mapletorpe.

The Highland Mothers' club held a meeting at the Highland school Thursday afternoon. During the afternoon Miss Case, the city librarian, gave an interesting and instructive talk on good and bad literature for children.

The meeting was concluded by a short programme given by the members and friends of the club.

A large number attended the formal opening of the McKinley school to the public Friday evening. Miss Emma Kramer, principal of the school assisted by a number of the members of the Parent-Teachers' association, teachers and lady principals of the city received the guests in the lower hall, which was decorated with potted plants and aglow with bright lights.

The programme arranged for the entertainment was very interesting. O. M. Elliott, superintendent of the city schools, spoke of the construction of the building and its value to the community.

M. J. Miles, president of the school board, having been at the Buffalo fair at the time of the tragic death of McKinley, recalled the event and Mrs. Pickett, attendance officer, presented the school with a framed portrait of President McKinley. During her speech Miss Kramer slowly unveiled the picture to the audience.

Other features on the programme were the songs by the quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ross, Mrs. Julia Cross Pennell and A. H. Gile; dialect reading by Charles Dillard, and a solo reading by William McGilchrist, accompanied by Miss Isabel McGilchrist.

Following the programme the guests enjoyed light refreshments in the upper hall.

The punch was presided over by Messrs. James William McGilchrist, Sr., Jack Hicks and Miss Ohmart.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elgin presided over a dinner at their residence on South Capitol street, Friday evening.

The prettily appointed table was centered with fragrant violets.

Covers were placed for Judge and Mrs. J. H. Hewitt, of Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wallace Walker, Mrs. Josephine Elgin, W. A. Moore, of Portland; Harry Elgin, and Bell Ellis, of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. William Connell Dyer accompanied by their house guest, Mrs. Jacob Kamm, of Portland, and Mrs. C. M. Walker, motored to Corvallis Sunday where they had dinner, motoring back to Salem that night.

Mrs. Kamm returned home Monday afternoon.

The Misses Agnes and Jo Driscoll, who are attending the University of Oregon, returned Monday after a week end's visit with their mother Mrs. Grace Driscoll.

ESHELMAN'S BODY ARRIVES AT HIS HOME

Funeral To Be Impressive With Gover and Officials Attending

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 29.—The body of Lieutenant Governor John M. Eshleman, in charge of I. J. Muma, of Los Angeles, and Philip Swing, of El Centro, was taken to the widow's home on Fifth avenue here today to remain until Thursday, when it is to lie in state under military guard at the city hall.

When the remains arrived at the Southern Pacific station from Idaho where Eshleman died early yesterday from hemorrhage of the lungs, a group of mourners, led by Senator H. Stanley Benedict and Newton Thompson, met the train.

According to present funeral arrangements, the services are to be conducted Thursday afternoon from either the Masonic temple or the Scottish Rite temple and will be very impressive.

Governor Johnson will probably attend, together with the entire state railroad commission, of which Eshleman was formerly president, and Representative delegations from the state senate and the assembly.

Before the body was removed from Idaho, an inquest was held by the coroner of Riverside county. The verdict was death from natural causes.

Mrs. Eshleman is completely prostrated. Three children also survive, Kathryn, aged six; Janet, aged three, and John M., Jr., a baby.

Funeral Thursday

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 29.—The funeral of the late Lieutenant Governor John M. Eshleman will be held in Los Angeles Thursday at 2 o'clock under the auspices of the Masonic lodge.

The interment will also be held in Los Angeles.

Governor Johnson and a number of other state officials will attend the funeral.

Gossip About Successor

Sacramento, Cal., Feb. 29.—Although Governor Johnson remained silent today relative to the appointment of a successor to John M. Eshleman as lieutenant governor, numerous men were mentioned for the place at the capitol.

A. J. Wallace, former lieutenant governor, with Johnson, was mentioned by several prominent state officials. Wallace is from Los Angeles.

Senator H. Stanley Benedict, of Los Angeles, was also mentioned though many officials believed Senator N. W. Thompson, of Alhambra, president pro tem of the senate, is in direct line for the appointment.

Some of the others mentioned were: Matt I. Sullivan, Attorney General Webb, John F. Neelan, chairman of the state board of control; Harris Weinstein, state market commissioner; Chester R. Rowell, of Fresno; Meyer Lissner and Max Thelen.

addition to taking Manheulles, Champlon and part of a Badoeviller trench in the new campaign.

Capture Men and Guns

Berlin, Feb. 29.—Capture of small armored works northwest of Fort Douaumont was officially claimed today.

The war office statement told also of taking in the Woivre region where the Germans are assembling to the southeast and east of Verdun—16,575 soldiers, 225 officers, 68 cannon, and 86 machine guns.

The Germans passed Dieppe, Baccart and Blancas and captured Manheulles, Champlon and a portion of a French trench northeast of Badoeviller. Many prisoners were taken.

Willamette Notes

The Philanthropic election of officers resulted in the following young ladies receiving offices: President—Miss Beryl Holt. Vice President—Miss Valeria Gullberger. Recording secretary—Miss Fannie McKeenan. Corresponding secretary—Miss Winifred Bagley.

Treasurer—Miss Genna Teeters. Censor—Miss Margaret Garrison. Kitchen custodians—Miss Maude Maclean and Miss Margaret Mallory.

The senior basketball team will meet the colleges of Kimball college this afternoon on the basketball court. In a previous game the seniors defeated them, so they feel confident of repeating the score again today. The basketball series is almost over only a few games remaining to be played before the cup is awarded and every team that has a chance is putting forth every effort to win if they possibly can.

The regulars, "Bear Cats," are also putting in a great deal of time preparing for their game with O. A. C. tomorrow evening. They have only one game left to play after the O. A. C. game and that is with Pacific here on March 4. After that Coach Matthews will put all his time on baseball and track and work in those sports will commence in real earnest next week.
