One of the unusual attractions promised is the Kaffir Boy choir, direct from the bushes of Africa. February was rather a tempest and sunshine month. It rained almost every day the first half of the month, bringing the river up to a gauge of 262 feet at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of the ninth. The last half of the month was clear and sunny, excepting the 29th. The stage of the river on the first was 5 feet above low water and the record was the same the last day of the month. The rainfall was 6.31 inches and this all fell during the first half, excepting .22 of an inch, credited to the 29th. The wind was from the north 15 days and from the east one day.

Two Drunks Arrested In Salem Since Dry Law Became Effective

Two drunks have been arrested in Salem since the state wide prohibition law went into effect January 1, or more properly since December 27 when the last drunk was fined in 1915. The police blotter for the month of February shows that one drunk was fined in January and one in February, two more were arrested on the same charge but were dismissed. A total of 23 arrests were made in Salem during the past 65 days were imposed by Judge Elgin and $130 was assessed in fines.
The docket at the station shows that five arrests were made for vagrancy, three for speeding, one for cruelty to a child, three on drunk charges, four were held for justice court, three suspects were picked up, two were arrested for carrying concealed weapons, one for violating the pawn shop ordinance, and one counterfeiter was taken. The record of the officers who made and assisted in the arrests follows: Varney, 8; White, 7; Victor, 6; Nicholson, 5; Welch, 4, and Stabbs, 1.

Market Opened Shaky But Soon Became Steady

New York, March 1.—There was no occasion for surprise that the market today should have been nervous when the German armistice announcement became effective. This, on top of bewildering news about the Verdun battle, accompanied by the president's demand for a vote in congress on the German-American situation; hence it was to be expected that the day would be one of confusion and unsettlement. Yet the particular circumstances that caused the early and violent break could hardly be credited to the stock or the stock exchange.
By afternoon the fact that no torpedoing was reported, that the president's attitude will be endorsed, in form at least, and that an open German-American breach will be averted, began to get attention. When the market once became concerned with news rather than rumors, it sharply recovered and gained most of the earlier losses.

As at this meeting the officers for the coming year will be elected, and several other matters of more than usual interest will come before the lodge, the entertainment though best to be prepared. After the excitement of the election, additional entertainment will be given in the way of boxing bouts.

The Rev. George F. Holt, of Riverside, Cal., who was recently elected pastor of the First Baptist church to succeed the Rev. Harry E. Marshall, will arrive in the city Saturday, and will conduct services Sunday morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Nichols, of Faith, South Dakota, are in the city visiting at the home of C. G. Nichols, who recently bought the grocery business of C. L. Spierling and son.
