BIG AUDIENCE SEES MOOSE HERD AT PLAY

Program a Splendid One and Encores Showed Keen Appreciation

An audience that taxed the seating capacity of the opera house and one that came to be entertained and to also encourage the entertainers greeted the Moose and their friends at the opera house last evening, given for the benefit of the lodge.

The bill, which was preceded by several selections by Hebel's Cherry Bud Juvenile band, opened with xylophone selections in which L. C. Huddleson responded to several encores.

Albert Egan, who recently became a member of the Orpheus Male chorus, always pleases with his Chauncey Olcott songs and was obliged to respond to encores.

Berry and Benson gave the audience a touch of the real vaudeville in an amusing skit. They are professionals and when at home in Salem are known as Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goaz.

Miss Mary Schultz who is one of Salem's favorite violinists, played exceptionally well. With her engaging smile and artistic work, she at once had the audience with her and was called on for several encores.

Tom Ordean, who might be termed Salem's favorite soloist, and who won his way into the hearts of the music loving public last summer at the band concerts, showed himself to be in good form. His songs were repeatedly encored, especially the popular "Army."

Willard Hall in his singing and Miss Priscilla Fleming in dancing are always favorites and their work last evening was repeatedly encored.

In fact, every entertainer and especially those from Portland who came to do their part, was cordially received and assured that the Salem folks appreciated their efforts to please.

And last but not least, although not on the program, was the few words of appreciation by Fred S. Lamport, dictator of the Salem lodge.

The entertainment was a great success financially as well as in the pleasure given and for this successful affair, Benjamin Brick, as chairman, Ernest Blue and George N. Patterson, are responsible.

THERE IS A VAST ARMY of men and women who really never know what it is to enjoy sound, vibrant health—who would be surprised to suddenly gain that exhilarating vitality that robust health brings.

Literally thousands without any particular sickness live in "general debility", as the doctors call it—have headaches, are tired and indifferent. To all such people we say with unmistakable earnestness—Take Scott's Emulsion after meals for one month and allow its rare oil-food to enrich and enliven your blood, quicken your circulation, stimulate nutrition, and aid nature to develop that real red-blooded life that means activity, enjoyment, success.

Scott's Emulsion is not a drug, but a pleasant food-tonic—free from alcohol. One bottle may help you.

HOUSE ACTS TOMORROW

Washington, March 3.—Complying with President Wilson's request for a showdown on a warning to Americans not to travel on armed ships, the house foreign committee—17 to 2—reported the McLenore warning resolution this afternoon and recommended that it be tabled.

This affords the house an opportunity for a clear cut vote on the warning proposal, which probably will come up tomorrow under a special rule which will limit debate.

The committee report said: "Under practice and precedent, the conduct of diplomatic affairs is left to the president, and with them the committee does not feel that it is proper the house should interfere. We know that if the president reaches the point where he believes he has exhausted his power, he will report the facts and circumstances to congress."

LOUIS LACHMUND IS NEW EXALTED RULER

Twenty Applications for Membership—Number Expected to Reach 100

Louis Lachmund will serve the coming year as exalted ruler of the B. P. O. E. of this city, having been elected at the meeting last evening. To aid him in making the following year one of prosperity for the lodge, the following were also elected: A. L. Wallace, esteemed leading knight; A. E. Hnekestein, esteemed loyal knight; E. A. Kurtz, esteemed lecturing knight; H. J. Wiedmer, secretary; C. M. Cox, treasurer; T. B. Kay, trustee; and Elmer Giles, tiler. A. J. Anderson, the retiring exalted ruler, was elected delegate to attend the annual meeting of the grand lodge in Baltimore.

Following the business session, the members were entertained with several boxing bouts. A membership campaign is now on. Twenty applications were received last evening and it is fully expected before the close of the present effort for new members fully 100 will be admitted to the rights and benefits of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. At least there is a feeling that the coming year will be one of unusual activity in the lodge and the members are already putting forth efforts to secure the 100 new recruits. The attendance last night was close to 250.

THINKS GERMAN PRIZE WAITING TO REACH PORT

New York, March 3.—The captain of the liner Grayson, reporting here today, reported his belief that a prize captured by a German raider is now off the Virginia capes, waiting for an opportunity to dash into Newport News.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC WILL SUBMIT OFFER

Washington, March 3.—General Counsel Blair, of the Southern Pacific railroad, declared today to the house public lands committee that he will submit a compromise settlement in the California-Oregon land grant cases. This will concede to the railroads over $250 million which the supreme court allowed them.

Land Commissioner Allister, of the Southern Pacific, read a statement of railroad receipts and disbursements under the land act, and said that out of the unsold land, there is little that can be cultivated.

A woman perfers a well dressed man. She may not know why! Yet the feeling is there. She might reason that the well dressed man has a better chance of success; that neatness in dress is a corner stone of good character.

Such reasoning is proof of the woman's preference for the well dressed man, and the man who wishes the good opinion of ladies in general, and some lady in particular, can't do better than to buy our Hats, Shoes and Furnishings.

They have a style and swing that's lacking in the ordinary makes. Try them and see. And, best of all, the prices are no higher than asked for the ordinary kind.

GLASS OF WATER BEFORE YOU EAT ANY BREAKFAST

Wash Poison From System Each Morning and Feel Fresh as a Daisy

Every day you clean the house you live in to get rid of the dust and dirt which collected through the previous day. Your body, the house your soul lives in, also becomes filled up each twenty-four hours with all manner of filth and poison. If only every man and woman could realize the wonders of drinking phosphated hot water, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

Everyone whether sick or well, should drink each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food in to the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

Salem to Play Portland Chess and Checkers

A chess and checker game will be played tomorrow evening in which on one side of the board players will sit in Portland, and on the other side, players will sit in Salem. Connecting the players on each board and recording every move, is a telegraph operator.

The game will be played at the Commercial club rooms in the city on the part of the Salem Chess and Checker club and at the rooms of the Chess and Checker club in Portland.

Plans call for 10 boards of chess and five of checkers. The chess games will begin at 8 o'clock and the checkers at 9 o'clock.

The opposing teams are as follows: The first named playing for Salem and the second for Portland:

Chess.
J. Walton, Jr., vs. A. G. Johnson; Dr. L. F. Griffith vs. C. T. Rice; Judge T. F. Ryan vs. O. Goldmann; C. G. Givens vs. E. G. Shurt; Dr. W. H. Byrd vs. P. J. Dent; Harry Savage vs. A. K. Tremblaine; J. N. Smith vs. H. Dohring; Ralph Miller vs. A. J. Ray; P. E. Plintz vs. E. K. Brown.

Checkers.
L. Greenbaum vs. J. Van Zante; W. L. Bryant vs. G. Blunckard; J. L. Peetz vs. A. Berg; Horace Ingalls vs. J. G. Fowle; D. G. Drager vs. Peter Grant. This line-up is subject to change. The players here feel the Portland men are the strongest in that city and that their best efforts will have to be put forth to win the championship.

Oxnam and Witt Pay Penalty For Crime

other (nailed) the prison officials for their kindness to him.

Then he was ready for the death march.

With guards beside him, he walked firmly to the gallows. No sign of fear showed on his face, though he paled as he neared the noose. He had no message.

At 10:14, unseen hands dropped the death tray, sending the lad into eternity dangling from the rope end.

A medical student in the throng faintly. For fifteen minutes the body swung from the scaffold. Doctors then tested the lad's heart and pronounced him dead.

Story of Their Crime.
The crime for which Witt and Oxnam were hanged was the murder of William Alexander, a millionaire, whose Los Angeles home they were burglarizing December 22, 1914.

Oxnam, 18 and Witt, 23, had met at I. W. W. meetings in Los Angeles. They planned the burglary, but each later blamed the other as the ring leader.
