Tapestry Pillow Covers at 20c each

An immense sale of these ever popular tapestry Pillow Covers in many designs—well made—finished complete ready for the cushion, tassel ends; choice of square or oblong shape.

These tapestry covers are very scarce as they are imported from across the water and on account of the war they are difficult to get. At this surprise price they should sell rapidly. Special for next Wednesday only—20c each.

Sale starts at 8:30. See the window display.

No phone or mail orders taken.

Free Embroidery Lessons

Over forty Salem women and misses have taken advantage of these free lessons which are being given in our Art Department daily by Mrs. C. M. Dickson of New York. It costs nothing to enroll. Embroidery instructions given absolutely free. Learn how to do the new Grecian cut lace work—over 38 different stitches taught. Enroll Monday in these classes—instruction given from 8:30 until 5 o'clock—personal instruction given to each pupil so you can enter the classes each day at your convenience. Attend classes in morning if possible.

Putting a Stop to CARELESSNESS

In spite of all you can do, boys seem to be always in need of new clothes. The wear and tear is caused mostly by his intensely investigative turn of mind and strenuous play—both being only natural and healthy indications of boyishness.

And yet, the boy's personal appearance contributes more largely than any other factor to the development of his self-reliance and self-respect.

XTRAGOOD Clothes for Boys

Will give him the best possible personal appearance, being designed and made with the same care given to men's clothes.

Because of this, they last longer and maintain during the time of their wear a better appearance than ordinarily accomplished by boys' clothing.

Norfolk, Juniors and Vestee suits in many styles and fabrics. For all ages of boy. Call and let us show you.

CAUSED PANIC ON BOURSE

Zurich, March 4.—Following publication of "grave wireless press messages" from America in the German papers, the Frankfurt bourse closed yesterday's operations in a panic, according to dispatches today.

Stocks Trend Downward and Market Is Weak

New York, March 4.—In the stock market today, it was apparent that a definite trend of prices had ceased at least temporarily. The day's movement was irregular on a very moderate volume of transactions. Fractional losses were the rule on most stocks, while noteworthy advances were few and insignificant.

Perhaps a safe conclusion is that the market reflected the Washington movement of action on the international dispute, and also perhaps it was undetermined about the outcome of the fighting in France.

There was little in the day's news to influence financial sentiment, except the testimony from all quarters as to an aggressive, prosperous general business activity.

The steel business naturally holds the leadership, yet the trend of many industries is apparently similar.

To Perfect Organization at Albany Next Week

Judge Bushey and County Commissioners Goulet and Beckwith were in conference yesterday with Manager C. H. Luck of the Commercial club, relative to the promotion of the Willamette Valley Development association which will effect a permanent organization at the meeting called for March 11 at Albany. To represent the county court, both Mr. Goulet and Beckwith will attend. W. H. Stevens, of Gervais, will represent the county at large on account of his close association with the county granges.

The meeting March 11 to effect the permanent organization of the Willamette Valley Development association promises to be largely attended not only by members of the several Commercial clubs in the valley, but by representatives of all the county courts, and those in close touch with the granges. Already the counties of Polk, Marion, Yamhill, Lin and Lane have their delegates selected and a partial selection has been made by Benton county. But two counties of the eight in the valley are to be heard from and it is expected the county courts and Commercial clubs to these will make their appointments the coming week.

That a permanent organization will be effected at the meeting in Albany is assured from the general interest already taken. The Willamette Valley Development association will hold monthly meetings at different points at which time the interests of the valley will be fully discussed.

SILVERTON FIRMS MOVE

Several business changes have taken place this week. Tom Shockey moved his barber shop into the opera house building at Water and Oak streets, J. G. Smith moved into his building on Main street, Henry Schaubauer will move the bakery into his building on Oak street, Dr. Heasley will take possession of the hospital building on Fisk street, T. E. Preston will soon move into the Ames building on Main street vacated by the bakery and it is quite probable that the room vacated by Mr. Shockey will be occupied by the post office, there being a demand for more room.—Tribune.

T. E. PRESTON CELEBRATES HIS BIRTHDAY

The month of February has gone down in history famous for the birth anniversaries of its important men and women. Another birthday surprise party added to the already long list for February's like festivities was held Friday night at the home of T. E. Preston. We have forgotten the age of T. E. but a large crowd was present to celebrate. Games and music furnished entertainment and a fine lunch was enjoyed before the guests departed.—Silverton Appeal.

DIED

C. S. Piper, who has been freight inspector for the O. R. & N. railway in Portland for the past three years, resigned last week and came to Salem today to make this city his home. He has purchased a half interest in the Scott & Scott bicycle and repair shop, 252 State street, bringing into the firm the agency for one of the leading motorcycles on the market.

A lecture on pruning will be given at the rooms of the Commercial club next Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock by Professor Brown of the extension department of the O. A. U. After the lecture a practical demonstration of pruning will be given at the apple orchard at South Cottage street and Rural avenue. This orchard may be reached by taking the South Commercial street car.

To look after the flax interests and flax industry, which promises so much for the Willamette valley, the Agricultural department of the Commercial club appointed the following committee: W. M. Hamilton, Joseph H. Albert and Carl Abrams. All matters relating to the industry which come before the Commercial club will first be referred to this committee.

Sergeant Schuman, recruiting officer for the U. S. Marine recruiting station, with rooms in the postoffice building, will fold up his tent this evening, close the recruiting station and leave for Portland. Business has not been such as to justify a continuance of the station in this city. As the young men living near Salem seem to prefer the peaceful domestic side of life, applications for a life in the marine corps were few and far between. Hereafter, the only recruiting station in the state will be located at Portland.

Ernest Howell, at one time employed with the Capital Journal mechanical force, but now owning and managing a paper of his own in Kinsley, Kansas, was married February 27. The Salem girls overlooked a mighty good bet when they let Ernest escape, but the Kansas girls were wider awake. The Journal boys one and all "wish him and his'n" all kinds of good luck and sincerely hope their troubles will be nothing more serious than little ones.

Dr. George F. Holt, pastor of the First Baptist church will preach his initial sermon tomorrow morning at the regular hour of service, speaking on "Faith or Failure." For the evening service he will discourse on "A Life Purpose." Over Sunday he will be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stearns, 180 South Nineteenth street. Dr. Holt arrived in the city on the early morning Southern Pacific train in time to see a beautiful Oregon snowstorm. He came direct from Riverside, Cal.

A mass meeting will be held Monday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce at Portland to protest to the Industrial Welfare commission regarding the eight hour law for women. It appears there is quite a variety of opinions as to whether the eight hour law is just what the women workers of the state want and those who will appear at the mass meeting will speak in favor of longer hours. Salem will be represented by Mrs. Julia Doherty, representing the weavers from the Kay Woolen Mills. Her address will be in favor of longer hours for women workers.

"Human Bobcats" appears to be pet name of the Willamette university basketball players and from the record made at several of the big games winter, the name is about right. Anyhow, the human bobcats will play the Pacific university basketball players at the university gymnasium this evening and according to those who know, it will be some game. The Pacific team claims the championship of non-conference colleges and also claims to hold a clean record of victories for the season. This may be true as they have not gone up against the best on the coast. However, those who appreciate a first class scrap will have an opportunity to see one this evening at 7:30 o'clock when the great "bobcats" and the "Human Bobcats" come together. The game will decide the championship for non-conference colleges.

As soon as the final papers of 14 who have made application for membership into the Sons of the American Revolution are acted on by the Portland and Washington, D. C., authorities, a chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution will be organized in this city, according to Winthrop Hammond, who is a member of the Oregon chapter. Blanks for filing proof of ancestry may be secured of Mr. Hammond. Those proofs, that one's ancestors aided or served during the Revolutionary war, are forwarded to Washington for final inspection, and if satisfactory, one copy is filed with the registrar of the Smithsonian Institute at Washington and another copy with the registrar of the Oregon society at Portland.

Chauncy Bishop has purchased one fourth of a block on Fairmount Hill, just south across the road from the Dr. Cusick home. The sale was made by W. H. Grabenhorst & Co.

Edwin A. Hyde has recently purchased through W. H. Grabenhorst & Co., an eight acre tract about four and a half miles south of the city, which he intends to improve. The consideration was $1,000.

A commission house in Portland has placed an agent in this part of the valley, with headquarters in Salem, who has been buying poultry and dressed beef, shipping by express to Portland.

The civic department of the Commercial club will meet next Tuesday afternoon. Those having suggestions to offer or those having business of importance to be brought before this department should confer with the manager, O. H. Luck, who will bring it before the directors.

Here is a chance to get something for nothing. On account of the ill health of his wife, L. H. Suter, of Englewood, 1005 North Seventeenth street, expects within a short time to leave for Texas. He has a large assortment of dahlia bulbs, aster seeds, chrysanthemums and other plants that he will be pleased to give to those who wish to plant them in the parkings.

To those who are still interested in the adventures of the steamship Oscar and its travels with the Ford peace party, the address this evening at the Commercial club by Lamar Tootz will be interesting. Mr. Tootz did not get his passport in time to join the party leaving on the Oscar, but he was with them shortly after their arrival in an European port and traveled with the party, through Germany. The address will be given in the auditorium of the Commercial club and the Rev. Richard P. Fischer will preside.

Harry Fraser, commonly known as "Tuffy", who has often appeared in police court on various offences, was arrested again yesterday on a charge of petit larceny. He was found guilty and sentenced to six months in the county jail and paroled by Recorder Ellis from the bench. Fraser was implicated in the theft of some liquor a few weeks ago which was secured by breaking into a basement. He left the city hurriedly and went to San Francisco but yesterday returned and was apprehended by the officers. Fraser is said by the police to be a leading member of a gang of reputed offenders who have given the police much trouble in the past in this city.

Luke Dillard, who is said to be badly wanted in Portland as a member of a gang of organized vice promoters, was arrested at his home about five miles above Stayton yesterday by Constable Henry Smith, brought to Salem and
