ALINE THOMPSON

MISS ALICE JUSTIS
Who sang at the Moose entertainment Thursday night.

THE Grand Military Ball at the armory last night given by the Cherrians in compliment to Company M. O. N. G., made a brilliant finale of the gay season.

It was the most pageant function of this type ever given in Salem, being superlatively well done. Patriotic insignia was given full sway in the decorations, the military atmosphere being wonderfully increased by the galaxy of glittering uniforms which enhanced the harmoniously blended ensemble of lovely coloring. The spacious ball room had a veritable military setting, the national colors, red, white and blue, waving over head.

Elegant fit bouquets formed an entire embankment while the glow from soft red lights found their way through sprigs of the same redolent trees.

The famous "Homeward bound" pennant of the battleship Oregon, more than four hundred feet in length was used to drape the balcony.

Red Cross nurses served punch from a Red Cross service tent completely equipped. At nine o'clock the Cherrians orchestra played "Victorious Night" and the grand march was led by Governor James Withycombe and charming Miss Helen Deckebach, daughter of King Bing of the Cherrians.

Mrs. Anabel Bush, who has advanced so much originality in the wonderful subscription dances this season, generously assisted with the attractive decorations. Much praise is due both the Cherrians and the militia for their efforts in arousing patriotism which has bestirred the admiration of even the most blasé cosmopolite.

It is whispered that there will be another ball next season making it an annual event.

The patrons and patronesses who attended and added to the success of the ball were:

Governor and Mrs. James Withycombe, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Geo. A. White, Colonel and Mrs. Cleaveland McLaughlin, Major and Mrs. L. H. Knapp, Major and Mrs. Carl Abrams, Captain and Mrs. Frank P. Tebbits, Captain and Mrs. D. E. Bowman, Lieut. Com. and Mrs. G. P. Blair, Captain and Mrs. Max Gehlbach, Captain and Mrs. Charles L. Dick, King Bing and Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mrs. Asabel Bush, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, Jr., Mrs. Harry E. Clay, Mrs. David Eyre, Mrs. Charles H. Fisher, Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, Mrs. E. M. Hofer, Mrs. J. Frank Hughes, Mrs. Thomas R. Kay, Mrs. Thomas A. Lively, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. John H. McNary, Mrs. Charles L. McNary, Mrs. Ben W. Olcott, Mrs. Harry Olinger, Mrs. Melvin Plimpton, Mrs. George Palmer Putnam, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. George F. Rodgers, Mrs. E. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Fred S. Stewart, Mrs. Guy Sargent, Mrs. Thomas C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Ben D. Spaulding, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Chas. K. Spaulding, Mrs. John A. Carson, Mrs. Frederic D. Thielsen, Mrs. Harley O. White.

A charming bridge was the diversion of Thursday afternoon with Mrs. E. Cooke Patton as hostess, her guests being the matrons of the Thursday club. Additional guests were: Mrs. Joan D. Sutherland, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding and Mrs. Edgar Hartley.

Mrs. Sutherland won the high score honor.

Mrs. Patton was assisted by Mrs. Frederick Stewart.

Mrs. Frank M. Jordan, a charming society matron of Seattle, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry Meyers, returned home Tuesday.

Charming with the glow of spring radiating from bouquets and vases of golden yellow daffodils arranged artistically about the rooms about a dozen matrons enjoyed an afternoon over the bridge tables with Mrs. George Post as hostess Tuesday afternoon. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. E. O. Stecke who left Wednesday for a sojourn in Manhattan, Kansas.

Three tables were circled by the guests including Mrs. Stecke, Mrs. William Lytle, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mrs. John Coughell, Mrs. C. Webb, Mrs. Grant Bonnell, Mrs. Paul Schmidt, Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. Percy Cupper, Mrs. Frank S. Gannett and Mrs. Walter Spaulding.

The card favors were awarded to Mrs. Percy Cupper, Mrs. John Coughell and Mrs. Frank Myers.

For tea Mrs. Post asked Mrs. Carey Martin, Mrs. Douglas Minto, Mrs. Chas. K. Spaulding and Mrs. Roy Mills.

Children's parties have divided the attention of society matrons this past week, for as a rule, many of the mothers drop in to these gay romping entertainments for tea and to see the little folk in their frocks.

One of the prettiest of these parties was given by Mrs. Thomas Livesley, Tuesday afternoon, for her small daughter, Dorothy, who has attained the age of six.

Early in the afternoon the little guests were entertained with a line party at the Ye Liberty where they motored with the small hostess and her mother to see Mary Pickford in "The Ponding."

After the show, they were taken back to the little hostess's home where they enjoyed a lovely birthday collation. The table was adorned with a beautiful birthday cake glittering with pink candles and an art basket filled with an array of exquisite pale pink tulips.

Miss Dorothy's little guests included: Nancy Thielsen, Helen and Mildred Roberts, Rovena Eyre, Margaret and Ethel Livesley, Henry Wesley Thielsen, Robert Bishop, Kenneth Allen, Harold Olinger and Thomas Livesley, Jr.

Mrs. John J. Roberts assisted Mrs. Livesley.

An attractive and charming affair of Wednesday evening was the Leap Year party given at the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Deckebach for the benefit of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Paul's church.

A large number of men and women thronged the rooms, which were a scene of exceptional beauty, being decked with fragrant blossoms, rose pink, carnations, narcissus and amylax.

A great part of the merry guests, especially the men, assembled in the billiard room where progressive games were played, the honors falling to Mrs. Arthur Benson and Mr. Purbrick.

One of the very delightful features of the affair was the programme, the numbers of which were an inspiration that completed the evening. Generously contributing to the programme were: Miss Hazel Erickson, Miss Margery Marvin, Miss Beatrice Walton, William Mc-Gilchrist, Sr., Dan Langenberg and Henry Hackett.

About thirty matrons and maids were the guests of Mrs. Louis Josse and Mrs. Armin Steiner Friday afternoon, at an attractive bridge which they planned in honor of Miss Edna Josse a popular bride-elect.

The affair was given at the residence of the charming honoree's sister-in-law, Mrs. Louis Josse. The high score honors fell to Mrs. Merin Harding and Mrs. Roy Mills. Mrs. Grant Bonnell received the consolation. A lovely book was given Miss Josse.

In the dining room the table at which the honoree and the girls were seated a delicate color motif of pink was developed by the use of graceful carnations and greens, prettily favoring marking the places. At the small card tables orange bouquets of fragrant violets marked covers for the matrons.

Mrs. L. M. Boggs, Mrs. Louis U. Josse and Mrs. Paul Schmidt assisted in the serving.

Their guests were: Mrs. William Lytle, Mrs. Robert Gill, Mrs. Arthur Benson, Mrs. Grant Bonnell, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Merin Harding, Mrs. George Post, Mrs. John Coughell, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Louis Josse, Mrs. Joseph Reinhart, Mrs. Stanley Morgan, Mrs. Paul Schmidt, Mrs. L. Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Boggs were hosts for an attractive five hundred party. The affair was given at the residence of the hostess's mother, Mrs. E. B. Houston.

Spring flowers of a brilliant yellow hue were used about the rooms, where seven tables of the game were circled by the guests.

The card favors were captured by Mrs. Armin Steiner and Louis Josse. Mr. and Mrs. Boggs' guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Minto, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reinhart, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benjamin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Williams, Miss Eunane Craig, Miss Edna Josse, Miss Ruth Boggs, Miss Zoe Stockton, Miss Anna Yantis, Miss Mary Eckerlin, Miss Eugenia Belle, Frank Dewitt, Clifford Farmer and Mr. McAllister.

Assisting in the serving were: Mrs. D. C. Webb, Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mrs. Paul Schmidt and Miss Ruth Boggs.

The Monday Night Dancing club composed of a number of the married and younger contingent will indulge in their cherished diversion Monday evening at the Moose hall.

The matrons of the Monday Afternoon Bridge club and several additional guests shared the charming hospitality of Mrs. Douglas Minto Tuesday afternoon.

Lovely spring blossoms, daffodils, were used about the rooms, making an artistic setting for the players. Mrs. A. I. Eoff was awarded the high score honor.

The hostess was assisted in the serving by Mrs. Louis Josse.

The club members include: Mrs. Charles Dick, Mrs. Ernest Hofer, Mrs. Douglas Minto, Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Mrs. Robert Downing, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. A. T. Wain, Mrs. J. B. Craig, Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mrs. W. P. Babcock and Miss Evelyn McKinnon.

In celebration of the anniversary of Mr. Henry B. Thielsen's birthday a number of the married folk were asked for a five hundred party at the Thielsen residence Wednesday evening. The honoree was made the motif of the delightful affair by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Kay and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Catlin, who invited the guests.

Mrs. B. L. Steeves and Mrs. Fred Legg entertained this afternoon at the former's attractive residence with a luncheon, their guests numbering about fifty matrons of the Samedi and Kensington Tea clubs, and a number of additional guests. The living room was charming with a profusion of beautiful golden daffodils, while fragrant violets were effectively arranged about the dining room. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. E. E. Downing and Mrs. Ames Vase and a group of charming young girls including the Misses Helen Hunt, Muriel Steeves, Margaret Legg and Margery Brown.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the bridge party for which Mrs. Harry Olinger was hostess Thursday afternoon.

The living room was an array of fragrant blossoms, carnations and pussy willows being effectively arranged while the dining room was most artistic and spring like with pale yellow daffodils. About thirty prominent matrons enjoyed an afternoon over the card tables, including the Thursday club and a number of additional players.

The attractive guest favor fell to Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner being awarded the high club honor. Mrs. Olinger was assisted by Mrs. Milton Meyers and Mrs. Geo. Brown.

A delightful mid-week bridge was given by Mrs. John Griffith Wednesday afternoon, her guests numbering about sixteen matrons of the Happy Hour Bridge club.

Mrs. L. P. Griffith was the only additional guest. The high score honor was awarded to Mrs. H. J. Bean. Mrs. Jos. Albright assisted Mrs. Griffith in the serving.

Miss Alice Justis, of Portland, a native born Oregonian, who sang for the Moose benefit entertainment at the Grand theatre, charmed the audience with her rich contralto voice, and so pleased the Moose officials that they are contemplating featuring her in concert in the near future.

Miss Justis's voice, although beautiful in tone, shows training. She studied under the leading tutors of Europe and America giving credit to her American instructor, Rose Cousins Reed, of Portland, for her knowledge of music.

Opening the week's festivities Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner entertained Monday evening at a delightful five hundred party, asking about thirty of the married contingent who are members of a card club. Additional guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hamilton and Mrs. Lena Westcott.

Vases and jars of pale yellow jonquils suggesting the approach of lovely spring were arranged about the card rooms. Players circled seven tables of the game, high score honors falling to Mrs. William Dancy, Mrs. Harry Olinger, George Rodgers and Dr. R. E. Leo Steiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills' home was the setting for an attractive five hundred party Wednesday evening.

The rooms were aglow with yellow daffodils, combined with graceful pussy willows.

Players circled eleven tables of the game including the members of the card club and the following additional guests: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downing, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoffmann, Mr. and Mrs. William Lijquist, Mr. and Mrs. James Chinnock, Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Armin Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Durbin and Charles Wilson, of Oregon City.

Assisting in the serving were: Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Miss Zoe Stockton.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers entertained informally at bridge Thursday evening, guests having been asked to make up three tables of the game.

The Salem Festival Chorus composed of about one hundred of Salem's most talented artists will give a concert at the Grand theatre Thursday evening, March the sixteenth. The chorus which is under the proficient direction of Frederic S. Meadenhall will offer the beautiful cantata, "The Hymn of Praise" by Mendelssohn and the "Crucifixion" a highly effective and dramatic work by Gail.

The chorus will be assisted at the piano by Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr., whose accompaniments will complete the artistry of the excellent programme.

The Ferris orchestra gave their second series of dancing parties last evening at Baumgartner's home. About 12 couples of the younger set were in attendance.

Mrs. J. A. Irvin and Mrs. Albert Postman entertained recently at the home of the latter in honor of Miss Maude Clapper. The party was given to announce Miss Clapper's engagement, whose wedding will take place in April. The house was prettily decorated with yellow daffodils, pussy willows, hearts and cupid.

The guests were the Misses Bulah Presnell, Maudie Presnell, Mabel Savage, Hazel Postman, Myrtle Herdline, Grace Mullencaut, Eulana Lindsey, Berta Johnson, Adolena Johnson, Velma Brunk, Ula Beck, Katie Lynch, Verda Ray, Jean McGeorge, Christie Jewett, Geraldine Rice, Mabel Church, Marie Schwab, Inez Bell, Lorett Doris, Alice Sater, Mrs. H. Boegman, Mrs. A. F. Clapper, Mrs. Harry Clapper and Mrs. Elmer McKee.

Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren were hosts Tuesday evening for a five hundred party, their guests being the members of the Merry-Go-Round Card club composed of a number of the married contingent.

Six tables were arranged for the players, score honors being awarded to Mrs. Ruben Hoise and John McNary.

Miss Grace Bean was a guest at the Gamma Phi Beta Sorority house in Eugene last week.

Miss Margaret Putnam asked a small group of girls and men for an informal supper after the dance Friday night including Miss Mary Stevens, Tom Stevens, Dr. Walter Blyue, of Albany, and Mr. Thompson, of Medford, who were her house guests, and Miss Veda Cross, Miss Eunane Craig and A. Hull.

Monday evening the Orpheus chorus gave an entertainment at the State Training school and the programme was highly appreciated by the boys. Among the numbers was a solo by McInturff; solo, Snyder; mandolin and guitar selections, Alley and Carter.

Much applause was accorded Carl Gabrielsen and Rufe White in their clever black face bit. As a finale the chorus and the boys sang, "American."

The Orpheus chorus with Dan Langenberg as director, are general favorites and are always enthusiastically greeted.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown presided over a small informal dinner Tuesday night. The artistically appointed table had covers for Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Dean Hayes, of Eugene, and the hosts.

Mrs. R. P. Mortensen and two daughters, Alice and Margaret, of Springfield, Oregon are week end guests of Mrs. Mortensen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seigmaker.

The Pythian Sisters club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Perry.

Eleven members responded to the roll call which preceded the election of officers. The new officers elected were:

ITCHY SALT RHEUM

Sometimes Called Eczema—Removed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Salt rheum is one of the worst and unfortunately one of the most common of all diseases. How it reddens the skin, itches, oozes, dries and scales, and then comes this all over again! Sometimes it covers the whole body with inflamed, burning patches and causes intense suffering, which is commonly worse at night.

Local applications may do some good, but they cannot permanently remove. The disease will continue to annoy, pain and perhaps agonize, until the blood has been purified and the general health improved.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla, the good old reliable family remedy. It has given perfect satisfaction in thousands of cases. Insist on having Hood's Sarsaparilla, for no substitute acts like it. Get it today.

Margaret Mason Writes of Gotham Fads and Fashions

By Margaret Mason.

"Can she make a cherry pie, Billy boy, Billy boy?"

"Now really that's a question very silly."

"All the cherries, green and red."

"She is wearing on her head."

"In a cap-a-pie effect," says little Billy.

New York, March 3.—A cherry may play it three ways and still be well placed—in a pie, a cocktail or on milady's bonnet. All three are ideal settings for a cherry, but naturally the third is the charm. Just as every cloud has a silver lining, so does every smart spring hat have its fruits and the cherry is the favorite of the bunch. Dame Fashion is masquerading as Pollyanna. In consequence, every peach topped with a few cherries, goes around looking like a mixed fruit salad. It's quite all right if the peach confines the cherries that go to her head to the ones on her hat. If she lets the cherries in a cocktail go to her head too she is apt to look more like a compote. See Webster's Unabridged:

"Compote: A combination of stewed fruit."

"Fruit: One of the new hats—cunning little high crowned effects without brims, or the fetching little Directoire bonnets, lend themselves very prettily to the cherry habit. Following the cherry, the favorite fruits for hats are green and purple grapes, peaches, plums, strawberries, oranges, lemons and apples for daughters of Eve. Some of the big flat garden hats have an array of fruit around their flat, platelike brims, their vivid colors glowing against a background of glossy green leaves, for all the world like Mike the Dago's pukehat display. But why scratch the rest of the 57 varieties off the sartorial menu. Surely a Cassaba Chapeau, a Banana Bonnet or a Pineapple Picture Hat would be tasty little headpieces for the fruitful fashions.

Just to what lengths can fruits go is best answered by the fact that not only do they grow on spring millinery, but on cravats, bags, umbrella handles, neck ruffs, belts, sash ends, jacket lapels, blouses, frocks, negligees and even lingerie are clusters of them grafted.

The new lawns, organdies and spring silks are printed in fruit designs and even the newest jewelry preserves the peach, the plum, the cherry and the grape in gold and platinum, in enamel and precious stones.

Verily an up to date peach in a cherry hat and a pear of lemon kid gloves according to the current modes, could never be a gooseberry in any crowd. Rather is she the apple of every male eye, with all of them plum crazy about her.

Mrs. Charles Parmenter, president; Mrs. C. E. Harbour, vice-president; Mrs. F. S. Schram, secretary.

Fancy work occupied the matrons later in the afternoon.

Mrs. Perry served a dainty collation assisted by Mrs. C. Parmenter and Mrs. H. M. Perry who was a guest of the club.

The next meeting will be in two weeks at the residence of Mrs. F. S. Schram on South Commercial street.

Of paramount interest to the members of the woman's club will be the meeting at the library next Saturday afternoon.

J. Cortozian, of Portland, the well known connoisseur and importer of marvelous oriental rugs will give an illustrated lecture bringing with him valuable samples worth many thousands of dollars. For many generations Mr. Cortozian's family have made these wonderful rugs in giving an interesting and intimate history of Oriental rug making.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Guy O. Smith entertained the Rhapsodians. The afternoon was enjoyably spent with needle work.

Yellow daffodils were used about the rooms, the same color motif being carried out in the dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Frederick H. Thompson assisted the hostess in serving. The club members present were: Mrs. Guy O. Smith, Mrs. Frederick H. Thompson, Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. W. H. Darby, Mrs. W. E. Emmel, Mrs. F. H. Reeves, Mrs. Roy Shields, Mrs. A. A. Siewert, Mrs. Lee M. Unruh, Mrs. Floyd L. Uter, Mrs. O. J. Wilson, Mrs. Walter Winslow and Mrs. Elmo S. White.

Mrs. T. J. Rederich of Vancouver, Washington, who is visiting her parents, was an additional guest. Mrs. Rederich was Miss Belle Crouse before her marriage, popular in university circles.

for a Valentine musicale given Monday evening at the First Congregational church and which called together a large number of parents, musicians and interested friends of the youthful performers.

The originality of the invitations was reflected in every detail of the affair, which for its excellence and charm, occupies a foremost place among amateur musical offerings of this season. The stage setting, representing a garden scene of the palace of the Queen of Hearts, was a veritable spring time bower, with masses of golden daffodils, pussy willow, palms, greenery, and festoons of Valentine novelties.
