SOCIETY

ALINE THOMPSON

As a fitting close to a week filled with charming affairs, Mrs. John H. McNary will be hostess Saturday afternoon for an informal tea in honor of her house guests the Misses Gertrude and Margaret Gray of Seattle, and Miss Eva Bailey, of Hillsboro, who arrived today accompanied by Miss Margaret Gray, who has been a guest at the Bailey residence for several days.

About twenty matrons and maids have been invited to call during the afternoon, many of whom are old friends of the Gray girls.

Mrs. George Rodgers was hostess this afternoon for an informal bridge, her guests including the members of the Thursday club. This club composed of a group of prominent matrons is one of the few bridge clubs in the smart set this season.

Mrs. and Mrs. G. W. Shand, were hosts Tuesday evening for a five hundred party, their guests being the members of the "E. O. T." card club.

Three tables were arranged for the players, in rooms prettily decorated with Oregon grape and greenery. Prizes were awarded to Miss Mary Wain and Lee Lane.

Mrs. A. L. Brown assisted in the serving.

As a delightful pre-nuptial attention to Miss Ada Snook, who is soon to become the bride of Mr. Ireland, of Forest Grove, the women of the Salem Degree of Honor lodge complimented the bride-to-be with a shower Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Snook, Liberty street.

As a gift from the lodge the bride-elect was the recipient of a handsome silver service set presented by Mrs. Edith Darr. Refreshments closed the enjoyable afternoon.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Walton on South Fourteenth street, was the scene of a pleasurable surprise party Tuesday evening, when a number of friends gathered in honor of the host's natal anniversary.

Five hundred rounded out the evening, followed by refreshments. High score honors fell to Mrs. Wain, Mrs. Leung, C. G. Long and E. L. White.

Mrs. Long and Mrs. Stege assisted with the serving.

The card tables were circled by: Mr. and Mrs. C. Wain, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Long, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. White, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Glendon, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stege, Mrs. N. Colvin and V. H. Richie.

SOCIETY matrons and maids are much bestirred over the rumor and prospects of the Hotel Marion dinner dances which, if they materialize, will be given twice a month.

Since the season for formal dances is almost over, there seems no reason why these dinner dances should not be very successful and enthusiastically greeted by both the married set and the young belles and beaux. It is utterly impossible to keep away from the fascinating art of dancing whether one is eating, or talking and the field that has just been invaded by one or two matrons of the smart set is just the place for this cherished diversion.

Then, too, these dinner dances would afford a splendid opportunity and a delightful way for the bachelors and younger men to reciprocate their social obligations.

Mrs. Charles Gray, of Eugene, will be the week end guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George William Gray.

Mrs. Clara Stinson entertained the matrons of her Kensington club Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon was devoted to afony work, followed by a delicious lunch, which was enjoyed at a table adorned with white flowers, white and green appointments suggestive of the approach of St. Patrick's day being effectively used.

Places were marked for fourteen members and Mrs. C. D. Purdy an additional guest. The hostess was assisted in the serving by Mrs. C. J. Ohmstead. The next club meeting will be at the residence of Mrs. Ross Moores in two weeks.

Miss Elene Fawk has gone to Portland where she will visit for a couple of weeks.

Rev. and Mrs. Carl H. Elliott presided over a dinner Tuesday evening, their guests being the elders of the First Presbyterian church and their wives.

The prettily appointed table was decorated with an array of yellow daffodils and greens, with covers for: Mr. and Mrs. John Moir, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Pooler, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Skuffie, Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Altman, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purdy, T. G. Albert and Dr. H. Bowman.

Miss Leora Morris and Jay Morris entertained a number of their friends with a party Saturday evening at their home in Salem Heights. The rooms were prettily decorated with pussy willows.

Music and games formed the evening's diversion followed by refreshments. Those enjoying the evening were the Misses Martha Wieberg, Minnie Spranger, Julia Chase, Alethia Anderson, Clara Miller, Glorva Thompson, Olga Wieberg, Leora Morris, Messrs. Harold Benjamin, Ben Sawyer, Fred Spranger, Donald Wilson, Harold Anderson, Maurice Sawyer, Jay Morris.

The Old Camp Ground To Be Made Beautiful

At the last state fair the campus club appointed a committee consisting of Judge Galloway, County Commissioner Beckwith and Mr. Simons, to arrange for beautifying the camp ground at the state fair, and to urge upon the county and city the necessity of a hard surfaced road to the grounds.

At the request of the state fair board the committee conferred with it today on the matter and urged that the grounds be no longer used as a cow pasture, that the lots in the camp ground be permanently marked, and the streets improved. The ground is level, and the water stands on it after a hard rain. Mayor Tozier wrote Judge Galloway that the ground were unsanitary and not now suitable for camping purposes.

The committee suggested the grounds be put in shape and placed in charge of someone, and that they be advertised as free camping grounds for tourists during the summer. Salem's Floral society, if the streets are laid out, promises to plant roses and other flowers and to beautify the grounds.

The board thanked Judge Galloway and the committee for their interest and promised to co-operate with them in having the historic old camp ground improved and made habitable.

WOMEN OF OREGON!

Women Everywhere Endorse this "Favorite"

Lena, Oregon.—"In my younger days I was greatly troubled with gas on my stomach; it gave me lots of trouble. I began using Dr. Pierce's medicine and received such relief that I can recommend them to others."

"I have raised a large family and am a great grandmother and have always insisted that my daughters-in-law use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when expecting to become a mother."—Mrs. B. F. SEKLEY, 5411 94th Street, S. E.

Thousands of women who are now blessed with robust health cannot understand why thousands of other women continue to worry and suffer from ailments peculiar to women when they can obtain for a trifling sum Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which will surely and quickly banish all pain, distress and misery and restore the womanly functions to perfect health.

Young mothers who preserve the charms of face and figure in spite of an increasing family and the care of growing children are always to be envied. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives the strength and health upon which happy motherhood depends. It practically does away with the pains of maternity. It enables the mother to nourish the infant life depending on her, and enjoy the hourly happiness of watching the development of a perfectly healthy child.

Willamette Notes

The Y. W. C. A. had their installation of officers this afternoon in their hall. Miss Agnes Emmel was elected president for the coming year. She is one of the most prominent young ladies in the junior class and has been identified with a number of student organizations as an officer. The Y. W. C. A. had charge of the chapel exercises this morning with Miss Rosamond Gilbert presiding. Miss Margaret Flower sang a solo, as did also Miss Mildred Wiggins. After chapel several of the Y. W. C. A. young ladies sold sandwiches to the students, the proceeds from which will be used as a fund to spend at the Summer conference which is held in June at Seabeck, Washington.

The Student Volunteer band has had a modern style book case built and placed on the second floor of Eaton hall. In it are a number of curios from India, sent by Miss Laura Austin a missionary at Barodi, India. Miss Austin graduated from Willamette a few years ago and has since been teaching in the mission school in India. Among the curios are beads made by the native Indians; pictures, pipes, combs, corals, metals, jewelry and various kinds of grasses. The Student Volunteers meet every Monday evening to discuss practical mission problems.

The Adelante Literary society have as their program for tomorrow afternoon a musicale. The program as follows:

Piano duet, Misses Vesta Mulligan and Caroline Sterling.

Song of Spring, Miss Nellie Patchin.

Vocal solo, Miss Mildred Wiggins.

Chorus of Music, Miss Ada Ross.

Mandolin solo, Miss Fern Wells.

The Philodivans program will be of a German nature. The topic "Germany" will be discussed by Prof. Gustav Ebsen. The professor is ably fitted to talk on this subject as he is a native born German and received his education in the German universities.

Miss Lella McCaddam will sing several German songs.

The Inter-Collegiate Prohibition association will hold a meeting at 1422 State street Saturday evening and also have a program and a social hour later.

The First Methodist church Epworth league will hold an auto party tomorrow evening, meeting at the church at 8 o'clock.

The Awards Committee, to determine who shall receive awards for basketball this year, will meet tomorrow at the student body office. Those who are eligible for awards this year are: Earl Lloyd Shisler, Howard Jowett, Earl Plegel and Russell Brooks.

The squad met yesterday and elected Earl Plegel captain for next year. Plegel is also captain for next year's football team.

The Freshman Glee will be held next Wednesday evening March 15 at the First Methodist church. The reason for holding it in the church rather than the chapel was to give more people the privilege of hearing it. This musical contest is the big event of the year in musical circles at the college, as every class writes the words and music to their own song and every member must participate in its rendition.

All four classes are hard at work practicing for the event and music can be heard at all times about the campus, as the aspiring sopranos, contraltos, tenors and basso profundos rehearse their parts.

This contest is open to the public and no charge is made. The winning song will be decided upon by two sets of judges, one on composition and music; the other on rendition.

W. P. TRACK COMPLETED

Eugene, Ore., Mar. 9.—There is now a line of steel rails extending from Eugene to Marshfield without a break, except at the Umpqua river, where the big bridge is not yet completed. The track is completed and all that remains is the ballasting before through train service by ferrying over the Umpqua will be inaugurated.

It is now possible to dispatch a train from Eugene to the Umpqua and the passengers can ferry across the river and take another train to Marshfield, making the trip in a very few hours, whereas it formerly took them more than a day to make it.

From now on the construction crews will be busy ballasting and putting on the finishing touches to the line.
