Rose City Athletic club on St. Patrick's day. Mascott arrived in Salem yesterday with Manager Bobby Evans and Sommers arrived today. The boxers will work out at Klett's for the coming smelter and Sommers will keep from growing stale while his ear is rounding into shape by boxing with Mascott.

Charlie Davidson, of Seattle, is the pride of the sound city fans and comes highly recommended as the best featherweight in that section. He has hopes of winning from Mascott who has as many friends to back him and the bout promises to be of high class order.

Thinks $4,500 Enough—McCredie the Perennial Kicker Still At It

San Francisco, Mar. 11.—Sweeping and emphatic denial that he had discussed the question of salary limit in the Pacific Coast league with the owners of the Vernon and Los Angeles clubs, was made today by Henry Berry on his return from the south.

Why Banks Must Lower Interest on Savings Accounts

(Woodburn Independent.)

The Portland bankers will lower the rate of interest on time savings from four to three per cent. This action will in all probability be followed by one of a similar nature by the banks throughout the state.

in the near future. Manager Evans states that he has a good line of preliminary bouts under way and that several of the best boys will be picked to precede the main event.

SPORT GOSSIP

Waldo Ames, of Illinois, broke the world's record for the forty-yard hurdles in the track meet here last night, which Illinois won from Notre Dame, 49 to 32.

John Lobert, who is spending the leaf season in Philadelphia, said the other night that he was in the best of shape to play 154 games this year.

Manager Stallings, of the Braves, has notified the married members of the team that the training season at Miami, is to be "a stag affair."

At the request of Percy Haughton, Walter Maraville has cancelled his tour with a basketball team.

President Baker, of the Philadelphia club, has come to terms with outfielder George Whitted.

Accident policies, aggregating $140,000, were taken out by President Britton, of the St. Louis Nationals, on February 24, on the members of his team.

Edward Reubach, star of the Cub staff in the days when the Cubs were the stars of baseball universe, has been awarded to the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Though 40 and at an age when the average ball player is ready for the old soldiers' home, Mordecai Brown bids fair to again cut a dizzy swath on his return to the Cubs—his old alma mater—and the National league.

Fred Toney, the premier pitcher for the Cincinnati National league team for last season, on February 23, signed a contract with the Cincinnati club for the season of 1916.

"Home Run" Baker will receive $10,000 a year. Messrs. Ruppert and Huston made their first offer for him to Connie Mack a year ago this month, and while they were discouraged at times, they refused to give up trying.

"Eddie Collins is a great man for a ball club," a fan remarked in the hearing of Clarence Rowland, White Sox impresario.

Tris Speaker, outfielder of the Boston Americans, announced from Houston, Texas, on February 25, that he had signed a contract for this season.

The Boston Nationals has just been insured for a total of $500,000 against accident of any nature, except such as may occur on the baseball field.

In Short Metre. It is said that the magnates of the two major leagues have agreed that no player who has been offered a contract and refuses to sign it shall be permitted in the training camps of any of the clubs.

White Sox Go South For Spring Training

(By United Press.) Chicago, Mar. 11.—A De Luxe special fitted up with phonographs, poker tables, entertainers and numerous other comforts and conveniences of the home, will roll out of the yards tomorrow for Mineral Springs, Texas, with a little old last year's ball team aboard.

The passengers will be Charley Comiskey's White Sox, bound for Marlin to work off Charley horses, spavined arms, midwinter gouches and midwinter fat, preparatory to grabbing the American league pennant, if luck is with them.

As the team, almost entirely a 1915 aggregation, packed up today, Comiskey, The Old Roman, sat back in his chair and spoke thusly: "We had a real team late last season. We've still got it. Boys, we are going out to win the pennant. They're the hitting marvels, not the hitless wonders."

Comiskey felt so good about it that he fitted up the training special like a combination ladies' boudoir and a first class clubroom.

As the Sox lined up to count noses today nearly every face was a familiar one to Chicago fans. Comiskey and his manager, Clarence Rowland, have passed up the Fed outcasts entirely.

Release of Johns to the Columbus A. and Blackhorse to the Toronto international club leaves a hole at third, for which McMullen or Moriarty will have to fight, unless Comiskey annexes a star third from another team.

Here's what Rowland had to base his hopes for a pennant upon: Infielders: Eddie Collins, 2b; Jacques Fourrier, 1b; Ebbes Wever, 3b; McMullen or Moriarty, 3b. Outfielders: Harry Felch, Joe Jackson and Eddis Murphy. Catchers: Schalk, Daly and Murphy. Pitchers: Russell, Scott, Cioetto, Benz, Faber, Wolfgang and Ed Welsh.

En route to Mineral Springs the Sox will stop at Kansas City, Missouri, for a day, and will arrive at the camp March 14.

Yanking the Yanks Into Shap at Macon

(By United Press.) Macon, Ga., March 11.—Bill Donovan, with more than $100,000 worth of baseball beef and bone treading the tropical sea today, was just about ready to lead his Yanks against the best of the American league affords and put up a hair-raising fight for the pennant.

Money did most of it. Colonel Ruppert and Captain Huston, the spendthrift owners of the club, have disbursed at least the fifth part of a million shells for diamond sets and results to date have been sufficient to satisfy them that their large enough to stagger toward the latter part of 1915 the Yankee owners combed the minors for talent and bought about $100,000 worth of playing material.

"Price has not cut any figure with the owners. In a single year they have spent, probably, more money for players than has been spent in the rest of the club's history."

Third base of course is Frank Baker's logical position, Donovan says, and Fritz Mausel is enthusiastic about his tentative berth in the far agricultural regions. Magee, though a second-baser by trade, will carry the burden of center station in the Yanks' outfield unless Donovan finds it impossible otherwise to plug the hole at second.

Donovan expects Walter Pipp to prove a corking first baseman and his catching staff, Alexon of Nunnamaker, Walters, Schwert and Smith, in one of the most promising departments in the whole aggregation.

Donovan brought down a whole boatload of pitchers and hopes to cull out at least three good lefthanders to balance the staff.

The Yanks will start north March 25, besieged by demands for exhibition games as a result of their requirement of the federal league stars.

FATHER.

Used to wonder just why father Never had much time for play. Used to wonder why he'd rather Work each minute of the day.

Father didn't dress in fashion, Sort of hated clothing new, Sle with him was not a passion.

All I knew was when I needed Shoes I got 'em on the spot; Everything for which I pleaded Somehow, father always got.

Father set a store on knowledge If he'd lived to have his way He'd have sent me off to college.

Saw his cheeks were getting paler, Didn't understand just why, Saw his body growing frailer, Then at last I saw him die.

Rest had come! His tasks were ended, Calm was written on his brow; Father's life was big and splendid, And I understood it now.

Cruiser Tennessee Hounded by Blue Fish

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., March 11.—Hounded by a school of blue fish that had followed her 2,500 miles from New York, the U. S. S. "Tennessee" put in to Port-au-Prince, Haiti, and unloaded a company of United States Marine Corps recruits last week.

"The waves rolled high," one of the recruits wrote Stubbie, "and for the first time in my life I realized the bigness of the ocean, the smallness of me, and the minor part I could play in the great scheme of things."

"What is the purpose of my being? Why have I ever born? Pondering over this stupendous question I staggered to the rail, and, after awhile, was forced to give the whole thing up—together with some trifles I had eaten for breakfast."

As I let go of my feelings, a big blue fish jumped up out of the water and gazed hungrily into my beautiful blue eyes. He was a handsome fellow and I knew that I'd remember him if I ever saw him again.

Five days later, as we were entering the harbor of Port-au-Prince, and while I was again meditating on the philosophy of life, that same blue fish jumped up out of the water as if to devour my inmost thoughts. It seems that a school of them followed us all the way down to Haiti because of the recruits aboard who had never before been to sea."

"Some piscatorial embroidery," was Stubbie's comment on the letter.

Socialists to Plan Million Dollar Co-operative Store Tomorrow

Cleveland, Ohio, March 11.—Cleveland socialists plan a direct assault on the high cost of living here tomorrow by organizing a co-operative company to distribute food and other staples at wholesale prices.

The Bohemian socialists' organization, the pioneer in Cleveland in co-operative buying organized four years ago with a membership of 195 families, will be used as the nucleus of the larger organization.

It is not planned to open a store. Instead there will be a central warehouse. Routes for delivery will be mapped and wagons and autos will go out weekly to visit and restock homes of members of the organizations.

London, March 11.—As midnight tonight ushers out National Baby week, it will usher in Irish Baby week, sponsored by the Marquis and Marchioness of Aberdeen and Tannuir.

Lord and Lady Aberdeen selected the week of St. Patrick's day in which to ask help for Irish babies. They want to drive disease among the babies on of Ireland as St. Patrick banished the snakes.

While Irish fathers are dying on the battlefields of France, their babies at home are succumbing to war's companions, poverty and disease.

"The babies must be saved for the coming generation," said Lady Aberdeen, speaking of the work.
