

Somebody's Daughter Feeds the Beast

See SMASHING the VICE TRUST

DR. PARKHURST SAYS ITS EVERY WOMAN'S DUTY TO SEE THIS PICTURE.

A wonderful production in 6 parts EXPOSING all the evils and horrors of the White Slave Traffic

MONDAY and TUESDAY GRAND THEATRE MONDAY and TUESDAY

SCENE FROM THE UPSTART

"The Upstart," a five part Metro feature production with Marguerite Snow in the stellar role, and featuring George Le Guere, will be shown here at Ye Liberty theatre on Sunday and Monday. This feature is a picture of the play of the same name by Thomas Barry, which had such a successful run at the Maxine Elliott theatre in New York city. It is distinctly a novelty on the Metro program, being the first production of its kind released by this company.

There are many strong situations, which lead contrast to the delightful humor, which is sustained throughout.

"The Upstart" was produced by Ralfe Photoplays Inc, and directed by Edwin Carewe, who also directed the Metro feature plays, "Destiny, or the Soul of a Woman" and "The Final Judgment."

An exceptionally strong supporting cast was selected for this feature, including James Lackaye, Frederick Sumner and Frederick Sittenham.

Vaudeville GRAND THEATRE Vaudeville

World's Most Beautifully Formed Woman ELMINA & CO., presenting "The Fortune Tusslers"

"The Jules Levy Family"
IN A MUSICAL MELANGE

Howatson and Swaybelle
IN "A CASE OF PICKLES"

Adams, Beverly and West
"THREE COMEDY KINGS"

Fred Thomas and Company
In a Comedy Playlet
"MRS. SIPPY'S NIGHTMARE"

SHEFTELL'S EIGHT BLACK DOTS

In a Colored Musical "CELEBRATING DAY IN TENNESSEE"

SUNDAY---ONE DAY ONLY Matinee and Evening

Last Times Today ----The Great Drama

DAMAGED GOODS

In 7 Awe-Inspiring Acts. Grand Theatre, Mat. 15c. Eve. 25c

Charles Buck's Play For Dustin Farnum

STAR CAST PORTRAYS POPULAR STORY "THE CALL OF THE CUMBERLANDS"

Torn between a love for his mountain home and a mountain girl and a desire to work out a God-given talent

Dustin Farnum
Pallas-Paramount Star

with paint and canvas, Samsen South, fighter and dreamer and a coming leader of the cause of the South, whose feudal activities with the Holman faction in the Cumberland mountains have been halted by a truce, leaves for New York. Reluctantly he parts with Sally Miller, the sweetheart of his youth, and signs at the prospect of last association with nature's charms.

Such is the beginning of the story of "The Call of the Cumberland," a Paramount Picture produced by Pallas, released January 24th, in which Dustin Farnum plays the leading role.

At the zenith of his success, his crude ways fading under the polish of etiquette taught him by the beautiful sister of his artist-benefactor, who discovered him in the mountains, he is prompted to return because of the breaking out of hostilities anew. First avenging his father's earlier death, Samsen South leads his clan in a desperate battle with the Holman faction, liberating four of the Souths from jail and finally forcing the enemy to ask for permanent peace.

Sally Miller improves the time of South's absence to add to her meager education with books, and she, taking inspiration from fashion magazines, improves as best she can her personal appearance. The absence of South has built a bridge of doubt as to whether his love for her has faded or his heart yielded to the pulchritude of the polished city girl. With Sally Miller again in his arms, doubt is dispelled and Samsen finds his soul in the grip of a strong, heroic love and his yearning for the mountain fastness appeased. At Ye Liberty next Friday and Saturday.

OREGON
TOMORROW
Chapter 14 of
"THE GODDESS"
Only one more left.
You cannot afford to miss the last two

In Addition
VIRGINIA PEARSON
and other eminent
Stars in

"The Turn of the Road"
5 Acts

The entreating of a sick child bade him stay, but he did not. John King, wealthy, was tired of his home. He wanted a change. He deserted his wife and child. He meets with a horrible auto accident. Does his wife take him back? You will find the answer in "The Turn of the Road"

Continuous Show

Matinee 10c

Children 5c

Evening 15c

COURT HOUSE NEWS

A confession of judgment was filed in the circuit court today by the defendant in the case of C. M. Wray against J. Frank Humphries. In his statement Mr. Humphries acknowledges that he gave a promissory note to the plaintiff in the sum of $202.27 in 1913 for the purchase of a hack and other minor articles.

An order was issued by Judge Bushby today discharging Mary Halley from further responsibilities as administratrix of the estate of John Minto, deceased. The administratrix presented receipts from all of the heirs of the estate showing that they had received their proportion of the estate and her services were no longer necessary.

An inventory and appraisement in the matter of the estate of Jacob Kloetoch was filed in probate court today. The appraisement estimated the value of the real property at $7,100 and the personal property at $65. The appraisers were J. Dittier, Charles Schulenberg and Joseph Zuber.

A pennant indicating that the Pringle school has conformed to all of the requirements of a standard school was forwarded to the school today from the office of the county school superintendent, Miss Lena E. Mize is the principal of the school.

A confession of judgment was filed in the circuit court today by the defendant in the case of Coolidge & McClaine against D. A. Vogt. The defendant acknowledged that he owed the plaintiff the total sum of $4,631.19 on two notes, one for $3,000 and one for $776.76 and accrued interest.

Yesterday was a banner day at the tax collector's office and Sheriff Each stated today that over $8,100 was taken in, and that it was all in small amounts and did not include any large checks from heavy taxpayers.

The case of the state against Adam J. Mishler, charged with the conversion of funds, will be appealed to the supreme court according to the announcement of District Attorney Ringo. Mishler was indicted by the last grand jury but his attorneys demurred to the indictment on the grounds that the indictment was not sufficiently definite and that the facts set forth did not constitute a crime. Judge Kelly sustained the demurrer and the district attorney appeals from the Judge's ruling.

LATIN MINISTERS CONFER

Washington, Mar. 11.—Ministers of Argentina, Brazil, Colombia and Peru conferred today with Secretary Lansing probably with regard to the Mexican situation.

Try Capital Journal Want Ads.

Militia of the Coast Ready on Short Notice

Phoenix, Ariz., Mar. 11.—While the Arizona National Guard has received no official instructions for mobilization, its members were privately instructed today to hold themselves in readiness for action on short notice.

Clam Diggers Willing.
Seattle, Wash., Mar. 11.—The national guardsmen would be tickled to death for a little real service, said Adjutant General Maurice Thompson today.

As to the likelihood of our being called, of course we can tell nothing. We must wait and see what develops.

The militia is ready at a moment's notice for field service, with 1,600 men, which could be increased to 3,200 in 10 days, according to Thompson.

California Ready.

Sacramento, Cal., Mar. 11.—California's militia is prepared to join in the hunt for Villa at a moment's notice, Adjutant General C. W. Thompson said today.

Mission Circle Holds Annual Open Meeting

The Ladies' Mission Circle of the First Baptist church held their annual open meeting Friday evening at the church.

The program was especially interesting consisting of representations of seven missionaries from the Columbia district.

Those taking part in the program were: Mrs. H. E. Marshall, Miss Nina McNary, Mrs. A. O. Davidson, Mrs. W. F. Foster, Mrs. P. E. Graber, Miss Abbi-Davis and Miss Mina Gille. All were dressed in the costumes of the country which they represented, three of the Chinese costumes being loaned by Mrs. Hop Le and Mrs. Hine.

Mrs. S. Vail introduced the speakers giving a short biography of each. Dr. George F. Holt pastor and Mrs. Mrs. Engdahl, president of the circle, made short addresses.

W. H. Dalrymple's Car Recovered in Portland

The Ford auto which was stolen from W. H. Dalrymple when he left it in front of Ye Liberty theatre was recovered in Portland today by the Portland police. It was in the possession of a man who claimed that he bought it from another man for $250, $50 of which he paid down and gave a bank draft for the balance. The car was bought in Salem and driven to Portland by its new owner. He was not arrested and will simply be out his $50 if the man from whom he made his purchase is not located.

Get prices on commercial printing at The Capital Journal office.

1916 Chalmers Six-30-- 3400 Revolution Engine

The New Chalmers Six-30 has arrived and is on display at Halverson & Burns' Garage.

"She's sure a Beauty" says a prominent Salem man today—"She has more superior motor car qualities than I ever saw embodied in one car." A six cylinder 30-horse power engine with 3400 revolutions per minute gives more engine control and power than can ever be imagined; can be throttled down to 2 miles per hour on high or can be put 144 miles per hour without shifting the gears. She develops 45 horse power at 2500 revolutions per minute. The lines are perfect with a roomy and comfortable body. Best upholstery obtainable, one-man-top and many other late improvements. Those with all other new features makes the Chalmers Six-30 the most desirable city car on the market.

More Candidates File for State Offices

Walter L. Touze, of Dallas, has filed as a candidate for nomination by the republican party for the office of District Attorney for Polk County, with the slogan—"Just and conscientious law enforcement, with a square deal to all."

Other candidates today are: A. W. Gowan, of Burns, candidate for nomination by the republican party for the office of State Senator, 23rd Senatorial District.

W. P. Lafferty, of Corvallis, candidate for nomination by the republican party for the office of Representative in the Legislative Assembly, 19th Representative District.

Willamette Notes

In the state oratorical contest held at Monmouth last night, Frank Jasper, Willamette's representative was awarded second place with his oration, "The Inevitable Devastation of Strife."

Walter L. Meyers, of the University of Oregon was awarded first place with his oration, "Independent Sovereignty and Vital Interests."

Miss Marie Myers, of Monmouth Normal school, was third place with her oration, "The Education of Tomorrow." The judges for the contest were: A. Gung Wilson, Portland; Judge Henry L. Benson, Salem; George L. Knoen, Portland. The Willamette delegation of about 25 went to Monmouth in an auto truck last evening returning after the contest.

All of the orations were of a high class order, and the showing made by Mr. Jasper was very good; receiving second place among seven contestants.

SUGAR JUMPS AGAIN

Portland, Ore., Mar. 11.—The price of sugar jumped 15 cents in the wholesale market again today. This makes an advance of 40 cents a hundred within two weeks.

SUNDAY-MONDAY

Agnes Glynne

and Fred Paul

in a Thrilling Picture of Frontier Days

THE LOVE TRAIL

IN FIVE PARTS

Keystone Comedy

SUNDAY-MONDAY

MILL WOOD For Immediate Delivery

5 Loads Loads at

$1.75

ORDER NOW

SPALDING LOGGING CO.

Front and Ferry Streets

Telephone 1830