SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at Once When Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers—Meat forms Uric Acid

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

The Americans would not be permitted toarrison any cities or towns during the pursuit. General Barrant is still at Guzman.

Doubt Carranza's Sincerity.
Civil authorities were inclined to doubt Carranza's sincerity. They asked why the expedition was not permitted to use the railroad to travel from Juarez to Casas Grandes instead of having to make a terrible forced march over the barren desert.

Deep sand is impeding the progress of the column from Columbus. Wagon trains toiling through the heavy going find it difficult to keep up with the cavalry. The infantry, in spite of its Aeroplanes will be hauled by three mule teams, experienced cattlemen say. The absence of trails will make arduous the march. Cavalry and infantry will fight on foot against a foe who will give no quarter.

Wounded Raider Picked Up.
It is already coming the United States government 424 minutes or $75,000 a day to hunt Villa, according to Major William Elliott's estimate. Millions may be expended before the bandits are wiped out.

The "spy" scare was still in evidence. Colonel Miguel San Vicente has been found wounded by American scouts. He is suspected of being a Columbus raider.

Sam Hess, American employe of a ranch at Corralitos, today told a thrilling story of having seen Villistas murder five Mexicans and kidnap a young girl. He himself escaped by hiding under a haystack.

The main American column from Columbus spent the night at Boca Grande water hole, 20 miles south of the border, according to information brought to Columbus by wagon trains. Yesterday's march covered about 15 miles.

The column's cavalry vanguard expected to reach Guzman tonight. General Barrant's cavalry is still at Guzman.

To Bring Out Mormons.
American Mormons at Pearson and Casas Grandes are expected to board trains for the border under Carranzan guard. Casas Grandes advises men from the Dublin colonists as being at Pearson, which suggested that Colonia Dubla had escaped a visit from Villistas.

The Tenth regiment in Colonel Dodd's command is a negro organization. Impatient over the delay in bringing out their people, Mormons of El Paso have obtained General Gavira's consent to send a train toward Pearson, where the American Mormon refugees are congregated. If the Carranzanists do not start the refugees northward before the special train reaches there, it is believed the Mormons cannot return to the border before Saturday or Sunday.

Gavira refused to send a military escort with the train, explaining that he had no troops to spare. Armed Mormons from El Paso will travel with the special, as groups of Villistas are reported along the Mexico and Northwest-ern line.

Latest advices here said Villa himself was in the vicinity of San Buena Ventura and El Valle, heading for Chihuahua, north of Santa Clara canyon. This is to the southwest of Guzman in the Galeana district, and indicates that they will probably not be molested.

Villa to Scatter Forces.
Two views of Villa's flight were held. Mexican Consul Garcia stated his information indicated Villa was sending his followers to their homes, intending to hide alone. Army men, however, believed Villa was merely breaking his men up into smaller bands preparatory to starting a widespread campaign of guerrilla warfare.

Advocates of this view pointed out that Villa has innumerable sympathizers in the mountains of the Guerrero district toward which he is now heading.

Garcia said: "I have information that Villa has only 500 men, and that most of these he intends to discharge." Guerrillas could make 50 miles daily in their retreat from Columbus if they desired, it was estimated. The heavily equipped Americans with their wagon trains can only move toward Guzman at service on the border, is greatly troubled with the treacherous sands. At midday it is intolerably hot, with no shelter from the burning sun. Brief halts are occasionally made during the day, but for the most part the soldiers must plod steadily onward through suffocating clouds of dust.

Lieutenant De Rosy C. Cabell, General J. J. Pershing's chief of staff, is reported directing the Mexican and American cavalry scouts. He knows the desolate country perfectly by reason of experience gained in the pursuit of Geronimo, the Indian. Cabell advised Pershing to have infantry accompany the expedition, as he believes it will be most effective in the hot fighting expected when Villa is finally cornered in the mountains.

If Villa escapes the Mexican-American net, he is believed likely to hide in the forbidding Sierra Madre in which he has always been unapproachable. From behind boulders and across deep ravines the Villistas are expected to be able to stand off three times their numbers. They have ammunition and supplies for a long siege eached in the hills.

Refugees from Torreón who are here stated that in spite of several anti-American demonstrations in that vicinity 100 Americans of both sexes choose to remain in that district under protection of the British consul.

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept Her Locks Youthful, Dark, Glossy and Thick With Common Garden Sage and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyer's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyer's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

a rate of from 12 to 15 miles daily. Colonel Dodd's cavalry is believed making better speed in its effort to clear Villistas from the territory between Acaecion and Guzman. If the divisions effect a junction tomorrow, the main body will be compelled to await repair of burned bridges below Guzman before pressing its advance.

Bishop Hurst of the Mormon church has urged Gavira to restore the burned bridges immediately, to facilitate rescue of American colonists who fear Villa sympathizers, who have repeatedly interrupted railway travel, are suspected of cutting the bridges.

The Mormon rescue train from Juarez is held on the border. Gavira promised to have repair gangs sent out from Pearson immediately, but it may require several days to restore the destroyed structures.

Villa was reported today more than 100 miles south of the American expedition, and moving much faster than it possibly could.

Refugees from Torreón who are here stated that in spite of several anti-American demonstrations in that vicinity 100 Americans of both sexes choose to remain in that district under protection of the British consul.

AN EASY WAY TO END CATARRH FOREVER

Simple Home Treatment Destroys Germs of This Dangerous Disease.

The reason why so many people who suffer from Catarrh never seem able to get cured is that they are continually seeking the momentary relief of sprays, douching, greasy creams, ointments, etc. Such things do open up the swollen nostrils and clear the head temporarily, besides stopping for a while the disgusting blowing, hawking, spitting and choking, but they never cure. To drive out Catarrh for good you have got to get down to its real cause. Catarrh is a germ disease. The air is always full of catarrh germs thrown off by one person and absorbed by another and when the system does fail to throw off such germs they find permanent lodgement in the nose, throat and head and multiply rapidly.

The germs of catarrh can be best destroyed by inhaling the pure medicated air of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mey). This splendid and powerful combination of oil of Eucalyptus with other healing agents has a wonderful germicidal action. You breathe its air into your nose, throat and lungs by means of a small hard rubber inhaler which Daniel J. Fry and other leading druggists here in Salem and vicinity supply with every treatment. This medicated air is certain death to the germs of Catarrh and drives them completely out of your system and when the germs are destroyed the catarrh with all its disagreeable symptoms will stop. Even two or three minutes use will give refreshing relief, while, if you will use it two or three times a day for a few weeks it will completely banish catarrh and every symptom of catarrh. As Hyomei is pleasant to breathe and is always sold by druggists everywhere with a positive guarantee of successful results or money back, surely no catarrh sufferer should go long before trying this simple home remedy.
