

SOCIETY

ALINE THOMPSON

AND now Salem society has a brand new and perfectly delightful idea for charity, "Flower Day," a novel and clever method for aiding the unfortunate.

Saturday will be Flower day and an array of society matrons and maids who never turn a deaf ear to any worthy cause will sell dainty primrose bouquets for the benefit of the Pisgah Home, which is located at Lents, Oregon.

The Pisgah home colony has its headquarters at the Woodmere old people's home near Portland and is a country home and human repair shop for those dear old souls who perhaps by no fault of their own are among the less fortunate. The thought of these dear old people quickens our tenderest emotions and it is indeed an sympathetic person who has no call to be of use to them at the meager sum of ten cents, the amount for which the blossoms will be sold.

Mr. Miller, of the Hotel Marion, has generously donated space for the flower sale which will open at the hotel at nine o'clock Saturday morning.

Among the smart set who will be seen during the day with baskets of these pretty bouquets are:

Mrs. Chaucery Bishop, chairman; Mrs. Thomas B. Kay, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. Ben Olcott, Mrs. Asahel Bush, Miss Margaret Casper and a bevy of young girls.

Frank Meyer, of the Spa, has kindly donated a lovely five pound box of candy to the committee to be presented to the matron or maid selling the most blossoms.

The breakfast club composed of a group of young girls enjoyed an informal evening recently with Miss Lois Martin as hostess.

Tuesday afternoon this same coterie of maids went on a picnic. The party included the Misses Barbara Steiner, Caroline Dick, Ila Spaulding, Ruth Schultz, Olga Gray, Lois Martin, Marybelle Reinhardt, Edna Howd, Retha Hughes, Grace Holt, Ethel Frasier and Vita Rosequest.

Dr. and Mrs. Harry Clay motored to Milwaukee Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit with relatives.

About fifteen young girls were the guests of Miss Dorothy Buckner Friday evening when she entertained at one of the attractive St. Patrick's day festivities. Five hundred was the diversion arranged for the guests and the tables were circled by the Misses Dorothy Dick, Margery Brown, Lulla Patton, Kathryn Slade, Valerie Briggs, Margaret Goodin, Beulah Fox, Margaret Legg, Charlotte Croisan, Ethel Rupert, Eva Randall, Mabel Patrick, Catherine Campbell, Emma Snook and Marie Briggs.

Miss Mabel Patrick and Miss Margaret Goodin were awarded the high score honors.

Mrs. Charles H. Fisher went to Roseburg today for a several days' visit with her mother, Mrs. N. Owens.

Miss Edna Jossé went to Portland Saturday to be the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Haeck, for several days.

Friday evening the members of the Young People's Bible class of the First Congregational church, gathered at the home of Miss Teresa Fowle for a book party.

The rooms were prettily adorned with St. Patrick's decorations and spring flowers.

Miss Edna Townsend and Harvey Wilson were awarded the prizes. Later the evening was rounded out by a Virginia reel and a dainty collation. Those enjoying the gayeties were: Misses Isabel McElchrist, Hazel Roberts, Agnes

EVERY THREE MINUTES ONE DIES IN THE U. S.

The Anti-Tuberculosis Society illustrates the frightful toll of consumption by extinguishing a light every three minutes, and shows that it is the man or woman, girl or boy, who neglects colds, whose blood is impure, who feels weak and languid, who is the very one to contract tuberculosis—and none are immune.

During changing seasons, or after sickness, blood-quality is most important, and if you and your family will take Scott's Emulsion after meals it will charge your blood with health-giving richness, quicken circulation, and strengthen both lungs and throat.

Scott's is free from alcohol—easy to take—it cannot harm. Get a bottle today. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Blood Flows Freely In Drunken Brawl

Considerable blood was spilled about five o'clock Saturday evening when Oliver Reissbeck and Oscar Bridges, a painter, engaged in a fist fight at the corner of 12th and Mill streets. Reissbeck was pried loose from Bridges by Officer Varney and then Reissbeck attacked the officer viciously and was only subdued by the officer's club after about 150 spectators refused to aid the officer. One man, whose name was not learned, did attempt to assist the officer to overpower Reissbeck and received a black eye and the others refused to join in.

Reissbeck received a sentence of 20 days in jail this morning in police court and admitted that he was insanely drunk and that the details of the fracas were hazy in his mind. He said the party had two quarts of alcohol to drink and that the booze started the trouble. The fight began in the shoe shop of William Porter who was also arrested. The men then went out on the street where they attracted a large crowd and the police were called. Officer Varney went on his motorcycle and arrived at the scene of the fight ahead of the other officers who arrived later.

A bloody knife was picked up on the street and it is thought that Reissbeck was cut with the knife on the face. It required seven stitches to close a gash in his head, made by the officer's club and four stitches to close the gash in his face which was clean cut.

HAVE GOOD HEALTH

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Old Reliable Spring Tonic.

Don't let the idea that you may feel better in a day or two prevent you from getting a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla today from any drug store and starting at once on the road to health and strength. When your blood is impure and impoverished it lacks vitality; your digestion is imperfect, your appetite is poor, and all the functions of your body are impaired.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful blood tonic. It will add you up quicker than any other medicine. It gives strength to do and power to endure. It is the old standard tried and true all-the-year-round blood purifier and enricher, and appetite builder. Nothing else acts like it, for nothing else has the same formula or ingredients. Be sure to ask for Hood's; insist on having it.

EAST AND WEST WILL MEET HERE TONIGHT

Patriarchs of Old and Present Times Will Be at Religious Exhibition

The patriarch of Abram's time, the shepherd of Kind Davids day and the wise man of the year of our Lord will mingle tonight at the Ryan hall with Ringle and Boaz, of Biblical fame, the present day Mohammedan chanting his prayers to Allah, scores of other interesting personages and Salem church folk at the opening of the Social Service exposition and Palestine pageant.

This is the fourth city which this great exposition has visited since the close of the Panama-Pacific exposition and the manager, Mr. G. B. St. John, states that he has booked the exposition for two years ahead. It was planned to visit cities of not less than 100,000 population but the Salem Ministers' Federation invited the exposition to Salem and it is here to stay for six days. After the exposition closes here it will proceed to other cities going as far south as Dallas, Texas, and as far east as Providence, R. I.

As its central attraction it comprises all the religious and social service exhibits shown under the committee of One Hundred in the palace of education at the recent exposition. Many tons of this exposition has been set up here. These exhibits had the distinction of winning greater honors in San Francisco than any other group of exhibits being awarded forty-one and were pronounced by religious leaders as the greatest collection of social service material ever assembled.

G. B. St. John, formerly with the Presbyterian Board of Home Missions, who collected the exhibits and in fact made most of them for the many boards and agencies exhibiting says that the church boards and social service agencies are very anxious to have the country at large see just what work they are doing, and that they have chosen this method of doing it. Rev. Allen Moore has charge of a very large section of the exposition representing the Holy Land. He has scores of the finest costumes the far east has ever produced and he will lead his groups of people from place to place through the streets of Jerusalem and tell stories of the life and customs of those of that far away land. Another section will be given over to scientific temperance by Miss Edith M. Wills, assistant editor of Scientific Temperance Journal, who appeared at the San Francisco exposition.

Still another department will be conducted by Miss Mary Agnes Best, reporter and magazine writer, who will tell her Molly Best stories of "How the Other Half Lives." Another section will consist of a moving picture theatre where social service work will be shown. Mr. Max Diethe is in charge of this section. Mr. Diethe was in charge of the large motion picture hall at the exposition under the supervision of the Federated churches. This hall was a great success and many thousands visited it during the year.

The program will begin tonight at 7 o'clock with a specially conducted tour through the exposition. The realistic presentation of a modern Holy Land wedding will be given at 8:30 o'clock followed by a discussion by Mr. Moore on "Eastern Dress." Miss Best will give her famous story "The Lilly Langtry Literature Circle" (Jewish). At 9:15 special tableaux will be presented. The interesting exhibits will be open throughout the expositions.

Salem Marksmen Make Good Scores at Traps

The Capital City Rod & Gun club shot gun experts held a practice shoot at the 17th street grounds of the club yesterday to test out their aiming eyes for the shoot next Sunday when the Independence gun club will send over a dozen shooters to try the Salem traps. The shoot for the Western Trophy is still undecided but will be shot off next Sunday. On account of a number of the early shooters being absent lately it is difficult to find the leading shooters who have shot at but 20 birds have high percentages and may count in the finals if they bring up their missing runs.

At present James Lewis is probably the leading man out of those who have shot most consistently. Lewis has dropped but four birds out of 60 shot at. Arvil Wilson has dropped 8 out of 80 shot at and Mark Sidball has dropped 10 out of 80.

The scores on yesterday's practice shoot are as follows:

Shooter	Birds	Broke	Per.
Fisher	100	17	84
Wilson	100	21	81
Sidball	125	113	90
Dalrymple	50	44	88
Anderson	100	77	77
A. Moore	100	73	73
Harbison	75	53	70
O. Moore	25	17	68
Haroon	25	8	32
Cleveland	25	10	40
