A group of attractive Maids who will assist in selling blossoms for the Pisgah Home Benefit:

SOCIETY leaders at last have found another outlet for their cherished diversion—dancing—and will no doubt indulge in it joyously at the premier dinner dance at the Hotel Marion next Friday evening.

It appears to be utterly impossible for society to keep away from the fascinating art of dancing and the dinner dance which ranks among the most popular of all is a delightful innovation in Salem.

Grand opera and the Ballet Russe in Portland this week revived memories of other grand opera seasons, and had a charm of its own as well, a charm entirely dissociated from comparisons.

Friday night was unusually brilliant; a typical "first night" with all the incidents which the term implies.

Among the prominent members of Salem society who went to Portland to attend the opera were: Mr. and Mrs. William Burghardt, Mr. and Mrs. Asahel Bush, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. William Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denton, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lavenley, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schnecking, Mrs. Carlton Smith, Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. T. H. Galloway.

Mrs. Ben O. Schucking asked the matrons of the Kensington club at her home for an informal afternoon Wednesday. By way of varying the serving list Mrs. Schucking entertained her guests with a fine party at the Ye Liberty theatre.

Mrs. Harvey Wells had the matrons of her card club for an informal afternoon over the bridge tables Thursday to say an revoir, as she and Mr. Wells are moving back to Portland next week.

Among the delightful affairs of the week was the social afternoon given for the matrons of the aid society of the First Presbyterian church by Mrs. H. J. Bean, Mrs. Chauncey Bishop, Mrs. Jos. Palmer, Mrs. John Lewis and Mrs. M. A. Thompson at the home of the former on Friday.

WITH or without excuse, society women are ever on the qui vive for new fads. The latest is not a dog. Dogs are now consigned to a secondary place by New York women and birds are "la dernier cri" or whim.

Mrs. Ben A. Polzin entertained a number of friends informally at cards Monday evening in honor of her husband's natal anniversary.

A large array of society matrons and maids were to have sold jolie fleurs today for the Pisgah Home, but the weather made it necessary to postpone Primrose day as it was impossible to carry out the original plan made by the committee, headed by Mrs. Chauncey Bishop.

John Claire Monteth the well known baritone and vocal teacher, of Portland, will sing in concert in Dallas next Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Dallas Woman's club.

Mrs. George Rodgers and daughter, Miss Helen West are the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Elliott.

posed of Dr. H. C. Epley, Charles Knowland, Fred Metz and S. E. Wolf; solo, Miss Marguerite Flower; instrumental numbers, by Miss Jay Turner and pupils; and a duet by Miss Lina Jasper and Miss Bertha Hummard.

Several of the Sons of Veterans augmented the party later for refreshments, including Dr. G. V. Ellis, David Dregar, A. M. Clough, R. F. Peters, E. E. Cooper and J. F. Dunlap.

An all day session of the interdenominational missionary society, which is composed of all the missionary societies of all the Protestant churches in Salem will be held in the First Congregational church Friday, March 31.

MOORE'S GOCARTS

Are Causing MORE Comment Than Ever

In this age of Automobiles and Airships, it is necessary to keep in line—have an auto of your own. If you have a child in your home you need an Auto-Gocart. The newest thing in Gocarts can be seen in our west window.

A Gocart built like an up to date auto—with windshields, fenders, curtains, lamps, etc., with artillery ball bearing wheels, body made of German half reeds, upholstered in corduroy, comes in grey, brown and old ivory. You must see these to know of their beauty.
