Mexicans Feel More Friendly to the "Gringos"

Plan to Surround Villa. El Paso, Texas, Mar. 29.—Colonel George Dodd's flying cavalry is reported to have reached Madera today, developing a new phase of the hunt for Francisco Villa. Dodd is understood to have shifted his headquarters from El Valle to Madera.

Reports that Brigadier General John J. Pershing is again using the Mexican Northwestern railroad south of Casas Grandes was an indication of the rapid movements which are being made in furtherance of the plan to surround Villa.

May Use Mexican Railroads. Washington, Mar. 29.—There was a growing belief here this afternoon that General Carranza would soon formally announce permission for American troops to use Mexican railroads. Officials would not discuss the question, but they admitted that a tacit agreement for the move had existed for several days. The formal announcement of it is being withheld so as not to arouse Mexican criticism.

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE GAMES CLOSE TONIGHT

Bankers Have First Place Cinched—Battle For Second Honors

Table with columns: Standing of Teams, Won, Lost, P.C. Capital National Bank, 11, 2, 84%.

Tonight's basketball games at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium will mark the close of the Commercial Basketball League for this season.

The first game of the evening at 7:30 will be between the Pry's Drug Store and the Bishops. The game will be the most important game of the evening in that it will decide which team is entitled to occupy second place in the percentage column.

The second game at 8:00 will be between the Price Shoe Company and the League Champions—the Capital National Bank. The champs are planning on winning tonight and thereby making a total of twelve games won and but two lost.

The third game at 8:30 will be between the Capital Business College and the Watt Ship Co. The Business College whether it wins or loses will retain its present standing of four places.

The last game of the evening at 9:00 will be between the Hausser Bros. and the Standard Cleaners.

The Moose lodge is doing considerable business as 12 were initiated into the lodge last night. After the initiation, the evening was spent in a general social way, the wives of many of the members being present for the refreshments. Among the speakers were Judge Galloway, Representative Tom Brown, Dictator Fred S. Lamport, Incoming Dictator Ernest Blue and others. Benjamin Brick proposed the slogan, "One Thousand Members by 1917" and the charter will remain open for another three months. The initiated ones last evening were: Judge William Galloway, Nelson Freeman, Herbert Savage, Ellis Cooley, Clifford Parker, Harry J. Busiez, Frank Baker, A. Tyler Woolport, Wesley Smith, Orvin Frye and L. M. Bezza.

Examinations for non-commissioned officers, Company M, will be held tomorrow evening, instead of Friday evening as first announced. This change of date was necessary on account of the absence from the city of one of the company officers Friday.

Oh well, Corvallis is not so much with its famous Dryden hen that made a world record. There is a hen that makes her home in Salem, and just at present her address is 1006 North Liberty, in the hen coop of E. E. Tucker. This hen, according to the statement of Mr. Tucker has laid an egg every day for the past 30 days and is still in the game. And if any one has a specimen of poultry that can beat it, Mr. Tucker is willing to meet all comers regardless of ancestry or pedigree, as this valuable hen, says Mr. Tucker, is just an ordinary common hen without any White Leghorn or Wyandotte pedigree.

IF IT'S EATS Now if it's eats you are looking for, just kindly take my lunch—Step in "The Six" on any day. And try their special lunch. Everybody says it is cooked just so; For it is done by a chef who ought to know. It is served so dainty and so nice; Another thing that's right is the price. Yours truly,
